

CLOTHING.

TAILORING AND GENTS' FURNISHING. JOHN FALCK, MERCHANT TAILOR AND GENTS' FURNISHER.

Having removed opposite from my old stand to the room occupied by many years by the Lancaster Fire Insurance Company, I am now prepared to show my customers and the public a line of goods for the SPRING TRADE, which for quality, style and price are equal to any in the city. We handled before during the

NEW CLOTHING STORE. CHAS. A. HOHMANN (Having Opened a CLOTHING STORE No. 164 North Queen St., (Hohmann's Old Stand),

Next door to Fynn & Willson's Store, is prepared to make Clothing to Order at Short Notice and on reasonable terms. A complete assortment of Ready-Made Clothing of every variety constantly on hand and for sale at remarkably low prices.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

To-day we open a full line of Spring and Summer Goods for Men's Wear, which has never been eclipsed in this city or any house in the country for quality, style and high

LOOK OUT FOR THE OPENING OF FINE MERCHANT TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT, NO. 37 NORTH QUEEN STREET.

J. K. SMALING, THE ARTIST TAILOR, 121 N. QUEEN STREET.

Several Fine Coat Makers wanted.

H. GERHART'S New Tailoring Establishment, No. 6 East King Street.

I have just completed fitting up one of the finest Tailoring Establishments to be found in this state, and am now prepared to show my customers a stock of goods for the SPRING TRADE, which for quality, style and variety of patterns has never been equaled in this city.

NO. 6 EAST KING STREET. Next Door to the New York Store.

H. GERHART'S NEW STOCK OF CLOTHING FOR SPRING 1881.

D. B. Hostetter & Son's, No. 24 CENTRE SQUARE.

Having made unusual efforts to bring before the public a line, stylish and well made stock of

READY-MADE CLOTHING, we are now prepared to show them one of the most carefully selected stocks of clothing in this city, at the lowest cash prices.

MEN'S, BOYS' AND YOUTHS' CLOTHING! IN GREAT VARIETY.

D. B. Hostetter & Son, 24 CENTRE SQUARE, LANCASTER, PA.

W. H. BABCOCK, Attorney-at-Law of Washington, D. C., formerly an examiner in U. S. Patent Office, offers his services as solicitor before the U. S. and Foreign Patent Offices. Careful work at fair prices. Was associate of Mr. Jacob Stauffer, of Lancaster, until the latter's death.

CLOTHING.

BUSINESS SUITS. BUSINESS SUITS. We have somewhere in the region of one hundred styles of business suits now ready to put on.

The lowest price is $8.50, and the highest is $20. They are all of wool. $6.50 is very little to get all-wool coats, sponging, cutting, trimming, making, watching, handling, rent, book-keeping, advertising and selling, out of; but we manage to do it by dividing the costs among so many of you that one hardly feels his share at all; he pays for materials and work, and very little more.

We'll take another day for the rest; but you may as well come and see now as later. Seeing is better than reading.

WANAMAKER & BROWN, OAK HALL, MARKET AND SIXTH, PHILADELPHIA.

THE LARGEST CLOTHING HOUSE IN AMERICA.

NEW CLOTHING STORE. NEW CLOTHING STORE. LOOK OUT FOR THE OPENING OF FINE MERCHANT TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT, NO. 37 NORTH QUEEN STREET.

J. K. SMALING, THE ARTIST TAILOR, 121 N. QUEEN STREET.

Several Fine Coat Makers wanted.

H. GERHART'S New Tailoring Establishment, No. 6 East King Street.

I have just completed fitting up one of the finest Tailoring Establishments to be found in this state, and am now prepared to show my customers a stock of goods for the SPRING TRADE, which for quality, style and variety of patterns has never been equaled in this city.

NO. 6 EAST KING STREET. Next Door to the New York Store.

