The application of Samuel A. Groff, who wants a hotel license for the "Snapper Box" saloen, on Duke street, which is now known as the Sprecher house, was continued until Monday. The case of Frederick Wolf vs. Sarah Wolf, divorce suit, which was on the trial list, was argued. William M. Slaymaker was appointed a viewer to assess damages to lands of Jeremiah Brown, et. al., caused by the Colum-lumbia and Port Deposit railroad running a track through it. A. W. Russel was one of the viewers, who was first appointed, but as he will be out of the state on the day of view, Mr. Slaymaker was appointed in his stead.

The court has refused to grant licenses to the following persons, who were applicants: J. Walter, Conestoga town-ship; Edward Wiley, Second ward, city; and Jacob Adams, Third ward, city; The cases of John Pontz, Eighth ward, city, and of John Reilly, Sixth ward, city, were held under advisement.

Meeting Postponed. The next meeting of the Agricultural society will not be held until Monday the 13th of June, the 1st Monday of June being Whitsuntide.

Don't Your Canary Sing ? Then get a bottle of Bird Bitters, which is an unfailing restorer of song and a cure for all diseases of cage birds.
