THE PASCHAL MOUN.

Thy face is whitened with remembered woo For thou alone, pale satellite, didst see, Amid the shadows of Gethsemane. The mingled cup of sacrifice o'erflow : Nor hadst the power of utterance to show The wasting wound of silent sympathy, Till sudden tides, obedient to thee, Sobbed, desolate in weltering anguish, low. The holy night returneth year by year, And while the mystic vapors from thy rim Distil the dews, as from the Victim there The red drops trickled in the twilight dim, The ocean's changeless thronody we hear, And gaze upon thee as thou didst on Him. -John B. LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

EAST EARL NEWS.

FROM OUR REGULAR EAST END COR-

thieving has again been an-Petty noying the citizens of this locality. A few nights ago, Moses Spangler's mill at Greenbank, was entered and a small quantity of flour was taken ; also, on the same night, Jere Briendle, of Cedar Lane, had about 26 bushels of corn stolen from his crib. On the same night, over in Salisbury, Mr. Isaac Wanner, residing near South Hermitage, had three horses taken from his stable. They however were re-covered next day by the Pequea association for the detection of horse and other thieves, some six or eight miles from The supposition is that the thief home. could not get them to a place of safety be. fore daylight overtook him and was therefore forced to abandon them.

The tobacco market is now booming again and a great many of the raisers have disposed of their crops during the last week. There still remain quite a number of good crops that the holders are anxious to dispose of in the eastern end.

The rough weather has been a drawback to the farmer, but during the last week they have all been busy getting ground ready for sowing oats, tobacco seed, &c. Your correspondent has been very busy taking orders for phosphate for the tobacco and corn crop, and has succeeded beyond his own expectations, having sold over 150 tons of Sharpless & Carpenter's dissolved bone phosphate besides quite a quantity of other makes. The demand for the S. & C. phosphate seems to be unlimited as it is conceded to be the best manufactured for tobacco, and that is what our Lancaster county farmer mostly depends on.

The East Brandywine branch of the P. R. R. at present is doing a very hear freight business, the trains having all th can haul at every trip.

Pneumonia has been quite prevalent this neighborhood during March a April, and quite a number of deaths ha occurred. Mr. Charles Sweigart, of Ced Lane, has had a very severe attack, a for a very long time his life was despain of. He is now convalescent being able be about the house again.

Mrs. Christian Hess, of Briertown, a aged lady, was buried on Monday of la week. Mr. James Fiester, a former resident of Great Merit.

All the fairs give the first premiums and special awards of great merit to Hop Bitters, as the purest and best family medicine, and we most heartily approve of the awards for we know they deserve it. They are now on exhi-bition at the State Fairs, and we advise all to test them. See another column. al5-2wd&w

LINENS.

DET GOODS.

We have received new linens from Belfast, Barnsley, Duntermline, Lisle, Brussels, Ghent, Silesia, Bohemia. We have ransacked all Europe for linens, and have a variety of both fabric and finish that could not be gathered in the American market. The goods are fresh, to 0. That's important ; for linens bought in Naw York may be several years old, and you know starclued linens do not improve by age. The dressings used by the manufacturers is not so destructive as starch ; but it does injure the fabric in time. We have another advantage in prices. We gain the importer's profit.

The result is we get the best linens in the world, iu the best possible condition, and for the least money anybody can get them for. We can give you the importers' profit, and still have enough left.

New it is proper for to consider that somebody else may be doing the same thing, and afford the very same advantages. So, if you please, whatever you wish to buy get samples of it from us and from others, and compare.

Or buy our goods, if you like; and if you can do as well elsewhere, bring ours back. This is rather a brave challenge; for, you know nobody wants remnants.

The linens now in are sheeting, pillow, bolster and shirting linens, towels, towelings, doilies, napkins, table cloths and table linens.

COLORED SILKS,

Salisbury, moved to Intercourse on April 1, and died a few days after. He was buried at the Pequea Presbyterian church on Sunday, April 15. Several years ago Mr. Fiester was bitten in the hand by a snake, and at intervals his hand became very much swollen and caused great pain. It would then appear to get all right so that he could resume work. Last winter it again became very painful and finally broke open, preventing him from doing work of any kind-and it was the cause of his death. Republican politicans are beginning to get anxious, and it is almost impossible for any one to go away from home without being buttonholed by a half dozen different aspirants for the same office. There does not appear to be any trouble in Lancaster county to get office hunters, and from all appearances it will be a long time before we will be put to the necessity of the office hunting the man.

BART ITEMS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

In and Around Georgetown,

Michael Dosh died on Thursday, the 14th inst., aged 72 years. The funeral was held at Georgetown M. E. church on Sunday, the 17th, and was largely attended. Mr. M. T. Palmer has purchased from D.G. Steacy five acres of ground just back of the village lots in this village, at $110 per acre.

For the first time in several years Georgetown has several empty houses. The mill of Michael Dosh, deceased, is in the hands of Austin Girvin and will be operated by him during the remainder of this year. Some parties entered into a law suit before S.A. Hughes, J. P., about a threshing account of some $7 or $8. The matter was left to an arbitration on Saturday the 16th inst., and the parties to the suit found after adjusting the costs as decided by the arbitrators, that it would have been better to have stayed at home and forgiven the debt. The plaintiff was from somewhere near Oak Hill, this county, and after paying his share of costs-one half-and deducting it from the bill he succeeded in collecting, he had just 12 cents to pay him for three trips to the village. The tobacco house of Martin & Fritz is finished, and on Saturday, the 16th inst., quite a quantity of the weed was stored away in it. Saturday was the first day of delivery and in consequence the neighborhood of the warehouse had quite a business appearance. The receipts on that day were in the neighborhood of fifteen tons, at prices varying from 8 to 16 cents for wrappers, 3 to 6 for seconds and from 21 to 4 for fillers.

Considerable tobacco in this neighborhood is yet unsold, and very few, if any, buyers seem to be on the lookout for it. L. T. Hensel was in the neighborhood a few days ago and made one or two purchases. Seed is now the talk-what to sow, when to sow it, and how to cover it. Try bristles.

DRUMORE CORRESPONDENCE.

To Dust the Dust of James Barnes, Mr. James Barnes of this township, near Unicorn, who died on Thursday the 14th inst., and whose remains were buried at Chestnut Level on Monday, was born on the 30th of April, 1790. A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:— A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations con-stantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his dilet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's floot Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try DRUCLAMATION. L Whereas, the alarming prevalence of incen-diary fires in our midst, and the boldness of the perpetrators, make it the duty of all good citizens, especially the holders and owners of property, to be vigilant and to assist by their individual efforts to bring these outlaws to justice. Citizens will do well to watch the goings and comings of suspected persons in their immediate respective neighborhoods, and give early and authentic information to the police authorities of the eity. of any eir.

In his case, he looked up with astonishment as no did, no doubt, without all chemy in the world, beloved by his friends and very numerous relatives, respected by all who knew him, never behind his professions or the right as he saw it, his life added an other proof to the truism that "an hon-est man is the noblest work of God;" and by his death we feel that we have lost one of our best citizens of which we have far too few and none to spare; an example of and finest in the state. We have also many fancy goods and novelties, pretty and inexpensive, suitable for presents.

Our patrons will find our Manufactory a great convenience. We can make up any design of Jewelry of any description to order, at less cost than city prices.
