

general suspension of business. The post-office, which usually observes "Sunday hours" on holidays, will be open today.

MR. MURD'S COMPANION. What Moran told a "Press" Reporter. A reporter of the Philadelphia Press has interviewed Patrick Moran, of the book firm of James McDevitt & Co., No. 224 Walnut street, who came to Lancaster with the late Luther J. Hurd and about whose board Mr. Hurd had the fatal difficulty with Finney.

Moran, who went to Lancaster for the purpose of establishing canvassing agencies was unexpectedly called to Philadelphia on Monday, the 4th instant, by the illness of Mr. McDevitt, his partner. On the 3th instant Mr. Moran was surprised to receive the following dispatch from Lancaster: "Come at once, in trouble."

Mr. Moran says he is satisfied that this dispatch was not written by Hurd. "I am morally certain," said he, "that my first telegram to Hurd was intercepted by Finney and answered by him. My first dispatch is signed 'Hurd,' just as he would have written it, but the second is signed 'L. J. Hurd,' which is very unlike his usual style of doing business." Mr. Moran was not cognizant of the tragedy until Monday last, when he received a letter from Lawyer Leaman, of Lancaster, informing him of Hurd's death the day previous. Had he known that Hurd was lying at the point of death for two days, or even ill, he would have gone to his assistance.

THE MEAT BUSINESS. A Man Arrested on the Charge of Stealing a Quantity of It.

Last night David Hauck, a resident of Lounstown, in the Welsh mountains, was arrested on the charge of breaking into the house of Daniel Gray and stealing a large quantity of meat on the night of April 6. Since the larceny it was believed that Hauck was the guilty party, and yesterday when Constable Bowman was in the neighborhood Hauck became very uneasy. The officer called on him and, without making any attempt to find the thief, to keep a close watch on Hauck. In the evening Buzzard and Jacob Lowry hid themselves near Hauck's house. In a short time they saw him come out; he had a quart of meat in his hand which he carried to some rocks, where he intended to hide it. Buzzard at once went for Bowman who was yet in the neighborhood, and the two, with Lowry, succeeded in arresting Hauck, who was taken before Squire Staymaker. He was committed in default of bail for the amount of $100, and this morning he was brought to prison. Mr. Gray identified the meat in Hauck's possession as his property.

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERY. Close of the session in York.

Yesterday afternoon Rev. Kerr was examined, for admission to the ministry, by Rev. Dr. Niles and Smith in theology; in church history and government by Dr. Stewart; to answer the charge of Rev. Lewis, McElroy and McCoy; and ancient languages by Rev. Crawford. He preached an able trial sermon. In the evening a Sunday school meeting was held and afterwards the members were handsomely entertained at Mr. D. E. Stoddard's.

This forenoon the committees on home and foreign missions reported; the latter is to be printed as a circular letter. The board of ministerial relief recommends the retirement of aged ministers on pay. The committee on the charge of Rev. Lewis, McElroy and McCoy, and ancient languages by Rev. Crawford. He preached an able trial sermon. In the evening a Sunday school meeting was held and afterwards the members were handsomely entertained at Mr. D. E. Stoddard's.

John Wallace, sheriff of Cumberland county, has been through Lancaster this morning, having in his custody Jacob Mumma, recently convicted of burglary and sentenced by the Cumberland county court to ten years imprisonment in the Eastern penitentiary. It may be noticed as a somewhat curious coincidence that both the sheriff and his prisoner are old residents of Lancaster county. Mr. Wallace removed a good many years ago from Earl township, settled in Carlisle, bought out a newspaper, entered politics, and through a Republican vote elected sheriff of Cumberland, and one of the Democratic Cumberland. His prisoner was not so lucky; he was formerly employed in the Litzitz brewery in this county, migrated to Cumberland, entered the burglary business, and is brought up on a short term in the Eastern penitentiary.

Felonious Assault and Battery. Lewis Kirk, a resident of Drumont township, has been held in bail for a hearing on Saturday before Alderman A. P. Donnelly, to answer the charge of felonious assault and battery, preferred by Elmer Hulsinger, colored, of this city. Hulsinger alleges that one day last week he was driving in the country when he was attacked by Kirk who hit him with several stones and then chased him with a revolver.

City Treasurer Sworn In. Wm. McCossey, city treasurer-elect, appeared before Mayor MacGonigle this morning and took the oath of office, after which the money books and other valuables pertaining to the treasurer's office were turned over to him by the retiring treasurer, W. S. Shirk.

