COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Mr. P. S. Brugh, the druggist, has turned one of his show windows into a poultry yard. A mother chicken with her brood of little ones have most of the window space to themselves, but one corner is reserved for a white rabbit, which is caged and which has just left its nest where are exposed half a dozen or more prettily colored Easter eggs. You are right in thinking the window is a headquarters for chil-

Amusements. Herzog's Show.-The Wilmington Daily Republican speaks in the highest terms of the Herzog museum of wonders, which is about to open in this city, and the marvelously low price of admission to which means crowded houses, not inferior entertainments. Among the marvels of the collection "Col, Noah Or the great American giant, is 7 feet and 11 inches in height, and weighs 570 pounds, about 36 years of age, good looking, good natured and intelligent. Admiral Dot, the smallest character artist in the world, and Coloner Orr created immense amusement strutting around the stage together, the glant with a little 6-inch toy drum and the admiral with a large bass drum. Little Jewel is a Kentucky lady 17 years of age, and Major Atom the smallest, is ten years of age and is perfectly formed. Harry Sheldon created great amusement with his wonderful company of Marionetts, and in the second part gave ar exhibition of wonderful sleight-of-hand juggling. Major Atom gave a song. Admiral Dot did splendidly in a character song, and Signor Carlo Curti astonished the audience with his wonderful performances on the Xylo phone, and his Roman Students in costume brought out encore after encore. Prof. Sawyer brought the sweetest kind of music from the Copophone or musical glasses. Admiral Dot and Colonel Orr closed the evening perform the Barnum-London show, now performing there and to be here next Saturday : " It is impossible, delightful as it would be, to enu merate the list of "attractions" which are to tound in this mammoth show. There are nineteen sections to the programme, each part containing three distinct and separate performances, which, however took place simultaneously in the three rings. Some sma l idea of the magnitude of the entertainment may be gathered from the simple declaration that twenty elephants-all of whom are gifte and accomplished to an extraordinary degree -made their appearance together in one act. and that as many as forty performers were trequently on the sawdust at one and the same time. The number of during bareback riders the vast army of gymnasts, the scores of clewns, the multitude of jugglers, rerial perance with a duct."

THE HANGED NIHILISTS.

How They Spent Their Last Hours. St. Petersburg, April 16.—The executed Nihilists passed their last day in the following manner: Russakoff prayed incessantly and offered his services to the government as a spy, but the offer was declined. Jehaboff spent the time in writing page after page about the trial, committing on paper what he was forbid-den to speak. The woman Sophie Picoffsky wrote to her mother to waste no time in assuaging the wrath of her father. Kibaltschisch drew up a memoir on the subject of his specific discoveries which he addressed to the high court of justice avowing a desire that his name be immortalized and making a gift of his inventions to the state on the condition that all the profit from them should go to the amelioration of the lot of the children of political eriminals.

A Triple Tragedy. GALVESTON, Tex. April 16 .- A special from San Antonio gives the details of a BOOT AND SHOE STORE horrible triple murder about seven miles from that city. John Simmons, a heavy stock owner, left his home on Sunday. Yesterday his herder named J. L. Phillips, went out with the sheep. About noon Mrs. Simmons was found lying in the herder's room with her throat cut, and the body bearing the evidence of an outrageous assault. An alarm was given and soon after the bodies of Mrs. Simmons' child and her mother, Mrs. Parker, were found.