H. GERHART'S NEW STOCK OF CLOTHING FOR SPRING 1881.

D. B. Hostetter & Son's, No. 24 CENTRE SQUARE.

Having made unusual efforts to bring before the public a line, stylish and well made stock of

READY-MADE CLOTHING, we are now prepared to show them one of the most carefully selected stocks of clothing in this city, at the lowest cash prices.

MEN'S, BOYS' AND YOUTHS' CLOTHING! IN GREAT VARIETY.

D. B. Hostetter & Son, 24 CENTRE SQUARE, LANCASTER, PA.

W. H. BABCOCK, Attorney-at-Law of Washington, D. C., formerly an examiner in U. S. Patent Office, offers his services as solicitor before the U. S. and Foreign Patent Offices. Careful work at fair prices. Was associate of Mr. Jacob Stauffer, of Lancaster, until the latter's death.

LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 7, 1881. Amusement Notes.

What the Show People Are Doing. Kate Claxton will open in San Francisco on Monday.

Aldrich and Farlow wind up the season at Newark on the 14th. He was here with T. Keene, will star the coming season.

Buffalo Bill closed the season in Newark last Saturday night. August Seigrist, now in Australia, will be one of Tony Denier's pantaloons next season.

Jackson's Mammoth minstrels are traveling under canvas. Charley Diamond and Billy Robinson are with them.

The Footlight, published by Harry L. Hartmyer comes out with a new head this week and looks well.

Joseph Slater, a member of Anthony & Ellis's Uncle Tom party, was badly bitten by a bloodhound at Providence, R. I.

Chas. W. Fish, the rider who was last year with Cooper & Bailey, is traveling with Burr Robbins's circus.

John P. Smith, of the "Tourists," was once a compositor on the Richmond Enquirer.

Therapy is said to have made $60,000 at the Fifth Avenue theatre, New York, this season.

W. J. Florence has three men at work writing plays for him. He will return from England in June or July.

E. E. Rice will run the Boston Museum this summer. He is to produce "Cinderella at School" and some other plays.

Hoey & Hardie's "Child of the State" combination will close their season in New York June 4.

H. J. Chapman, formerly manager of Barlow Wilson, Primrose & West, goes to California with John J. Raymond.

J. W. Collier's "Banker's Daughter" combination will close their season on Saturday at Danbury, Conn.

Maftit and Bartholomew are tired of pantomime. Next season they are to go into comedy.

Emerson and Clark and the Daly Bros. have separated. Each firm is traveling by themselves.

E. C. Dunbar, the Milanese minstrel, who was here with Harry Miner's troupe, goes to California with the "Fun on the Bristol" party.

It is stated positively that Adelina Patti has signed an engagement for America with Belveau, and that she and the new impresario will sail in October next.

Joseph Harris, who was here with Nick Roberts's pantomime company will play the Lone Fisherman in Stanley & Warner's Evangeline company next season.

The French Family Davene go out with one of Mike Leavitt's company's next year. They are now with the Barum-London show.

Heverly has taken a new lease of his Chicago theatre for the summer. His new theatre he hopes to have ready for business in September.

The manager who was to have played Thatcher & Ryman's minstrels in Paris writes that he cannot take them. The minstrels are very much disappointed and threaten to bring suit.

Dion Boucault leaves for Europe May 10. He returns in the fall, under a sixteen weeks' contract to Henry E. Abbey, during which he is to produce two new Irish plays.

Leonard Grover has signed with John R. Rogers to write an original comedy suited to the talents of Minnie Palmer and R. E. Graham which will enable them to introduce funny business.

"Pico," the clown, who is a brother of George H. Adams, has received flattering notices from the press of Australia, where he has been performing with W. W. Cole's circus.

Mary Anderson has been playing in Louisville to crowded houses. In four nights the receipts were $3,500. That is doing pretty well for Louisville, but Mary is always sure of an attentive audience there.

John H. Laine, a well known agent, will go ahead of George W. Hill's Adam's "Humpty Dumpty" troupe next season. He will have three assistants. Mr. Laine is well known here. He was ahead of Nick Roberts until recently.

