Installation of Officers.

Last evening D. D. G. M., E. J. Erisman, I. O. O. F., accompanied by Past They partook of an excellent supper which $11,500. had been prepared for them at the Summy house, after which they proceeded to the lodge room where the following officers were installed:

Noble Grand-I. W. Erb. Vice Gaand-J. S. Witman. Secretary-II. M. Ensminger. Asst. Sceretary-Charles A. Kline Treasurer-Chas. A. Duniap. The assets of the lodge are $3,829.60 and liabilities nothing. Laneaster Ledge, No. 67, L.O.O.F., installed their recently elected officers last evening. Their names have been published heretofore. The relief furnished by the lodge during the past term amounted to $1,370.88. The assets of the none. There are 359 members, of whom whom are grown, only 28 required relief.

THE OPERA.

Leavitt's Burlesque Troope Last Night The appearance of M. B. Leavitt's English burlesque opera company was greeted dent only causes by a large audience at Fulton opera house mill for 30 hours. last night. The performance was, on the whole, a disappointing one, starting out with a radical change of programme, in consequence of which a number of the being a nondescript composition, abound- church. ing in scantily clad-goddesses, and other inhabitants of the celestial and infernal regions of varied styles and stations, whose conceptions of morality were apparently not of the highest order. The music, however, especially the chorus effects, constituted the feature of the performance entitled to all praise, many of the selections from reigning operatic attractions being happily made and admirably rendered. Of the individual members of the troupe, which in number is nearer twenty than the forty advertised, Miss Marie Williams proved herself a clever soubrette artist, acted and sang capitally. Miss Nellie Larketle, whose lithographs have profusely adorned the store windows for several days past, was conspicious by her absence.

THIS MORNING'S FIRE

A Small Stable Burned. This morning between 12 and 1 o'clock, a small frame stable owned by Lawrence Goos and situated on the hotel property, occupied by G, E. Reichman, at the corner of Rockland and Low streets, was destroyed by fire. There was nothing in the building but a small quantity of straw and it was almost entirely consumed. There was an insurance of $75 on the stable in the Home mutual company. This amount will not cover the loss. The building was set on fire undoubtedly. At half past eleven o'clock everything was right and the fire was discovered at quarter past

The Unknown Dead Man. Coroner Mishler has received the follow ing letter which explains itself. The coroner says there is no doubt that the man killed at Leaman Piace is the same man who was at Mr. Painter's, as stated in the letter : PAINTER'S BRIDGE, CHESTER Co., PA.)

April 6, 1881. To the Coroner of Lancaster. DEAR SIR : I notice in two of our daily papers of West Chester, notice of an unknown man being killed near Leaman accident, a German man came along the road ; said he came from Baltimore and of Lancaster, preached an excellent sermon last evening in St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Was going to Lancaster county to hunt for work; was rather a stout built man from 36 to 49 years of age; was well dressed in Henry Haverstick, 1 hog... 220 his boots, black hair, a moustache and other whiskers; was carrying a common black valise, with very little in it. He opened his valise in the presence of the man and took from it a diary with a few words of German, written in front part. My man wrote in it, "Painter, Painter's Rev. Charles A. Hay, D. D., president Bridge, Chester Co., Pa." The unknown man requested my man to write the above, as he promised my brother a short time before he would return to go to work about April 1st, provided he did not left to the short time before he would return to go to work about April 1st, provided he did not left to the short time before he would return to go to left to the short time before he would return to go to left to the short time before he would return to go to left to the short time before he would return to go to left time before he work about April 1st, provided he dide not find work. He said he had been in the country four years last fall, and had been nearly all over the country, working here and there a short time. My man says he now thinks it was the 25th of March he seventeen time head of catcle to Philade! - came by here; he also thinks he put the name of our postoffice and station on the railroad, "Pocopson," in the diary with the aforementioned writing. I do not know that this will be of any particular use to you, excepting if it proves to be the same man. In all prob-ment shorn of its rail of protection, which, with the other fixtures of the office, has If it proves to be the same, I will be

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.

Resolutions Passed—Members Severely Cen-NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 8 .- The Legislature yesterday adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the rights of our citizens in Great Britain who sympathize with struggling Ireland, and who have committed no crime which justifies their arrest and imprisonment, should be fully maintained, and that our senators and representatives in Congress should unite in calling the attention of the government to the duty of protecting our citizens from the penalties of the coercion act and from other outrages upon them."

The joint committee appointed to investigate bribery and corruption reported that while the evidence does not sustain the charges of bribery it does disclose the fact that two members (Messrs. Davis and Plummer) were guilty of conduct fearfully at variance with good morals and the rules of propriety.
