COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE Dr. Cottrell returned on the 1 .o'clock train yesterday from his trip to Richmond.

The Columbia social club took in a new member last evening. Evan Jones, late of the Shawnee rolling mill, was yesterday afternoon presented with a handsome gold-headed cane by the employees. The cane was appropriately inscribed. Mr. Jones goes to Allentown. Prof. B. G. Union street wharf. Senator Don Cameron arrived in town at one o'clock to day and was sent from here to Marietta on a special train. There was a very fair market this moreing. The supply of shad was not very large, for the reason that the hucksters gobble the fish up as soon as they are brought to shore. While this demand keeps up prices are bound to remain high.

A number of rafts were dropped to Col-umbia yesterday afternoon and this morning, but go no farther down on account of water. If a rise in the river should set in they will be taken on down, but if the contrary be the case they will be taken to their destination via the canal. The Columbia fire company transacted a heap of business at it monthly meeting

A surprise party was taken last evening to the residence of Mr. Seacrist, on Union street, where the hours were pleasantly spent. The occassion was Mr. B's birthday anniversary.

It was learned that the same tramp had assaulted another little girl before his meeting of Miss Tyson. The condition of the latter we understand is very favorable.

Henvy Tobacco Deliveries. To-day has been a busy one in and about the tobacco packing houses. The wet weather of Thursday and Friday moistened the leaf and put it in good condition for handling. The tobacco growers lost no time in availing themselves of the favorable conditions for delivering, and at an early hour this morning hundreds of wagons of all descriptions loaded with baled leaf were to be seen heading for the several city warehouses, where they formed line and awaited their turn to unload. Many of them were not unloaded Complaints Dismissed The complaints against David Kaustman. charging him with drunken and disorderly conduct and assault and battery on a boy named Funk, were set down for a hearing before Alderman Barr yesterday afternoon. The prosecutor failed to appear and the cases were dismissed, defendant paying the costs in the case charging him with drunken and disorderly conduct.

EYES.

This morning a trio of patients, from Reading, Philadelphia and Edgewood, Bucks county, each related their unfortunate experiences under the treatment of their eyes by the Oculists, Drs. Norris, Levis and strawbridge, of Philadelphia, and their decided improvement under my practice. One of them came to me totally blind; the second hearly blind, and the third with almost constant neuralgia in and around the eyes, with impaired vision. A fourth patient, Miss Lizzie paired vision. A fourth patient, Miss Lizzie Brubaker, of Littiz, said: "My dyspepsis and other affictions of long standing left me in a short time after going under your charge, and my glasses, worn since I was fourteen years of age, were laid aside as useless, and my vision is natural." No Oculist in this country or Europe can produce such results without they discover my remedies and applications, or similar ones. STRAW BIDDERS ARRAIGNED. Black's Complicity in the Star Route Frauds

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—At noon to-day Joseph R. Black, the business partner of Albert C. Harmer, member of Congress from the Fifth Pennaylvania district, Joseph Funk, S. Blackman, and W. R. Cason, who were taken into custody in this city yesterday for complicity in a scheme to defraud the United States government by putting in straw bids to secure the contracts for carrying the mails, were arraigned for a hearing before United States Commissioner Smith in the United States court room in the presence of a large number of people. The government was represented by United States District Attorney Valentine, while each of the accused was represented by eminent members of the Philadelphia bar.

A large number of witnesses were examined, during which it was shown that the bonds had been executed in Black's office in this city. Mr. Black made a state-ment in which he acknowledged that he was the contractor, and the other people who had been taken into custody had bid for him in order that the proper security might be entered, and he further stated that he was able and perfectly willing to indemnify the government for any loss that they might have sustained. The testimony previous to this statement being made was of such a conflicting character as to the complicity of Black, that the commissioner was unable to give a decision in the matter; finally after a two hours hearing all of the accused were held in $5,000 each for a further hearing on Monday at noon.