Lotta will have a new play next season from Fred Marsden. The contract is already signed, and $1,000 has been paid toward the total purchase money. Mr. Marsden has gone to Schremon Lake with his family for the summer.

Walter Wentworth, the contortionist, who performed here for a long time in the winter of 1877-78, is traveling with Shuey & Young's combination, which is giving performances under canvas. They are in Valparaiso, Indiana, to night.

J. M. Hill has played "All the Rage" sixty-six weeks out of a possible seventy-two. He has received an offer to go to California with the company, and, in case he accepts, his people will have no vacation this year. He has re-engaged the whole company for next season. Mr. Hill is the manager of Den Thompson also.

Miss Fannie Louisa Buckingham, who closed an unsuccessful engagement at the Masonic theatre, Memphis, left for Chicago, leaving her horse James Melville behind as security for $200 borrowed to enable her to leave the city. She begins an engagement in Chicago on the 16th inst.

W. E. Sheridan, who travels with John O'Brien's circus and manages the recent season. He has been in the business many years, traveling with most of the great circuses in this country. He is a son-in-law of Maj. Manoah B. Missimer, of Pottsville, Pa., and owns a number of the houses there.

Frank J. Traynor, who played his last engagement with Ben Maginley when that gentleman took the Danites through New England just a year ago, died of consumption at Modesto, California, on the 19th ult. The hardships he endured during a long sea voyage proved too much for his system, and he arrived there only in time to die.

Gus Bruno, the darkey performer, formerly of Johnson & Bruno, was doing his act in an Indianapolis variety theatre, when two young men who sat down front began "guying" him. He became angry and jumping from the stage to the parquet he whipped both of the fellows, putting an awful eye on one of them. He was arrested and fined.

W. E. Sheridan was a member of the Sixth Ohio during the rebellion and at the battle of Resaca his right arm was shattered by a bullet. The exertion of wielding a sword in the combat caused a great swelling of the arm, and during his recent starting tour, has reopened the old wound and it is probable that he will be compelled to abandon those parts.

Julia Wilson, who plays Tot in "Joshua Whitcomb," is twenty-two years of age, though she does not look more than twelve

LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 7, 1881. Amusement Notes.

What the Show People Are Doing. Kate Claxton will open in San Francisco on Monday.

Aldrich and Farlow wind up the season at Newark on the 14th. He was here with T. Keene, will star the coming season.

Buffalo Bill closed the season in Newark last Saturday night. August Seigrist, now in Australia, will be one of Tony Denier's pantaloons next season.

Jackson's Mammoth minstrels are traveling under canvas. Charley Diamond and Billy Robinson are with them.

The Footlight, published by Harry L. Hartmyer comes out with a new head this week and looks well.

Joseph Slater, a member of Anthony & Ellis's Uncle Tom party, was badly bitten by a bloodhound at Providence, R. I.

Chas. W. Fish, the rider who was last year with Cooper & Bailey, is traveling with Burr Robbins's circus.

John P. Smith, of the "Tourists," was once a compositor on the Richmond Enquirer.

Therapy is said to have made $60,000 at the Fifth Avenue theatre, New York, this season.

W. J. Florence has three men at work writing plays for him. He will return from England in June or July.

E. E. Rice will run the Boston Museum this summer. He is to produce "Cinderella at School" and some other plays.

Hoey & Hardie's "Child of the State" combination will close their season in New York June 4.

H. J. Chapman, formerly manager of Barlow Wilson, Primrose & West, goes to California with John J. Raymond.

J. W. Collier's "Banker's Daughter" combination will close their season on Saturday at Danbury, Conn.

Maftit and Bartholomew are tired of pantomime. Next season they are to go into comedy.

Emerson and Clark and the Daly Bros. have separated. Each firm is traveling by themselves.

