WEATHER EXAMINATIONS. WASHINGTON, April 29.—For the Middle Atlantic States, local rains, followed by clearing weather, with winds shifting to slightly cooler north to west, and higher barometer.

LIFE FOR LIFE. The Hanging of a Negro Murderer and the History of His Brutal Crime. BALTIMORE, Md., April 29.—John Gathard, alias Sandy Smith (colored) convicted of the murder of Joseph Woods in Baltimore county on the night of the 2d of December last, was hanged at Towson town this morning.

The condemned man had been in the employ of Woods and on the night above stated was assisting his employer to un hitch a horse from the wagon when he struck Woods with an axe, the latter ran to the house, a short distance away, closely followed by Gathard, who seized a gun standing near the door and knocked down the wife of the wounded man. The door was closed after Woods fell prostrate on the floor, but Gathard, from the outside, fired through the door, the charge entering the groin and abdomen of the victim. Woods lingered until the 8th of December and died.

Gathard was tried soon after and convicted. Efforts have been made to obtain a reprieve on the ground of the insanity of the accused, but the governor refused to interfere with the sentence of the court. Gathard was formerly a slave on the Eastern Shore of this state. During his imprisonment he has made several statements as to what instigated him to commit the crime, the last one admitting that his intention was to murder the family, take all the money in the house and burn it down to cover his crime, but Mrs. Woods crept before he could carry out his intentions. He was fifty-eight years old.

TRAGEDY IN WILMINGTON. A Negro Shot and Killed by an Ex-Policeman. WILMINGTON, April 29.—Ex-Policeman Morris Carberry this morning shot and killed Samuel Adams (colored). Carberry was the day watchman at the Old Police rolling mill. Adams, who had come to work Carberry ordered him to go out and return by another door. The negro refused, whereupon Carberry drew a revolver. Adams then seized a piece of iron which Carberry shot him in the shoulder and struck him several times in the face after he fell. Adams died in about five minutes. Carberry is in custody.

The inquest will be commenced to-night. Carberry was one of the policemen instrumental in the capture of the "Big Frank" and his associates at the time of the Delaware bank burglary in 1878. He had an encounter with Frank and exchanged shots with him, but Frank escaped at the time.

FOREST FIRES. The Flames Partially Checked by Rain. MILFORD, Pa., April 29.—A heavy rain storm this morning has checked the forest fires in Pike county, and in many places has extinguished the flames. "Brick Pond" tract, a resort of hunters and fishermen, was fired for mischief by a little boy, and several thousand acres are supposed to have been burned over. The wages of the American Union telegraph company are now being paid in the country now on fire, and are believed to be in danger.

Seven large fires illuminating the country for miles around were counted from here at 2 o'clock this morning. The fires in Sussex county, N. J., are all out, while the conflagration in Chatham and Porter townships are still spreading.

COAL PRICES. No Changes for the Month of May. PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—The committees of the Lehigh and Schuylkill coal exchanges met this afternoon at the office of the Lehigh coal and navigation company and resolved to make no change in the line city and harbor prices of coal for the month of May. The question of restricting the production during the coming month is now under discussion and a decision is expected to-day. The New York companies desire three days stoppage each week, but the Schuylkill interest favors a shorter stoppage next week. The coal and iron company's supply of all grades at Port Richmond is only 5,000 tons, all sizes being short with the exception of egg.

Death of a Contractor. The Eastern newspapers record the death in that place, yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, of Mr. John Lee, after a few days' illness of malarial fever. Mr. Lee, who was a wealthy contractor, was the father of Mrs. P. S. McLaughlin of this city, and was less intimately related with several other families here. His age was about sixty-five years.

In Time for the Next Primaries. The bill presented in the House at Harrisburg by Representative Landis, of this county, to prevent bribery and fraud at nominating elections, conventions and elections of delegates, has passed second reading and will come up for final passage a few days. It is expected to have a wholesome effect here where the Republican primaries are so corrupt and the scramble for delegates leads to excesses which have a demoralizing effect. It provides a penalty of three hundred dollars fine and some months imprisonment for any candidate who shall secure the vote of an elector by unlawful means, and a like penalty for any elector disposing of his vote for a consideration. A similar penalty is fixed for irregularities in the management of delegate elections. Any person who shall be guilty of general and voting at a nominating election is, under the provisions of the bill, amenable to a fine of two hundred dollars and three months imprisonment, and a delegate who shall vote for a candidate in consideration of any bribe or other consideration is liable to a fine of a hundred dollars and three months imprisonment.

THE YORK DISPENSARY. Lancaster County Doctors at the Opening. At the opening of the York hospital and free dispensary—so magnificently endowed by Samuel Small, esq.—for which we noticed the devoted and noble physician, nearly two hundred ladies and gentlemen were present, among whom were representatives from Lancaster, Dauphin, Cumberland, Mifflin, Chester and Adams counties, and also from the state of Maryland. At noon a sumptuous dinner was served, which was in excellent style. The dedicatory exercises were held in the upper story, Dr. A. R. Blair presiding, Dr. H. Carpenter, of this city, being one of the vice presidents, and Dr. R. M. Tolensky a secretary. The history of the dispensary and its establishment and objects was read; Dr. Atlee made an address recalling his reminiscences of York and praising Mr. Small's many public benefactions. Among the responses to the toasts were Dr. J. L. Ziegler, Dr. G. W. Kline, and Dr. Alex. Critch for "Our Profession."