Mr. McCossey has appointed as his clerk, Chas. Milton Weidie, late book-keeper for Givler, Havers & Hurst. Another Attempt to Fire a Building. Last evening an attempt was made to fire a frame building, formerly used as a blacksmith shop, situated on the premises of Robert Eichholtz on Lime street, about 9 o'clock. The fire was discovered by George W. Kendrick, who quickly extinguished it. A lot of waste, saturated with coal oil was found. The damage was very slight.

In Town. John H. Keppelman, city clerk of Reading, is in Lancaster to day in accordance with the action taken at a recent meeting of the councils of that city, instructing him to collect data relative to Belgian block pavements, it being proposed to have two squares of Penn street paved with Belgian blocks at an early day.

One Vag. A solitary vagrant graced the mayor's levee this morning. He appeared to be lonesome, and so the mayor discharged him, advising him to leave town and hunt up his missing comrades, as he had ingested long the copy book again pick him up should he would be consigned to "a dungion cell."

Narrow Escape. A three-year-old child of Frank Carr, of Fulton township, during the absence of the mother, obtained a phial containing a considerable quantity of laudanum, which it swallowed. Dr. Stubbs gave the saving emetic.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Miss Katie Gosler is home from Swarthmore university to spend the Easter holidays. Mr. Edwin J. Lockard, of Philadelphia, was in town yesterday. Oliver Snyder is erecting a cracker bakery on Walnut street between Second and Third streets. The young couple of Marietta are making preparations for a party or so to be given in the near future probably at Central hall. The invitations will be issued in about a week.

The road committee of councils is now engaged in having the streets cleaned. Fortunately there is not much dirt to be scraped up and the work will neither be lasting or costly. The sociable given last evening in the church parlors by the Sunday morning class of the school conducted by Mrs. M. E. Church was decidedly pleasant and successful affair. A choice musical and literary programme was rendered and the refreshments netted about $25, which goes into the treasury.

The Pennsylvania railroad company will sell excursion tickets for $9 cents, passing one hour to Lancaster and return, and into Barum's consolidated shows, on the 23rd of the present month. This is on a 100 per cent reduction in fare. The river is again away up and there is now some prospect of heavy rafting. It is expected to come extended, however, a high wind is blowing to-day.

We had a fair market this morning. Our people are getting in their Easter eggs. The E. E. Lutheran mite society meets this evening at the residence of Mr. H. F. Yergey, on Long street above Second. At the congregational meeting of the E. E. Lutheran church, last evening, the following officers were elected: Elder, Jacob H. Oberlin; Deacons, S. P. Graver, Daniel Reisher, John G. Benner, E. M. Stevenson and Hiram Ostorf. More than two hundred and fifty dollars was subscribed toward the liquidation of the church's current indebtedness.

A number of little folks surprised Miss Ida Richards, daughter of John P. Richards, at her father's residence, last evening, the occasion of her seventh birthday anniversary. They had a nice time of it. Osceola tribe, No. 11, I. O. R. M., will install officers this evening in the opera house. The admission will be free to the holders of cards. That new orchestra will be present.

John Peterson, a former resident of Columbia, but of late years a seafaring man, has been visiting his old home for some time past. Last evening Peterson called upon William Calley, a rolling mill man, residing on Lawrence street near Third. It is said that Peterson has been drinking and making a free call and was partially intoxicated. While he was talking to Calley he took from his pockets three revolvers, one of which, it is said, he was about presenting to Calley when in handling it carelessly the weapon was discharged, the bullet striking Calley in the neck and was so fatally wounded. While he was talking to Calley he took from his pockets three revolvers, one of which, it is said, he was about presenting to Calley when in handling it carelessly the weapon was discharged, the bullet striking Calley in the neck and was so fatally wounded.

Next Monday evening (Easter Monday) the Lancaster Minneorchestra will give one of their delightful entertainments. The concert, succeeded by a dancing soiree, will constitute the order of the evening, and reliable assurances indicate that the former part of the programme will be an unusually high character, having been prepared with extreme care by Prof. Matz. The dance music will be furnished by Taylor.

Malt liquors regulate, purify, strengthen and nourish the maternal functions. Mothers, as a delightful sanitary measure, always order the Cuticura Medical Soap. Mothers never fail to recommend Malt liquors as nourishing and strengthening.

A Healthy State. People are constantly changing their homes from East to West and from North to South in search of a healthy state. If they would learn to live in a healthy state, the celebrated Kidney-Wort will stick they would be much better off. The whole system can be kept in a healthy state by this simple but effective remedy. See large advertisement.

