COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Mrs. Wheeler, wife of Rev. Henry Wheeler, of this place, is at Williamsport in attendance at the Pennsylvania state convention of the Women's foreign missionary society. We understand that Mrs. Wheeler will deliver an address. Rev. Mr. McElmoyle, of Marietta, preached last evening in the Presbyterian church of this place. Services will be held this evening.

A party of about fifteen couples surprised Mr. and Mrs. Hurfy Sourbeer last evening at their residence on Cherry street opposite the public school building, and very enjoyably spent the evening. Surprise parties are becoming numerous in Columbia. The Women's foreign missionary so ciety of the M. E. church of this place will hold a meeting this evening in the church Mr. Frank Ziegler, clerk in F. A. Bennett's store, is on the sick list and consequently off duty. Squire Evans is indisposed and confined to his residence. We learn that Mr. Gable the confectioner, is dangerously ill at his residence on Locust street above Third.

The meeting of the Lutheran ladies' aid society, held last evening at the residence of Mrs. Simon C. Camp on Walnut street, above Fourth, was attended with much enjoyment and financial success. The gathering was a large one.

The Shawnee fire company will hold its egular monthly meeting to-morrow

President of Council Musser will appoint his committees on Friday evening and at the same time the new borough officers will be elected. Doctors Berntheizel, Bruner, Craig, Kay and Lineaweaver left here on the 1 o'clock train to-day to attend the meeting of the Lancaster County medical society to be held this afternoon at Lancaster. And still the high winds check rafting. Mrs. Judge Michael is visiting at Phila-

The Vigilant fire company held its regular monthly meeting last evening, when Mr. George W. Schroeder was elected a delegate to the volunteer fireman's state convention to be held at Reading, Pa., in September next. The company decided to participate in the parade to be held at Reading on convention day and from this date forward preparations will be making to that end. We have not heard whether either of the other fire companies in town will be represented at the convention or take part in the parade.

A little girl fell on a slippery pavement on Walnut street, below Sixth, this morning and was quite severely injured. Her head struck the pavement with much force and she was rendered unconscious for a time. she was carried into a house near by where attention to her sufferings was given.

General Welsh post No. 118, G. A. R., met last evening in the Vigilant hall for the transaction of business. Three recruits were mustered in, and some time was devoted to talk on the coming bean bake which will be given by the post to its

Mrs. Kurtz. wife of Rev. John F. Kurtz, was in Columbia this morning, collecting for the Evangelical Reformed Cotton street mission of Reading. Those of the Methodist persuasion are the principal victims in our community. We do not believe that begging is the calling for which woman is intended, but she appears to be eminently fitted for it. There is a little consolation in the fact that some of these days the Columbia melon will be sucked dry and then another just ripening will be looked up. The drama "Hearts of Oak" will be presented to a Columbia audience in the opera house on Saturday evening, April 9, under the auspices of General Welsh, post No. 118., G. A. R. who have arranged with Manager Mishler to take the company off his hands in its appearance here. The acts of the play are founded along a Massachusetts sea coast, and the play itself deals with the dangers which abound in such localities to venturesome, and sometimes prudent people. A complement of appropriate scenery, which the company carry with them, will much enhance the effect of the presentation, which the G. A. R. post assures us, will be well worth viewing. The box sheet is now open at Richards' book store.

MARRIED FOR FIFTY YEARS.

Celebration of the Golden Wedding Anniversary. Last evening Mr. Peter Huber and wife, residing at 139 North Water street, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wed ding at their home. A large number of friends and relatives were present. An excellent supper was partaken of and the old couple were the recipients of congrat-ulations and many handsome presents. Mr. Huber was married to his wife, whose maiden name was Catharine Selvert, being a daughter of Andrew Selvert, sr., on April 5th, 1831. They have had six children, three sons and three daughters, all of whom are living. Their names are as follows: Eberman Huber, John Huber, Emanuel Huber, Mary, wife of Rev. Wilson Coulter, of Harrisburg, Mrs. Connover, residing in the coal regions, and Miss Clementine, who resides at home. Mr. Huber is a well known resident of this city and he and his family have many friends. The party broke up at a reasonable hour, and all present wished the host and hostess many many more happy anniversaries.

Those Borses. We copied yesterday from a West Ches ter paper a paragraph stating that a Lancaster man while driving a pair of match horses toward Philadelphia had the misfortune to lose both of them-one dropping dead in the harness near Glenloch and the other near the Belvedere store. From the fact that Theodore Trout left Lancaster on Monday morning with his match sorrels, intending to drive to Philadelphia, it is supposed the horses spoken of above were his. Mrs. Trout last evening telegraphed to Philadelphia, inquiring whether Mr. Trout and the horses had reached there. She received a telegram from Mr. Trout this morning in which he says that he is all right and will be home to-morrow or Friday, but he says nothing about the horses. It is feared that the beautiful little sorrels seen so often upon our streets and admired so much are dead. Mrs. Trout says the sorrels have been driven to Philadelphia several times before, and on each occasion were taken sick while en route.

Gone South. Mr. Richardson A. Bair, a popular young gentleman of this city, a graduate ical effects, an improved libretto, halt a dozen in the "art preservative," left Lancaster additional numbers, are some of the features last night for Charlestown, W. In Town. Last evening Col. Thomas A. Scott came to this city in a special car and he spent the evening at the residence of Samuel II. Reynolds, esq. Col. Duffy, Col. Wm. B. Fordney and John A. Hiestand were also entertained by Mr. Reynolds. Col. Scott returned to Philadelphia this morning.

Obituary.

Died in Baltimore, Md., on Friday, March 25, in the fifteenth year of his age, James Buchanan Johnston, chiest son of Henry Elliott Johnston and Harriet Lane Johnston, and the grand nephew of ex-President Buchanan. Those who know the parents of this boy understand the loss to them implied by the above announcement. But only those who were well acquainted with the youth himself can comprehend that his death is a probable bereavement to a circle larger than mere family and friends; for there were in his moral and intelectual traits wonderful possibilities and great promise, from which much was expected in the tuture. We are not undertaking to chronicle the death of an ordinary lad, with the usual platitudes concerning a "shining mark" and those "whom the gods love;" but we think him worthy of mention, as the more mature are noticed, because there was an individuality in this young life which excited gen eral interest. While he was fond of his vouthful companlons, and had been reared to manly sports and exercises, his greatest pleasure was in books, which he devoured with the atter self-surrender of the true student. He was especially well posted in history, and was a considerable linguist; and it, in all his studies, his progress had not been extraordinary, it was because he followed the usual erratic course of genius, and was acquiring, through miscellaneous reading, vast stores of general information. That he was affectionate, noble and truthful in character, it pleases those nearest him to know, though the stranger could only admire is graceful and distinguished bearing and, in looking upon his fine head and beautiful blue eyes, merely conjecture his mental and moral elevation, for he was reserved and dig-

It is also interesting to note that this thoughtful boy had long been ready and eager or confirmation, and was to have been reeived into the church of his fathers on the Sunday before his death; but illness prevented, and the next Sunday he was borne to the tamily vault, with annunciation lilies in his dender white hands, there to await his Easter.

"His leat is perished in the green,
