THURSDAY EVEN'G, MARCH 31, 1881

A Dutch Victory.

The other day a German called on grocer to pay a bill, giving him a ten dol-lar note. The grocer examined it closely "Hello, where did you get this note?"
"Vot ish de reason mit dose note?"
replied the honest Teuton. "Don't she vast good, hein?" "Good !" answered the grocer. " Why your a lucky man; that note is worth

"Ish dot so? Why for ?" "You see the signature over here, don't

"Dose tings like corkscrew mit de worms? Yah." "Well, that's Spinner's signature."

" Vell ?" "Well, Mr. New is now treasurer of the United States."

"You don't tole me so, vell?" "Well, the notes signed by Mr. Spinner are getting scarce, and the people pay five per cent. more for them than the new

"Py shiminy! Ish dot so?" "Let me see your bills. Why, every one of them is a Spinner. Man alive, your fortune is made ?"

In pursuance of the grocer's advice, Mr Schneider called at the sub-treasury to get the premium on his bills. What success he had is impossible to state, but he was seen later in the evening lurking around the street by which the grocer must go home, and being accosted by an acquaintance, the following conversation took place: "Der peoples from Sharmony fight well,

"Oh yes; the Germans are unquestionably a military nation of the first class.' "Some big fights. hein? "Yes."

"Leipsic?" " Und Sadowa ?"

" Certainly." "Und Worth?"

" Yes." "Und Mars-la-Tour, und Gravelotte, und Sedan ?" "Of course, of course."

" Dose vas all big battles und de Dutch licked." " Yes."

"Vell, you joost vait till dot grocery store shuts himself, and you saw a Dutch victory vot make you forget all dem lit-

Practicing Parliamentary Points. Mr. Rogers, of Third street, has a son Thomas who was sent off to Lansing on a visit some weeks since, and it seems that the boy pat in much of his time around the state house and took a deep interest in the proceedings of the legislative body. He came home chuck full of parliamentary tactics. At the dinner table he moved to reconsider the vote by which boiled ham was placed on the bill of fare, and demanded the yeas and mays on the question of a new pair of rubber boots and a spring velocipede. He hadn't been home two days before he observed to his hunk of maple sugar in the pantry. "You can't have it."

"But I must. My motion cuts off all debate, and I shall announce the question aug28-1yd] as carried in the affirmative."

His father suggested the idea of an hour's exercise with the axe, but the boy called for a general expression of opinion and succeeded in passing a vote to recommit the question to the committee on rules for amendment. Things went on in this way for a week, and the old man finally had enough of it and felt called upon to administer a caution.

"Don't you know that an amendment takes precedence of the question itself?' replied the boy. "I amend as follows:
"Resolved, That this family recognizes Cushing's Manual as standard authority on questions of debate. Are you ready for the question?"

"No, sir !" replied the old man. "Do you wish for a call of the House?" "I wish you to understand that your talk displeases me!"
"Well, while I must respect the rights of the minority I still feel that it would be a safer plan to table your motion. It can come up again under the head of 'unfinished business."

In about ten minutes the old man was ready for him in the wood-shed and remarked:

"There is a quorum present and we will proceed to business "I move to take a recess," rep ied the boy as his back began to ache. "Can't do it," said the father, as he hung up his hat. "I am now going into committee of the whole on the whaling business, and if I can't tan your jacket in ten minutes I shall ask leave to sit again. Stand out here !"

"Please call mother to the chair !" pleaded the youth, but it was no go. The old man had a two-thirds vote on him, and the question was so well settled that the boy was able to buy two bars of soap at a grocery that afternoon without a single allusion to Cushing.

How to Get Well.

Thousands of persons are constantly troubled with a combination of diseases. Diseased kidneys and costive bowels are their tormentors. They should know that Kidney-Wort acts on these organs at the same time, causing them to throw off the poisons that have clogged them, and so renewing the whole man. Hundreds testify to this.—Pittsburgh Post.

Rogus Certificates. It is no vile drugged stuff, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, barks, &c., and puffed up by long bogus certificates, of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well known valuable remedies, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. See "Truths" and "Proverbs," in another column."