A Novel Spectacle. For several days past the notion and military store of Astrich Brothers, on East King street, has been the centre of attraction to the object of visitation by thousands of persons, curious to see the unusual floral display on the occasion of the annual floral display on the occasion of the decorations of their store, in the variety, the taste and the profusion of flowers and garlands, and other accessories, which are to be seen in this city, and the display is so striking that besides their manifold parades nearly everybody who passes the open door is attracted to stop and take a look. The resources of Rohrer's flower gardens have been taxed to the uttermost, and new ones are being added, while the whole display reflects at once the good taste and advanced enterprise of Messrs. Astrich and their employees. The fresh flowers and vines by day mingle with the gay fabrics and fancy goods on sale to produce a happy effect, and the illuminations and orchestral music by night heighten the brilliant spectacle.

Sudden Illness. Yesterday afternoon Miss Malony, an employe in the shirt factory, No. 26 North Queen street, was taken seriously ill, and for some time it was feared she would die. Her health has not been good for some time past and she had been taking medicine to tone up her nerves. Yesterday she took an overdose and having eaten some indigestible food, was seized with spasms, during which she almost strangled. Medical aid was sent for as quickly as possible and she was removed to her home on West King street, where she still lies in a rather critical condition.

The Better Half. Yesterday Michael McKay, alias Kelly, and his wife Maria went on a social spree, imbibed freely, became jolly, then drunk and finally quarrelled. Michael obtained first knock down, but Maria drew first blood and won the battle. She has but one arm, but she used it, and a cudgel so vigorously that she laid Mike's scalp open and almost brained him. The affair occurred on the corner of East King and Market streets, and complaint, Officer Elias arrested the couple and they were locked up for a hearing before Alderman Donnelly tomorrow.

A Valuable Present. Yesterday Mr. M. Oppenheimer, the well known tobacco dealer, presented a beautiful and costly gold watch and chain to his agent, Mr. A. W. Harshaw, of West Willow, as a token of his appreciation of the faithful and intelligent services of the latter during the past year. He has been in Mr. Oppenheimer's employ. The presentation was made without any ceremony or display and was all the more highly appreciated by Mr. Harshaw on that account.

Some Peach Hoaxoms. A few days ago an INTELLIGENCER reporter, after making a somewhat extended examination of the peach trees, gave it as his opinion that the buds in this city had been entirely destroyed by the cold. He was this morning shown three trees on the grounds of ex-Mayor Zimmerman, one of which was filled with blossoms, and the other two were in a considerable number. The trees are in a well-protected locality, and it may be that other trees similarly protected may also have escaped the severity of the winter.

Justices of the Peace E. A. Becker, of First ward, and Samuel Evans, of the Second ward, retiring on Monday next from the discharge of the duties of those offices, and Justices-elect George Young, jr., of the First ward, and W. Hayes Grier, of the Second ward, step in and fill the vacancies thus occasioned. Squire Young's office will be located at his residence on the northeast corner of Second and Walnut streets, and Squire Grier will hang out his shingle at No. 104 Locust street—the room formerly occupied as a law office by J. M. North, esq.

Dr. S. Kieffer and Dale, of Carlisle, Pa., were in Columbia yesterday. George W. Rhinehart, formerly assistant to Mr. E. K. Boice in the Pennsylvania railroad ticket office at this place, made his first trip to-day as extra brakeman on the Columbia & Port Deposit railroad. A party of Columbia ladies and gentlemen are to-day enjoying the river air while on a raft upon which they have taken passage is slowly drifting toward Port Deposit. Pilot Harry Spill is running the raft. Despite a contrary wind running is easy.

Jesse A. Conley formerly of Columbia, but at present a resident of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting friends at this place. Rev. E. J. Wolff, D. D., of the Gettysburg theological seminary will officiate to-morrow morning and evening in the E. Lutheran church. The Ladies' mite society of the E. E. Lutheran church will give a sociable this evening in the church lecture room.

Mr. J. S. Snyder, who keeps a shoestore at 707 and 709 Locust streets, has missed his pocket book and suspects a painter, who had been working for him, of running away with it. Officers have been in search of the painter, but he has not yet been found. One report has it that the book contained $17, and another that it held $100. Split the difference.

Sunday next is the festival of St. Philip and St. James. Holy communion services will be held in St. Paul's Episcopal church. The Harrisburg convocation of the Protestant Episcopal church, which has been in session at St. Paul's church, Columbia, since Tuesday last, closed its labors last evening. A service for deaf mutes, conducted by the Rev. Henry Winter Syle, of Philadelphia, was held at 7:30 o'clock, and a sermon was preached by a clerical discussion at 8 o'clock. Evening services were held at 7:30 o'clock, when an excellent sermon was preached by the Rev. Allen S. Woodie of Allouan.

Abercrombie's Boston Ideal company acceptably produced the drama "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in the opera house last evening before a rather large audience. The illness of the little girl who was to have taken the part of Eva necessitated the omission of that character. The little girl was sick at the Franklin hotel and her physician refused to consent to her appearance on the stage. Her inability to be present was explained to the audience and permission given to any who desired it to have the house and their admission for returned to the theatre.

The Ladies' aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church gave a social last evening at Shuler's hall, on Locust street above Third. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cakes, coffee, etc., were served to the large attendance of persons, and quite a large sum of money was netted, which goes to furnishing the room for church and Sunday-school purposes.

Howard-Kutler, at 411 Middle street, Thursday, April 28, by Rev. J. K. Rivin, of Grace Lutheran church, Samuel Howard to Dora F. Kutler, both of Lancaster.
