Traffic in freight is again picking up on the Pennsylvania railroad.

Whit Monday bids fair to be a quiet day in Columbia. The new school board will meet for organization some time between this date and next Thursday evening. The exact time has not yet been appointed. A child named Fink, whose father is the tenant on General Simon Cameron's Donegal farm, fell into the spring a couple of days ago and almost drowned before being discovered.

Bernard Sowers, of Lancaster, was arrested here this morning on the charge of having surreptitiously obtained possession of some hide which he was trying to sell to Henry Hollinger, the tanner. It is supposed he got the hide in York county. He tangled himself by telling two stories. Sowers was arrested by Officer Struck while driving in a market wagon with his wife and two children. He has been lodged in the lock-up. W. J. Rose, of Harrisburg, the Pennsylvania railroal company's general agent for fast local freight, was in town to-day.

Another land slide and detention to trains has occured on the Columbia & Port Deposit railroad near McCall's Ferry. At last evening's congregational meeting of the E. E. Lutheran church it was unanimously decided to extend a call to Rev. W. P. Evans, of Cohansey, N. J., to accept the pastorate, Rev. Mr. Evans, who is a man of about thirty-five years of age, with a wife and two children. preached for the congregation on Sunday, May 15, and created a very favorable im-

The sympathy of the community is with the young men who were given a trial yesterday before Justice Frank on the charge made by dusky denizens of "Tow Hill," of carrying concealed deadly weapons. The riot which was stirred up at Third and Locust streets by the blacks on Decoration day was suppressed only by the offorts of a few men who gave their aid to the officer, who alone and unaided was unable to perform his duty. The consequence of that affray made the arrest of the blacks necessary and the white men who figure in this case volunteered to serve as officers to make the arrests. THE CORONER'S DEPUTIES.

He Makes a Number of Changes. The following is a correct list of the deputy coroners for this county as revised by Coroner Mishler, for his unexpired term. This list is official and no other persons except those named are authorized to act. Persons who formerly held commissions have been ordered to return them to the coroner at once, and those indebted to him are asked to pay him.

The coroner reserves the territory embraced in a circuit of ten miles from the court house. Messengers bringing information will receive reasonable compensation. In the absence of the coroner all reports are to be made to Jacob Heline.

A Rogus Canvasser.

A well-dressed and glib-tongued young man has been on the streets for a few days past canvassing for various periodicals, for which he claims to be an authorized agent. To some persons he has said that his name is Flynn, that he is a cousin of Miss L. M. Flynn, bookseller, of West King street and that he was going into partnership with her. There is no truth in this story: Miss Flynn knows nothing whatever about the fellow, who is beyond doubt a fraud. He is about 20 years old, 5 feet 8 inches in height, has a smooth face, dresses well and sometime wears a plug and at other times a straw hat. His operations appear to have been mostly among the ladies, to whom he exhibits fashion publications which he offers to furnish below publishers' prices. He is known to have received money from some

They are very much delighted with their trip and what they have seen of America. They express themselves as highly pleased with the courtesy uniformly shown them, and the accommodations furnished them by the railroad officials.

Discharged.

Mag Filsinger had a hearing before Alderman Barr this morning on the charge of robbing Lizzie Dunham. She was dis charged for want of evidence to connect her with the crime. Emma Frasch is yet in jail, on the sentence of drunken and disorderly conduct, but the robbery case against her will likely be dismissed, as it is not as strong as it was against Mag Filsinger. None of the missing property has been recovered except a pin which was found on the floor in a restau rant where the parties had been. Emma Frasch was yesterday committed to prison for ten days for being drunk and disorderly. She was taken before Judge Patterson to-day on a writ of habeas cor pus and her discharge was asked for After hearing the evidence she was sent back to jail to serve out her sentence. Fell From a Building.

John Brenner, a boss carpenter, residing near Smoketown, made a narrow es cape from death this morning while superintending the erection of a new frame building on the premises of Henry Heller, at Eden, Manheim township. While near the top of the building, some twenty-five feet from the ground, he was accidentally thrown off and fell heavily upon a pile of lumber. When picked up he was unconcious and was supposed to be mortally injured. A courier hastened to Lancaster for a physician and Dr. Compton responded to the call. On his arrival he found Mr. Brenner had regained consciousness but was suffering from severe abrasions, bruises and lacerations, though none of his bones were broken, nor did he appear to have suffered any very serious internal injuries. Portrait of Professor Haldeman. An excellent portrait in oil of the late Professor Haldeman, painted by Mr Waugh, of Philadeiphia, on the order of Mrs. S. J. Haldeman Haly, of Harrisburg, for presentation to the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences, of which Profesfessor Haldeman was for many years an active member, may now be seen at Earle's gallery, 816 Chestnut street. Professor Haldeman's wide reputation, both in this country and Europe, as a profound philologist and antiquarian, renders this gift of his portrait to the academy a source of gratification to his numerous friends.

Escaped From an Officer. Frank Troast, who was charged with an assault and battery on Albert Hoch, had a hearing before Alderman Samson last evening, and a prima facie case having been made out against him, he was in default of $500 bail committed to answer at court. On his way to jail, when near the corner of Duke and Orange streets, Frank gave the slip to Constable Lentz who had him in charge, and running for liberty, made good his escape.

At noon to-day George Lutz, aged about 12 years, son of John Lutz of Manor street, who is employed at Jacob Shirk's tobacco warehouse on North Christian street was seated on the top of three cases of tobacco, cating his dinner. In attempting to get down he fell, his head struck against a step producing concussion of the brain. Dr. Davis was sent for and the boy was removed to his home.