E. C. Dunbar, the Milanese minstrel, who was here with Harry Miner's troupe, goes to California with the "Fun on the Bristol" party.

It is stated positively that Adelina Patti has signed an engagement for America with Belveau, and that she and the new impresario will sail in October next.

Joseph Harris, who was here with Nick Roberts's pantomime company will play the Lone Fisherman in Stanley & Warner's Evangeline company next season.

The French Family Davene go out with one of Mike Leavitt's company's next year. They are now with the Barum-London show.

Heverly has taken a new lease of his Chicago theatre for the summer. His new theatre he hopes to have ready for business in September.

The manager who was to have played Thatcher & Ryman's minstrels in Paris writes that he cannot take them. The minstrels are very much disappointed and threaten to bring suit.

Dion Boucault leaves for Europe May 10. He returns in the fall, under a sixteen weeks' contract to Henry E. Abbey, during which he is to produce two new Irish plays.

Leonard Grover has signed with John R. Rogers to write an original comedy suited to the talents of Minnie Palmer and R. E. Graham which will enable them to introduce funny business.

"Pico," the clown, who is a brother of George H. Adams, has received flattering notices from the press of Australia, where he has been performing with W. W. Cole's circus.

Mary Anderson has been playing in Louisville to crowded houses. In four nights the receipts were $3,500. That is doing pretty well for Louisville, but Mary is always sure of an attentive audience there.

John H. Laine, a well known agent, will go ahead of George W. Hill's Adam's "Humpty Dumpty" troupe next season. He will have three assistants. Mr. Laine is well known here. He was ahead of Nick Roberts until recently.

Lotta will have a new play next season from Fred Marsden. The contract is already signed, and $1,000 has been paid toward the total purchase money. Mr. Marsden has gone to Schremon Lake with his family for the summer.

Walter Wentworth, the contortionist, who performed here for a long time in the winter of 1877-78, is traveling with Shuey & Young's combination, which is giving performances under canvas. They are in Valparaiso, Indiana, to night.

J. M. Hill has played "All the Rage" sixty-six weeks out of a possible seventy-two. He has received an offer to go to California with the company, and, in case he accepts, his people will have no vacation this year. He has re-engaged the whole company for next season. Mr. Hill is the manager of Den Thompson also.

Miss Fannie Louisa Buckingham, who closed an unsuccessful engagement at the Masonic theatre, Memphis, left for Chicago, leaving her horse James Melville behind as security for $200 borrowed to enable her to leave the city. She begins an engagement in Chicago on the 16th inst.

W. E. Sheridan, who travels with John O'Brien's circus and manages the recent season. He has been in the business many years, traveling with most of the great circuses in this country. He is a son-in-law of Maj. Manoah B. Missimer, of Pottsville, Pa., and owns a number of the houses there.

Frank J. Traynor, who played his last engagement with Ben Maginley when that gentleman took the Danites through New England just a year ago, died of consumption at Modesto, California, on the 19th ult. The hardships he endured during a long sea voyage proved too much for his system, and he arrived there only in time to die.

Gus Bruno, the darkey performer, formerly of Johnson & Bruno, was doing his act in an Indianapolis variety theatre, when two young men who sat down front began "guying" him. He became angry and jumping from the stage to the parquet he whipped both of the fellows, putting an awful eye on one of them. He was arrested and fined.

W. E. Sheridan was a member of the Sixth Ohio during the rebellion and at the battle of Resaca his right arm was shattered by a bullet. The exertion of wielding a sword in the combat caused a great swelling of the arm, and during his recent starting tour, has reopened the old wound and it is probable that he will be compelled to abandon those parts.

Julia Wilson, who plays Tot in "Joshua Whitcomb," is twenty-two years of age, though she does not look more than twelve

LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 7, 1881. Amusement Notes.

What the Show People Are Doing. Kate Claxton will open in San Francisco on Monday.

Aldrich and Farlow wind up the season at Newark on the 14th. He was here with T. Keene, will star the coming season.