"You Don't Know Their Value." "They cured me of Cough, Bronchitis and Kidney Complaint," as commented, I had a half bottle left which I used for my two little girls, when the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I am confident I should have had both of them cured if I had not had the Hop Bitters in my house to use. I found they did them so much good, I continued with them, and they are now well. That is why I say you need not apply to the Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them highly enough."—B. Rochester, N. Y.

A Cure at Last. Specimens without number for the cure of Catarrh have been extensively advertised, and countless have been sold in this city, but the evidence is overwhelming that Ely's Cream Balm goes more directly than any other to the seat of the disease, and though it is a comparatively new discovery, it has resulted in more cures within the range of our observation than all the others put together.—W. Wakebarre, Dr., Union Depot, Dec 12, 1879.

We Have Sold Ely's Cream Balm for Catarrh for the past year; have never had a complaint but have received praises. It gives satisfaction to every one using it. N. Y. Wakebarre & Co., Druggists, 115 Broadway, Jan. 25, 1880.

Amusements. Hvers Sisters To-night.—The noted colored prima donnas, Madam and Louisa Hvers, supported by a concert band, will to-night and to-morrow night appear at Fulton opera house in their musical play, "Out of Bondage." They carry with them very complimentary press notices. The Reading News says: "Of all the troupes of juba and cabin singers composed of colored people, not even excepting the musical portion of the extensive minstrel organizations, the entertainment given by the Hvers Sisters is the palm. Their programme appeals to a cultivated literary taste and a refined musical appreciation, as well as to the universal love of fun. The solos, duets and quartets were all executed with a dramatic grace that marked the true artist's hand." Herday's Assembly.—On Monday evening next Herday's Assembly will be given at the Wonders will appear at the opera house. They come from Baltimore, where for months they delighted immense throngs, the attendance in a single week being estimated by a newspaper at that city at 100,000. They are the tiny people, Admiral Dool, Major Atom and Little Jewel, the gigantic Col. Orr, a troupe of musical Roman soldiers, acrobats, jugglers, ventriloquists, &c.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. LINENS. LINENS. We have received new linens from Belfast, Barnsley, Dundermine, Lisle, Brussels, Ghent, Silesia, Bohemia. We have ransacked all Europe for linens, and have a variety of both fabric and finish that could not be gathered in the American market. The goods are fresh, too. That's important; for linens bought in New York may be several years old, and you know starched linens do not improve by age. The dressings used by the manufacturers is not so destructive as starch; but it does injure the fabric in time. We have another advantage in prices. We gain the importer's profit.

The result is we get the best linens in the world, in the best possible condition, and for the least money anybody can get them for. We can give you the importers' profit, and still have enough left.

Now it is proper for you to consider that somebody else may be doing the same thing, and afford the very same advantages. So, if you please, whatever you wish to buy get samples of it from us and from others, and compare.

Or buy our goods, if you like; and if you can do so well elsewhere, bring ours back. This is rather a brave challenge; for, you know nobody wants remnants.

The linens now in use, sheeting, pillow, bolster and shirting linens, towels, towings, dollies, napkins, table cloths and table linens.

JOHN WANAMAKER, Chestnut, Thirteenth and Market Sts., PHILADELPHIA.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, April 14.—For the Middle Atlantic states, falling barometer, stationary or higher temperature, northerly backing to westerly winds, partly cloudy weather, with occasional rain near the coast.

THE NEWS OF THE AFTERNOON. At 10:15 Lord Beaconsfield showed some gain of strength.

In Wausau, Ohio, Lyon, Clement & Grignola's flour mill burned yesterday. Loss $20,000, insurance $15,000. By a vote of 21 to 20 the Senate refused to go into executive session and Mr. Morgan spoke on the Democratic side of the wrangle over the offices.

Some property but no persons in Madrid were injured last evening by three large petards thrown into houses. Under the coercion act numerous arrests of Irish journalists are to be made. James Daly, proprietor of the Connacht Telegraph has been arrested at Castle Bar, Mayo county, and arrangements have been made to seize the New York Irish World in transit to New York to Queenstown.

Margaret Miller, aged 45 and homeless, jumped into the East river, New York, at the foot of Stanton street, at 6 o'clock a. m. to-day. The spectators rescued her with a net, and hours later Harry McCann, aged 50 and homeless, tried it at the foot of 53d street and was rescued and taken to Bellevue hospital. Both women will probably recover.

The Republican state central committee met in Harrisburg this afternoon and decided to hold the state convention in that city on Thursday, Sept. 8. There was a fair attendance.

