Meeting of the Investigating Committee In response to two calls, one of which was signed by Jake Halbach and Larry Burns, in the interest of John D. Skiles. and the other by Sam'l Evans in the inter est of Sam Matt Fridy et al., and both of which declared that at least twenty-five good and true Republicans had sworn that they believed frauds had been committed at the late Republican primary election of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the ticket declared by the return judges to be nominated, the investigating committee met in Grant hall this morning. The time of meeting was to have been 10 o'clock, and Sam Evans was promptly on hand, but it was half-past ten before the Halbach party put in an appearance. Then the deors were opened and a score or two of politicians were admitted. There was then some quiet consultation among members of the committee and their counsel, Hay Brown representing one party and J. W. Johnson the other. All the members of the committee were in attendance except J. P. Albright, of Maytown, and they were sworn by Al. Shenck, notary public, to pursue the investigation "with fidel-Then after some further conversation among the members, it was unanimously agreed to adjourn until half-past 1 o'clock this afternoon, as II. M. North, one of Fridy's counsel, was engaged in apply for positions as teachers in the pub-court. The committee had very little to lic schools of Columbia, and not already say about the matter of investigation, but among outsiders there was a general expression of opinion that the trouble would be "fixed up" and the ticket be permitted to remain as announced—that and be promptly on time." any thorough investigation would show

RIOT IN CORK.

LONDON, June 4.-A serious riot occurred at Cork last evening. Houses in two streets were completely wrecked. James Mannix and his son, the latter secretary of the Michelstown branch of the Land League, have been ar-rested under the coercion act, charged with inciting to riot. A large party of military went to Michelstown to day to aid in evictions. Five persons have been arrested near Killarney for attacking a house and cutting off the tenant's ear.

London, June 4.—The United Service Gezette says it is probable that the force of Coldstream Guards in Dublin will be sugmented to a brigade. Mr. O'Mahoney, a prominent member of the Ballydehob Land League, has been arrested under the coercion act. In spite of a large force of armed constabulary the people twice succeeded in rescuing Mr. O'Mahoney. When finally he was captured, a portion of the mob had started to endeavor to intercept his escort at Skibbereen, county Cork.
