IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

To-day we open a full line of Spring and Summer Goods for Men's Wear, which has never been equaled in this city or any house in the country for quality, style and high-toned character. We claim superiority over anything we handled before during our experience of quarter of a century in business, and our reputation is established for keeping the finest goods in our line. Our opening to-day is an invoice of Novelties captured from the wreck of a large Boston house, whose failure has precipitated these goods on the market too late in the season and consequently at a sacrifice, so they are within reach of all desiring a first-class article at a moderate price. The consignment includes a full line of the celebrated Talmon's French Novelties, the handsome and finest goods imported to this country, a new feature in Silk Wares; Talmon's Ties and Long, Serpentine Ties, Cork Screw Diagonals and Granite Weave. A full line of Taylor's English Trousers of beautiful effects. Also a fine line of Cheong American Suitings as low as $20 a Suit. All the Latest Novelties in Spring Overcoatings at moderate prices. All are especially invited to examine our stock and be convinced that we are making no idle boast, but can substantiate all we say and respectfully urge persons to place their orders once before the choicest styles are sold, for they cannot be duplicated this season. DEPT. GOODS.

SUMMER GOODS.
—AT—
JOHN WANAMAKER'S,
PHILADELPHIA.

DRESS GOODS.
Our dress goods have been most heavily drawn upon for three months, and of course many sorts are gone altogether, such as could not be replaced. But the stock is still very heavy, kept so by continual buying. Why, we sell almost our whole stock every month in the active time.
The quickest store isn't the one to find the best things!

JOHN WANAMAKER.
Nine counters, Thirtieth street entrance.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.
A shift gives a little more room for greenalms—greenalms plain and figured. The plain are few and the figured many; but which most need room is a question.
All black goods are together in a very small space; an uncommon stock too.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
Next-door circle, Chestnut street entrance.

LADIES' BUTTONS.
A Pearl, metal, beaded and plain broche, jet, steel, ivory, horn; buttons from 5 cents to $50.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
Fourth circle, northeast from centre.

HANDKERCHIEFS.
We have about everything in silk and linen handkerchiefs; nothing in cotton or cotton mixed—never keep them. They are all new, and of the best quality.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
Outer circle, west from Chestnut-street entrance.

BLACK BEADED NET.
Eight varieties, 50 cents to $1.50.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
Second circle, southwest from centre.

TIES.
Of Breton net and point d'Alencon, our own make; could not sell 50 cents if we bought. Embroidered mul-ties, by accident, at 75 cents, that we have been paying 75 cents for, and shall again.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
First circle, southwest from centre.

ANTIQUE TIDIES.
Under a dollar at about three-quarters of our own factory.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
First circle, southwest from centre.

LADIES' COLLARS.
Two makes of silk wrap henriettes are uncommonly satisfactory; one is of an extreme jet black for deepest mourning; the other, with a very faint trace of blue, would commonly be considered black. 57 cents to $2.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
First circle, west from centre.

CHAPTER X.

Meanwhile in the circle of the brothers Haidek-Bohnhausen many a doubt had stirred, and many a discussion had arisen. Opinions were divided in regard to the future that had explained the deficit in the whole inheritance; they remained divided and the doubts were not dissipated, when, one day, the laconic announcement was received that Hofrath Marklin had entrusted his rights of heirship to the care of his advocate, Counsellor Bergland.