The famous anti-Jewish petition was sent to Prince Bismarck yesterday. It consists of twenty-six volumes comprising 14,000 sheets, with 275,000 signatures, including those of noblemen, retired generals and officers.

The Rev. W. Marley Punshon, LL. D. the distinguished Wesleyan minister, died at an early hour this morning at Brixton, Eng. Edward Johnson, suspected of complicity in the Clugston murder at Valley Forge, had a hearing before Justice Bever this morning and was committed. His counsel will on next apply for a writ of habeas corpus.

he Reading Convention. PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—The application of counsel for Frank S. Bond and others, who have been decried by the court of common pleas as the officers of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, for an injunction to prevent F. C. Gowen and others from interfering with them in the performance of their functions as officers of the company, came before Judges Mc Kennan and Butler, in the United States circuit court, this morning.

The court expressed unwillingness to interfere in the differences between the contending boards of management as it has direct charge of the company as represented by the receivers, and preferred the court should decide the issue upon the appeal taken. The judges, however, consented to hear arguments in the matter on Friday next, on which day the issues of the deferred income bonds and the blanket mortgage will come up.

Judge Hare, of the court of common pleas, No. 2, sent for the counsel in the Philadelphia & Reading railroad election proceedings to-day, and suggested that, in view of the exigencies of the occasion he should grant a preliminary injunction, the form of which should not be objected to by counsel, and that the case be taken to the supreme court, which meets at Harrisburg next month. This proposition is under consideration, but pending the action of the supreme court the situation remains unchanged.

THE MOREY LETTER. Is This the Last of It? New York, April 14.—Assistant District Attorney Bell, in the general sessions court to-day called to the bar Jas. O'Brien alias Robert or "Bob" Lindsay, who during the last political campaign deposed that he knew H. L. Morey, the editor of the Standard, who had written the "Morey Chinese" letter and who subsequently confessed that he perjured himself. He pleaded guilty to the indictment for perjury presented against him, and Judge Cowing sent him to state prison for 8 years.

well as the galleries, and with the question Don Cameron, who had been sitting in the back row, stumbled forward over a chair and was leaning over a desk on the second row shaking his clenched fist at Mr. Hill. An exclamation of astonishment preceded an expectant silence in the chamber. It was in vain that the speaker inquired whether Don had been awakened from a dream, supposing himself at Harrisburg, or had only returned from a protracted lunch, as happened to be the case. Something he had eaten had made his face very red, and his docile disposition rampant. It appeared as if Cameron was trying to scam between the desks toward Mr. Hill, but was restrained by two senators, who seized him by the coat-tails. The sudden starting up and wild language and gesture of Senator Cameron detracted from the dramatic effect of the scene and turned the whole business into ridicule.

By a vote of 21 to 20 the Senate refused to go into executive session and Mr. Morgan spoke on the Democratic side of the wrangle over the offices. Some property but no persons in Madrid were injured last evening by three large petards thrown into houses. Under the coercion act numerous arrests of Irish journalists are to be made. he Reading Convention. PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—The application of counsel for Frank S. Bond and others, who have been decried by the court of common pleas as the officers of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, for an injunction to prevent F. C. Gowen and others from interfering with them in the performance of their functions as officers of the company, came before Judges Mc Kennan and Butler, in the United States circuit court, this morning.

The court expressed unwillingness to interfere in the differences between the contending boards of management as it has direct charge of the company as represented by the receivers, and preferred the court should decide the issue upon the appeal taken. The judges, however, consented to hear arguments in the matter on Friday next, on which day the issues of the deferred income bonds and the blanket mortgage will come up.

Judge Hare, of the court of common pleas, No. 2, sent for the counsel in the Philadelphia & Reading railroad election proceedings to-day, and suggested that, in view of the exigencies of the occasion he should grant a preliminary injunction, the form of which should not be objected to by counsel, and that the case be taken to the supreme court, which meets at Harrisburg next month. This proposition is under consideration, but pending the action of the supreme court the situation remains unchanged.

THE MOREY LETTER. Is This the Last of It? New York, April 14.—Assistant District Attorney Bell, in the general sessions court to-day called to the bar Jas. O'Brien alias Robert or "Bob" Lindsay, who during the last political campaign deposed that he knew H. L. Morey, the editor of the Standard, who had written the "Morey Chinese" letter and who subsequently confessed that he perjured himself. He pleaded guilty to the indictment for perjury presented against him, and Judge Cowing sent him to state prison for 8 years.