Buffalo Bill closed the season in Newark last Saturday night. August Seigrist, now in Australia, will be one of Tony Denier's pantaloons next season.

Jackson's Mammoth minstrels are traveling under canvas. Charley Diamond and Billy Robinson are with them.

The Footlight, published by Harry L. Hartmyer comes out with a new head this week and looks well.

Joseph Slater, a member of Anthony & Ellis's Uncle Tom party, was badly bitten by a bloodhound at Providence, R. I.

Chas. W. Fish, the rider who was last year with Cooper & Bailey, is traveling with Burr Robbins's circus.

John P. Smith, of the "Tourists," was once a compositor on the Richmond Enquirer.

Therapy is said to have made $60,000 at the Fifth Avenue theatre, New York, this season.

W. J. Florence has three men at work writing plays for him. He will return from England in June or July.

E. E. Rice will run the Boston Museum this summer. He is to produce "Cinderella at School" and some other plays.

Hoey & Hardie's "Child of the State" combination will close their season in New York June 4.

H. J. Chapman, formerly manager of Barlow Wilson, Primrose & West, goes to California with John J. Raymond.

J. W. Collier's "Banker's Daughter" combination will close their season on Saturday at Danbury, Conn.

Maftit and Bartholomew are tired of pantomime. Next season they are to go into comedy.

Emerson and Clark and the Daly Bros. have separated. Each firm is traveling by themselves.

E. C. Dunbar, the Milanese minstrel, who was here with Harry Miner's troupe, goes to California with the "Fun on the Bristol" party.

It is stated positively that Adelina Patti has signed an engagement for America with Belveau, and that she and the new impresario will sail in October next.

Joseph Harris, who was here with Nick Roberts's pantomime company will play the Lone Fisherman in Stanley & Warner's Evangeline company next season.

The French Family Davene go out with one of Mike Leavitt's company's next year. They are now with the Barum-London show.

Heverly has taken a new lease of his Chicago theatre for the summer. His new theatre he hopes to have ready for business in September.

The manager who was to have played Thatcher & Ryman's minstrels in Paris writes that he cannot take them. The minstrels are very much disappointed and threaten to bring suit.

Dion Boucault leaves for Europe May 10. He returns in the fall, under a sixteen weeks' contract to Henry E. Abbey, during which he is to produce two new Irish plays.

Leonard Grover has signed with John R. Rogers to write an original comedy suited to the talents of Minnie Palmer and R. E. Graham which will enable them to introduce funny business.

"Pico," the clown, who is a brother of George H. Adams, has received flattering notices from the press of Australia, where he has been performing with W. W. Cole's circus.

Mary Anderson has been playing in Louisville to crowded houses. In four nights the receipts were $3,500. That is doing pretty well for Louisville, but Mary is always sure of an attentive audience there.

John H. Laine, a well known agent, will go ahead of George W. Hill's Adam's "Humpty Dumpty" troupe next season. He will have three assistants. Mr. Laine is well known here. He was ahead of Nick Roberts until recently.

Lotta will have a new play next season from Fred Marsden. The contract is already signed, and $1,000 has been paid toward the total purchase money. Mr. Marsden has gone to Schremon Lake with his family for the summer.

Walter Wentworth, the contortionist, who performed here for a long time in the winter of 1877-78, is traveling with Shuey & Young's combination, which is giving performances under canvas. They are in Valparaiso, Indiana, to night.

J. M. Hill has played "All the Rage" sixty-six weeks out of a possible seventy-two. He has received an offer to go to California with the company, and, in case he accepts, his people will have no vacation this year. He has re-engaged the whole company for next season. Mr. Hill is the manager of Den Thompson also.

Miss Fannie Louisa Buckingham, who closed an unsuccessful engagement at the Masonic theatre, Memphis, left for Chicago, leaving her horse James Melville behind as security for $200 borrowed to enable her to leave the city. She begins an engagement in Chicago on the 16th inst.

