Cochran's Drug Store, 137 North Queen street.

LITTLE LOCALS. Here and There and Everywhere. You can get a railroad ticket to Gettysburg and return, see Garfield and the Decoration day ceremonies and come back any time this season for $3.45.

This morning a horse attached to a wagon belonging to Leonard Schmidt, cabinetmaker, was being driven down West King street, near Prince, the wagon being piled full of furniture. By the jolting of the wagon over the rough road-bed a chair fell from the wagon and struck the horse upon the back, killing him and causing him to turn away. In front of Hothel's hotel the runaway team came in collision with a horse and wagon belonging to M. C. Smith, veterinary surgeon, breaking a shaft of Mr. Smith's wagon and slightly injuring the horse. Mr. Schmidt's wagon was stopped by running against a post in front of Quade's butcher shop. It sustained little or no damage.

The handsomest commencement invitations yet seen in these parts, are those issued by the school of Franklin & Marshall. They are in old English illuminated text, and the design, by Tiffany, is as unique as it is elegant and classical looking.

Samuel H. Trimble's barn, in East Coshen, Chester county, with its contents has been burned; a calf also perishing in the flames.

For the $10,000 which the school board wanted to borrow at 4 per cent, payable in one or ten years, proposals for $14,000 were received and the finance committee as awarded $5,000 at 4 per cent premium, and $5,000 at 3 per cent premium.

Yesterday Charles Hoffmeyer, son of A. L. Hoffmeyer, started to the country with a load of furniture. On reaching Highville, Manassas county, his horse played out and he was obliged to remain there all night. His absence alarmed his father, who late at night accompanied by a friend started in search of him, and this morning Geo. Hoffmeyer also started to the country in search of the missing ones. By taking different roads, he finally passed each other. Mr. Hoffmeyer got home first, Charlie next and George brought up the rear.

Upper End House. Litz Record, Co. 100-1.

Mr. Salinda Rock, wife of Edward Rock, of Bethlehem, Pa., died on Monday, May 23, at her residence at Lark's about twenty years ago and her parents, Samuel and Anna Tucher, are now living in Rothsville.

Mr. Jacob Gantz, residing at Pine Hill, Warwick township, has died from lockjaw occasioned by a cutting, which he got while plowing. He was 57 years old, leaves a widow and four children.

At midnight on Tuesday the rear of Isaac Roath's house in Brunnerville took fire and in a little while a half and half story residence was in ashes. A week before in the outbuilding had fire to the wood-work. Loss $1,800; $1,400 insurance in the Penn township company.

A Fine Bullock. A Durham bullock, bred in Kentucky and fed by father-in-law, I. Landis, a well-known stock-raiser of this county, was paraded through the streets this morning and attracted much attention by reason of his immense size, fine proportions and healthy appearance. He has been purchased by a party from this city, and will be slaughtered at the Black Horse hotel on North Queen street, on Wednesday. The weight of the bullock is said to be 3,045 pounds. He will be exhibited for a week at the Black Horse hotel.

Decorating Day. The committee of arrangements and their lady friends met at Grant Hall last evening and covered with evergreen a large number of crosses, anchors, &c. Another appeal is made for flowers, which seem to be very scarce.

Societies intending to participate in the parade on Decorating day are expected to be in line promptly, as the parade will move at 1:30 p. m. sharp.

Court. Court adjourned yesterday afternoon and will meet again to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock when the licenses will be taken up. Among the cases to be heard is that of Samuel A. Groff who is an applicant for habeas corpus by writ of certiorari, and the "Snapper Box." There is a remonstrance against the license which was got up by Levi Sensenig. Both sides have been taking depositions; Groff has seventy five pages of testimony and Sensenig twenty.

Death of a Promising Young Man. In our obituary column will be found the death notice of Joseph T. Dolner, of Elizabethtown. Mr. Dolner was about 50 years of age, and was a son of John Dolner, farmer. For a number of years he has been a clerk in the Farmers' Bank of Elizabethtown. He was a man of excellent habits and had many friends. For several years past he has been subject to heart disease.

Various Causes—Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition—all have a tendency to weaken the hair, and to cause it to fall out. It is essential to the health of the scalp, and to the growth of the hair, that it should be kept in a healthy condition. It is essential to the health of the scalp, and to the growth of the hair, that it should be kept in a healthy condition.

The "London Hair Color Restorer" is the most delightful article ever introduced to the American people and is totally different from all other hair restorers, being entirely free from all impure ingredients that render many other articles for the hair obnoxious. Where baldness or falling of the hair exists, or premature graying, from sickness or other causes, its use will restore the natural youthful color, and cause a healthy growth, cleansing the scalp from all impurities, dandruff, etc., at the same time, it is a most pleasing and lasting hair dressing, imparting a soft, shining, and healthy appearance to the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. For sale by all dealers. m7-14-d&wp
