OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Shortly after dusk on Saturday evening Elias Breneman, horse dealer, of Carlisle, lost his pocketbook containing $1,307 in money with valuable papers together valued at upwards of $1,700. He soon discovered his loss and with a-number of friends a search was made. In the meantime Clarence Good, aged about 11 years, of this borough, had found the lost prop-erty in front of the Union national bank, and was hunting an owner. He soon learned whose it was and Mr. Breneman rewarded him with a ten dollar bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28 .- The announcement that Mahone would to-day address the Senate in vindication of his course and in explanation of Readjuster principles, had the effect of filling the gal-leries and a number of people entitled to the privilege were scated on the the floor. Mah ne then spoke at great length in dcfense of his position. The journal of Saturday having been read, the vice president laid before the Senate the resolution for the appointment of the Senate officers, stating that the senator from Virginia had the floor.

Mr. Mahone premised his speech by ex-pressing his regret that he should be com pelled again to interrupt the deliberations of the Senate. 'I trust," he said, " that senators and the country will concede that to this seeming forwardness I am provoked. If I may fail to challenge the generous consideration of those who would appear to have found pleasure without justification in their varied and ungener ous assaults. I do not doubt that I shall command the respect of the brave and independent spirits here, as I know I shall among my own people. I shall not complain of that indirection which has characterized the manner and methods of senators in their allusion s to me I must accept that they comport entirely with their own sense of manly de-