W. E. Sheridan, who travels with John O'Brien's circus and manages the recent season. He has been in the business many years, traveling with most of the great circuses in this country. He is a son-in-law of Maj. Manoah B. Missimer, of Pottsville, Pa., and owns a number of the houses there.

Frank J. Traynor, who played his last engagement with Ben Maginley when that gentleman took the Danites through New England just a year ago, died of consumption at Modesto, California, on the 19th ult. The hardships he endured during a long sea voyage proved too much for his system, and he arrived there only in time to die.

Gus Bruno, the darkey performer, formerly of Johnson & Bruno, was doing his act in an Indianapolis variety theatre, when two young men who sat down front began "guying" him. He became angry and jumping from the stage to the parquet he whipped both of the fellows, putting an awful eye on one of them. He was arrested and fined.

W. E. Sheridan was a member of the Sixth Ohio during the rebellion and at the battle of Resaca his right arm was shattered by a bullet. The exertion of wielding a sword in the combat caused a great swelling of the arm, and during his recent starting tour, has reopened the old wound and it is probable that he will be compelled to abandon those parts.

Julia Wilson, who plays Tot in "Joshua Whitcomb," is twenty-two years of age, though she does not look more than twelve

LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 7, 1881. Amusement Notes.

What the Show People Are Doing. Kate Claxton will open in San Francisco on Monday.

Aldrich and Farlow wind up the season at Newark on the 14th. He was here with T. Keene, will star the coming season.

Buffalo Bill closed the season in Newark last Saturday night. August Seigrist, now in Australia, will be one of Tony Denier's pantaloons next season.

Jackson's Mammoth minstrels are traveling under canvas. Charley Diamond and Billy Robinson are with them.

The Footlight, published by Harry L. Hartmyer comes out with a new head this week and looks well.

Joseph Slater, a member of Anthony & Ellis's Uncle Tom party, was badly bitten by a bloodhound at Providence, R. I.

Chas. W. Fish, the rider who was last year with Cooper & Bailey, is traveling with Burr Robbins's circus.

John P. Smith, of the "Tourists," was once a compositor on the Richmond Enquirer.

Therapy is said to have made $60,000 at the Fifth Avenue theatre, New York, this season.

W. J. Florence has three men at work writing plays for him. He will return from England in June or July.

E. E. Rice will run the Boston Museum this summer. He is to produce "Cinderella at School" and some other plays.

Hoey & Hardie's "Child of the State" combination will close their season in New York June 4.

H. J. Chapman, formerly manager of Barlow Wilson, Primrose & West, goes to California with John J. Raymond.

J. W. Collier's "Banker's Daughter" combination will close their season on Saturday at Danbury, Conn.

Maftit and Bartholomew are tired of pantomime. Next season they are to go into comedy.

Emerson and Clark and the Daly Bros. have separated. Each firm is traveling by themselves.

E. C. Dunbar, the Milanese minstrel, who was here with Harry Miner's troupe, goes to California with the "Fun on the Bristol" party.

It is stated positively that Adelina Patti has signed an engagement for America with Belveau, and that she and the new impresario will sail in October next.

Joseph Harris, who was here with Nick Roberts's pantomime company will play the Lone Fisherman in Stanley & Warner's Evangeline company next season.

The French Family Davene go out with one of Mike Leavitt's company's next year. They are now with the Barum-London show.

Heverly has taken a new lease of his Chicago theatre for the summer. His new theatre he hopes to have ready for business in September.

The manager who was to have played Thatcher & Ryman's minstrels in Paris writes that he cannot take them. The minstrels are very much disappointed and threaten to bring suit.

Dion Boucault leaves for Europe May 10. He returns in the fall, under a sixteen weeks' contract to Henry E. Abbey, during which he is to produce two new Irish plays.

Leonard Grover has signed with John R. Rogers to write an original comedy suited to the talents of Minnie Palmer and