The Polish Immigrants. A number of the Polish immigrants mention of whom was made in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER, have obtained employment with families of this city and county, but a large proportion of them are yet without homes, and are quartered at Geo. Kircher's hotel, East King street, who will take care of them as long as he is able to do so, but of course he cannot afford, and ought not to be expected, to provide for their wants at his own expense. He should be aided in his charitable efforts by other charitable people.

A paragraph in the morning papers states that "a party of Polish emigrants arrived at Providence from New York yesterday. They claimed that the emigrant bureau of New York shipped them to Providence because they had not sufficient funds to take them to their destination at Buffalo, N. Y. They were promptly returned to New York." It may be that the emigrants now in Lancaster have been shipped here by the same New York authorities, and thus left to shift for themselves in a strange land among strangers unacquainted with their language or wants.

Ruffalo Bill .- To-morrow evening John A Stevens's new drams of "The Prairie Wait will be produced at Fulton opera house with the celebrated scout and hunter "Buffalo Bill" in the role of the hero. The piece is said to be of the most thrilling character, abound ing in dramatic situations, exciting climaxes, but withal devoid of the unnatural bloodthirstiness characteristic of the average from tier play. Mr. Cody has many traits of the successful actor, and the selection of the troupe supporting him has been guided by the purpose to afford an entirely capable entation of the play. Mr. Cody will give an exhibition of his marvelous skill with the rifle during the performance.

The little people are said to be perfect prodigies of nature in the manner in which they sing and act this delightful and amiliar composition, and all the characters are rendered with a finish and accuracy, says a . Many of the roices are said to bear all the evidences of careful cultivation, and the ensemble is no lacking in any of the requirements of pleasing effects, if the highly creditable press notice carried by the company are to be believed; and they come from reputable sources.
