FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 8, 1881.

Hob Lagerool on the Launch of a Child. The laugh of a child will make the holiest day more sacred still. Strike with hand of fire, oh, woe musician, thy harp strung with Apollo's golden hair; fill the vast cathedral aisles with symphonies sweet and dim, deft together of the organ keys; blow, bang, blow, until the silver notes do touch and kiss the moonlit waves and charm the lovers warring amid-wind clad hills. But know, your sweetest strains are discordant all, compared with child's happy laugh—the laugh that fills the eyes with light and every heart with joy. Oh, rippling river of laughter, thou art the blessed boundary line between the beasts and men, and every wayward wave of thine doth down some fretful fiend of earth. Oh laughter, rose-lipped daughter of Jove, there are dimples glowing in thy cheeks to catch and hold and glorify all the tears of grief.

Various Ways to Hope. Chicago has an elopement case in which the enamored pair, being hindered in their departure by the woman's husband, gave him a dressing and whipping and then hid out of the window. A man eloped at Canoga, N. Y., and with some difficulty induced a clergyman to marry him to his companion. On the following day he came with another girl, and wanted to be united to her. He has since been sent to an insane asylum. The bride in a Lakeville, Conn., elopement was only 13. A couple at Litchfield, Minn., walked twenty-five miles before they found a qualified person who would perform the ceremony. The white, educated wife of a rich man at Amboy, Ill., eloped with a handsome mulatto servant of about half her own age. An eloping couple at What Cheer, Wis., being caught in a severe storm, broke into a church for lodging, and were fined $20.

Never Return. It is said that one out of every four real-estate holders who go to Denver, Col., to recover their never return to the East or South. It is a curious fact, and one that is not to be overlooked. The real-estate business in this city is very profitable, and many of the holders of real estate in this city are not to be seen again.

Shooting Chills Down the Back. Dull pain in the limbs, nausea, biliousness, are symptoms of approaching fever and ague.
