TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 31, 1881.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—For the Middle States warmer, southerly shifting to cooler north and east winds, generally fair weather during the rest of Tuesday, following during the night by local rains near the coast.

BALLOTING BEGUN.

In Informal Vote Taken at Albany. ALBANY, N. Y., May 31.—In the Assembly to-day Mr. Draper offered a resolution that at 12 o'clock the House proceed to nominate two candidates for the vacancies in the United States Senate, first naming the senator to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Roscoe Conkling. In case one is named by the majority the fact to be entered in the journal and the House to proceed in like manner to name a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas C. Platt. Adopted.

Stewart's Despondent, Half Breeds Jubilant.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 31.—There was a general despondency visible this morning among the stalwarts and exuberance among their opponents. The development of the vote in each House at noon increased both.

TEXAS TIDINGS. Crime and Casuality in the Empire of the Southwest. GALVESTON, May 31.—The News contains the following specials: At Corsicana, Texas, a fire yesterday morning, originating in a saloon, destroyed an entire row of buildings, one only of which was insured. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

MEXICO, Tex., May 31.—James Burns, foreman of a grading gang on the Missouri Pacific, was shot and mortally wounded by Lee Nelson, a cow boy in a misunderstanding arising out of a settlement of a business transaction.

A Dallas special says: A violent wind and rain storm swept over the city on Sunday night, the rain fell in torrents and food for the day. The heavy rain rising so rapidly that it was expected to overflow its banks before morning. Reports of wind, rain and hail storms in various portions of the state are given by the News specials. In many instances fruit has been entirely destroyed, and the corn, cotton and wheat crops seriously injured.

A Waco special says: A fearful hail storm visited South McLennan and the north part of Bell counties Saturday night. A number of farm houses were torn down, many trees killed, and two men badly hurt in Leon county. Near Crawford, in McLennan several houses were unroofed.

Two cadets of St. Mary University, Porten-Bratherton and Walter May, aged respectively 14 and 15, were drowned while bathing in the Gulf last evening.

The News has a special which says a hurricane visited Taylor on Saturday evening, lasting 40 minutes.

BOLD ROBBERIES. An ex-deputy Sheriff at the Head of a Gang of Highway Robbers. DENVER, Col., May 31.—A west-bound stage on the Barlow & Sanderson line was stopped and passengers robbed near Poncha Springs by four unmasked men. They got a number of gold watches and $500 in money and $3,300 in drafts. The same band entered Poncha Springs later on and compelled everyone in the store to deliver up all their money and valuables. The leader was Charles Allison, ex-deputy sheriff of Conejos county. The rest of the band are members of a well-known cattle thieving gang.

A Doctors' Jealous Edge. BELLEVILLE, Ont., May 31.—Dr. Petti groom of Campbellford, on Saturday shot and severely wounded Richard Donnyeast a wealthy farmer who he charged with being too intimate with his wife. Petti grew ill in jail.

The Other Man Shot. PAIS, Ky., May 31.—At North Middle-town, during a quarrel, John Alexander threatened to shoot Wm. Cunningham, whereupon Cunningham drew his pistol and shot Alexander dead. Cunningham was released on bail.

The Same Old Story. ST. JOHN, N. B., May 31.—Charles Smith, a lumber operator, has absconded and is a defaulter to the amount of $15,000.

Fire at Brooklyn, Ont. BROOKLYN, Ont., May 31.—S. R. Wickett's tannery, with contents, burned this morning. Loss, $10,000; insurance, $5,000.

Livery Stable Burned. FRANKFORT, Ky., May 31.—R. C. Church's livery stable was burned last night. Loss, $15,000; partly insured.

GIVING IT AWAY. Red Headed Jimmy Anderson Telling of His Own Experiences. In Ruby Hill, Nev., Mining News "Published every Monday by James E. Anderson, Editor and Proprietor." "Things have come to a pretty pass when we find our esteemed friend Truthful James Anderson, lord of Louisiana, referring in his Ruby Hill News to the guileless Mr. Hayes as the 'monumental fraud who occupied Filien's seat for four years in the White House. How, now, James, is it not that rather a strange 'jest'?"—San Francisco Daily Exchange.

Not at all. Every man conversant with the facts knows that Hayes was honestly elected, and the true story of how he obtained his seat when it is written will make the most diagnostic page in the history of American politics.

"If Stanley Matthews is confirmed as supreme court judge Jim Anderson should not be neglected. If Garfield is to pay off Hayes's old debts; he should give Jim something. He would be better with a consulate in a warm climate."—St. Louis (O.) Gazette.

Such a consular post would prove no inducement. Nothing but the power to pitch Hayes so far into Hades that a ray of light wouldn't reach him in ten eternities would ever induce us to cancel our account with the casting hypocrite who sang Methodist hymns while receiving stolen goods.

MARKETS. Philadelphia Market. PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—Flour market quiet and good inquiry for desirable bakers grades. Superfine in case one is named by the majority the fact to be entered in the journal and the House to proceed in like manner to name a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas C. Platt. Adopted.
