OBITUARY.

Mrs. Bridget Fitzpatrick, widow of the late Hugh Fitzpatrick and oldest daughter of the late Richard McGrann, died at her residence, No. 330 East Orange street, between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning. aged 63 years. Mrs. Fitzpatrick had for some time past suffered with heart disease, but it was not until about two weeks ago that her illness assumed a dangerous form. Growing rapidly worse, she died as above

The deceased was born, we believe, Ireland, but her parents emigrated to this country during her infancy. In 1838 she was married to Hugh Fitzpatrick, and for some years resided on the property known as "old Hardwicke," east of the city and opposite the site of the present estate of that name. Subsequently, however, she moved to this city and for a period of more than twenty years has resided at No. 330 East Orange street. Her husband died about thirty years ago.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick was in all respects: woman of admirable traits of character, and a dominating quality in her disposi-tion was that of true Christian charity benevolence and kind heartedness. A con sistent member of the Catholic church and of St. Mary's congregation in this city, where her good works were frequently manifested in an unostentatious though liberal manner, the noble impulses and generosity that animated all her actions knew no restrictions of creed or station Possessing social qualities of the highest and most attractive order, her pleasant home on East Orange street was the abode of kindly courtesy and hospitality that ever made the guest sensible of cordial welcome. Among children and young people, of whom she was very fond and whom she delighted to have around her, the deceased was especially popular, and throughout the large circle who will mourn her death, the grief of none perhaps will be more sincere than that of the young folks whose joys and sorrows she was wont to share and sympathize with

Mrs. Fitzpatrick was a sister of B. J. McGrann, and of Mrs. John T. Mac-Gonigle, of this city, and of Mrs. John McGovern, of Bradford county. There survive her, also, four children, viz., John J. and Hugh Fitzpatrick, railroad contractors, Mrs. Alice Barry, wife of John M. Barry, and Miss Kate Fitzpatrick; she was the mother also of the late Mrs. A. Hiestand and of Richard J. Fitzpatrick, both of whom died within the past few

The funeral will take place from the late residence of deceased, No. 330 East St. Mary's cemetery.

A companion while handling an axe care-lessly, cut a part of his foot off. Dr. G. W. Reich was called to dress the wound, and is in hopes that the boy's foot can be

Fine Fat Cattle.

Eleven fat young steers, fed by Jacob Bausman and sold to M. Ullman, were taken through town this morning for shipment to Philadelphia. The lot weighed 18,110 pounds and had gained an average of 458 pounds each since Mr. Bausman got them last September. A finer drove is seldom seen on our streets, and good judges estimated that the profits of feeding them were over $600, not to speak of the valuable manure supplied.

To-morrow Alderman Wm. B. Wiley, of the Second ward, will celebrate his 58th birthday and also the 23d anniversary of his first commission as alderman. He was elected in 1858. His first commision was issued by Governor Packer, his second and third by Governor Curtin, and his fourth and fifth by Governor Hartranft. No other alderman in Lancaster has been half so long in commission.

The suspicious actions of a darkey near Third and Locust streets after midnight last night, caused special Officer Michael Dysinger to believe his intentions were not those of a good citizen and with this belief he shadowed the fellow across Third street to Walnut, to Second, to Locust again, and then up the latter street to F. A. Bennett's store, where he overtook him intently gazing at some dry goods in the show window. Dysinger accosted the man who at once struck a bee line across Locust street and continued on his way at double quick time, despite the officer's threats to shoot if he did not hold up. STRAYED FROM HOME.

An Old Man Found Almost Perished. On Wednesday afternoon Jacob Hubert, a well known old gentleman of this city, whose home is with his daughter and sonin-law, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Clements, 327 E. Chestnut street, strayed from home, and his friends were in great distress about him, as he is 87 years old and very feeble both in body and mind. He was searched for in all directions, and it was not until last evening that he was found, almost perished, in a woods not far from Lititz. He was conveyed to the Lititz hotel where he was kindly cared for, and as no one knew who was, he was thence taken to the county hospital. Superintendent Cox at once recognized him and restored him to his friends. It is not known where he spent Wednesday night, but the swollen condition of his limbs renders it probable that he wandered aimlessly from place to place, and had no shelter.

THE WATCH FACTORY.

Reduction of Wages Resisted. The wages of the employees in some of the departments of the Lancaster watch factory have recently been considerably reduced, and within a few days past further reductions have been attempted. Six men in the jewel department refused to go to work a day or two ago because of a reduction of 25 per cent. in their wages, and yesterday ten girls employed in the motion department also quit work because of a reduction of wages. Suspension of work in these departments may cause a suspension or reduction in the number of employees in other departments of the factory.

HOYTSAND PALEER IMPEACHED. Sensation Caused at Harrisburg by the Petition of a Citizen of Luckawanna.

HARRISBURG, May 6 .- In the House of Representatives this morning Mr Bierly, of Lycoming county, presented by request a petition of citizens of Lackawanna county asking for the impeachment of Governor Hoyt and Attorney General Pal-mer for their action in reference to the judiciary of that county, claiming that the judges appointed to serve for five years should have only been appointed until the next general election, and that the action of the governor in witholding commissions from judges since claiming to be elected was an infraction of the constitution and aw of the state.

It further asks the impeachment on the ground of corrupt conduct in pardoning Kemble and his companiens from the punshment due them for their crimes. Mr. Ruddiman offered a resolution characterizing the petition as "impertinent, from the record." This was followed by an amendment to refer it the judiciary general committee. A stormy scene ensued, and amid the ut-most excitement speeches of a violent character were made. Finally the amendment was defeated and Mr. Ruddiman's resolution was adopted by a vote of 80 to 52; the majority of the nays being Dem-
