LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. MARIETTA MATTERS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. High winds have been blowing for several days, and the river has been very rough. For this reason no rafts have appeared yet. Some have come down.as far as Harrisburg, but the great bulk are above. A number of merchants are in Lock Haven, and some sales are being made at prices a little higher than last sea-

On Friday a sneak thief stole a valuable shad from the premises of Edward Stahl on Front street.

The demand for onion sets is much greater than the supply, so much so that they are bringing from 35 to 50 cents a quart in this vicinity. Some one must have a corner in onions

"Fortuna" is a good name for Beunett & Haldeman's factory, on account of its benedictine propensities. One of the firm set an example some time ago, and now there are four more marriages among their operatives inside of a month, three in prospect and one consummated.

On Saturday "Doc" Leeds' horse broke his hitching strap and ran away from the Cross Keyshotel where he was tied and made for home. But fortunately not becoming frightened he managed the short turns and the distance of five or six squares without doing any damage to himself or the buggy.

On Sunday, contrary to expectation, Rev J. E. McElmoyle returned to fill his pulpit. He had secured the promise of another minister to fill his pulpit, but that gentleman was unavoidably prevented from coming.

Mr. J. C. Wood preached his first sermon in the Methodist church on Sunday to a well-filled house. On Saturday evening the congregation held a festival in their Sunday school room, in order to raise funds for the payment of the interest on their church debt, and succeeded in clearing $10 The new pastor will move into the property just vacated by Robert Turner, jr.

Nathan Dyer, who left Marietta for the West several weeks ago, has come east again, to some neighboring town. The Exchange bank, besides declaring a dividend added as much as the dividend to their surplus. They doubled their deposits during the year. Both banks are in a flourishing condition. The First national is considered one of the most reliable in the state. John Stum returned from a trip to the West on Saturday. Harry Frederick is in town again.

Ou Friday three more car loads of cattle were sent to Philadelphia and three car loads of tobacco to St. Louis. A few rafts got down on Saturday. Two were blown over to Coyle's and two went on to Wrightsville.

Tobias Stehman received a telegram on Friday announcing the death of his mother in Carlisle, Pa. Her age was 95 years. On Saturday Mr. Stehman went up to the funeral, which took place Sunday.

Gen. Cameron has a very interesting hotograph of himself and friends at Nassau, New Providence. The tropical surroundings contrast with the absence of foliage in this region

Front street had a ripple the other morning at about half-past eight o'clock, caused by a runaway team and a smashup. F. J. Schneider, proprietor of a bake-ry on Front street, has been in the habit of leaving his horse stand unbridled and hitched in the baker's wagon while cating his morning feed, in an alley that runs from Marietta street to the railroad. He has been considered safe, but a west bound train frightened him and he rushed down the alley and up Front street on a race with the train. On reaching Sam. Miller's hotel he came in contact with a wagon loaded with potatoes and belonging to Amos Lehman, who had his leg broken in town a week or so ago. The boy who drove Lehman's wagon, tried to get on the pavement, but Schneider's team struck him and upset against the cars, taking the top off and spreading bread and pretzels all around. Lehman's wagon was also injured, but no injury was sustained by either horses or Lehman's driver

DRUMORE ITEMS.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT Mr. Samuel J. Boyd and family, of Fair field, moved from that place the beginning of the present week, to West Virginia, where he has bought a large and very valuable farm. Mr. Boyd is an excellent practical farmer and intends to engage in that vocation in his new home much more extensively than he could here. He takes with him the best wishes of his old friends and neighbors; a darkey and Mr. John Booth.

Liberty Square lyceum closed last Friday evening with a full house. It has had a very successful season for its first, and in the class of the "lower end," stands only one below the old and firmly established lyceum, and would like to spell it down, but repeated efforts have proved that sort of thing vain.

Our farmers have any quantity of good tobacco yet unsold, and are anxious to see buyers; they care nothing about lookers. Last week Mr. Samuel Long delivered his crop of tobacco to Lancaster, and found when it was weighed at the warehouse that it tipped the beam at just one half of what its tipping was at home. It was found upon investigation that Mr. Long had weighed on the wrong side of the beam, and that his yield was not so extraordinary as ne had thought it. May we call it Long measure?

Last Friday was the fiftieth birthday of

Mr. Edward Ambler and his twin sister, Mrs. Ann Lamborn, and they were given a very pleasant and complete surprise at the residence of Mr. Ambler by about sixty of their friends, who made it for themselves and the twins-a wholesome twin is Ed.-a memorable occasion. Of course the surprising ladies came provided with the best things the taste-the stomach was an afterdinner consideration, or lamentation -that their recipt books could recommend, and the dinner was a pronounce success. It is true that some of his visitors thought that it was not really necessary for Ed. to endeavor to eat himself to the size of a semi centennial, but there are always some fault-finders and the object of their concern didn't seem to mind them, but ate right on as if for a wager. On Saturday fifty friends of Mr. Alexander Stevenson and wife gave them a surprise it being the occasion of the thirtieth anniversary of their marriage. If these surprise parties would make it a point to invite your itemizer he would be better prepared to give glowing account, from notes taken on the scene of edible carnage. It would be safe to say, however, that it was a success as they alway are Rue. was a success as they alway are. By a serious upset last winter Mr. Stevenson had his arm broken but is improving as 400 Boxes Old Bourbon Whisky, $35. by mistake; without receiving any comfort from the sugar-plumb that many of our Republicans suck, of being on the "strong side."

How to Get Well. Thousands of persons are constantly troubled with a combination of diseases. Diseased kidners and costive bowels are their tormentors. They should know that Kidney-Wort acts on these organs at the same time, causing them to throw off the poisons that have clogged them, and so renewing the whole man. Hun-dreds testify to this.—Pittsburgh Post. m28-1wd&w

Bogus Certificates. It is no vile drugged stuff, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, barks, &c., and puffed up by long bogus certificates, of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well known valuable remedies, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. See "Truths" and "Proverbs," in another column."
