An Enemy to Singing Birds.

classed as of good quality—some of it is next door to worthless.

Manchester Mirror. The crow is exterminating the singing birds of New England. Few are the nests that escape his vigilant search, and fewer still the young birds that do not go to satisfy his ravenous appetite and fill his capacious maw. I have watched and cursed them for years. I have seen them pounce upon the nest of the lark and of the plover; I have seen them leaving the nests of the robin with the young in their beaks. For several years I have watched the return of a pair of robins to an old apple tree near my house, where they had built their nest and reared their young. One morning I heard the piercing cry of the old birds, foreboding danger and distress. I ran to the window just it time to see a crow fly from the tree with a young robin in his mouth. In less than five minutes the crow returned, dived into the tree, and this time the last of my four half-grown pet robins was borne Loose Ideas of the Area of Lands. Rev. W. H. H. Murray in Boston Herald.

Men talk of 20,000, 40,000 and 50,000 acres of land without any realization of the extent of such an acreage. I visited the other day a ranch of 20,000 acres. I intended to make a thorough survey of it intended to make a thorough survey of it —that is, to ride round it and ride across it. I made my survey, but when I learned that the fence which enclosed it was over seventy miles in length I concluded that I would inspect it by sections. I did considerable riding in two days, nevertheless, but I didn't ride around it. On the ranch there were 1,500 acres all under the plough, one bit of land, nearly as level as a floor, a paralellogram in shape, and the furrow which the plow cut in traversing from one end to the other, was three miles in a straight line. It is only after one has visited such an estate and devoted days in riding over it that he realizes what 20,000 acres of land is.

Good Words for Free Libraries.

An effort is being made in Montreal to secure the establishment of a free public library, and, as an aid to the cause, the Star of that city publishes correspondence with Henry W. Longfellow and Oliver Wendell Holmes. Mr. Longfellow writes that he has a strong conviction of the usefulness "of free public libraries in placing within the reach of all one means of education which, without them, must necessarily be limited to the more fortunate few. Mr. Holmes says when "a free public library is once fairly begun, it becomes more and more valuable every year, as a matter of course, for it grows like a rolls ing snowball." Mr Holmes further declares that "such a library is as necessary to a town as a nest is to a pair of birds, as scholars are sure to be hatched in it sooner or later."

EXES. EYES!

This morning a trio of patients, from Read-ing, Philadelphia and Edgewood, Bucks county, each related their unfortunate exper-iences under the treatment of their eyes by county, each related their unfortunate experiences under the treatment of their eyes by the Oculists, Drs. Norris, Levis and Strawbridge, of Philadelphia, and their decided improvement under my practice. One of them came to me totally blind: the second nearly blind, and the third with almost constant neuralgia in and around the eyes, with impaired vision. A fourth patient, Miss Lizzle Brubaker, of Little, said: "My dyspepsia and other afflictions of long standing left me in a short time atter going under your charge, and my glasses, worn since I was fourteen years of age, were laid aside as useless, and my vision is natural." No Oculist in this country or Europe can produce such results without they is natural." No Oculist in this country or Europe can produce such results without they discover my remedies and applications, or similar ones. Persons wearing Glasses for far and near sightedness or other diseases of this organ can appally have them. organ can usually have them removed inside of two months and the vigor of their eyes, re-stored to its normal condition. Names of per sons cured of Astigmatism given upon application, a diseased condition of the eyes that no oculist ever pretends to cure. Also Catarac cured by absorption without using the knife. Send for or call and get (free) four pamphlets. One on cures of diseased eyes; one on catarrh; one on omnipathy, and the last containing a large number of names of persons cured of every variety of disease,

SHALL WE SELL THEM?

There is in Philadelphia a clothing house which has no double in all the world. The world is full of clothing houses; and it is a good deal to say that one is unlike all the rest.

First, in its dealing; and it is surprising that one house should differ much from another. Selling clothing is so simple a matter, that it is likely, one would suppose, to be done in very much the same way in Philadelphia, New York and London. But Philadelphia is ahead; and, curiously enough, one house in Philadelphia is ahead of all the rest.

To be ahead in dealing is to deal on a higher plane in a more liberal way, to give the buyer more well founded confidence without loss of the merchant's safety. This Philadelwhia clothing house says to a stranger: "We want to deal with exact justice. We want what belongs to us, viz., a fair profit; and we want you to have what belongs to you, viz., a liberal money's-worth. Our way to arrive at a result is to mark the price on everything we sell, which price is absolute; and to let you buy what you like, go away and think the bargain over, and come and trade back, if you want to. We find by experience that this liberality is harmless to us. Of course, you like it. And it makes quick and ready dealing. We don't want you to bring back what you buy-it would cost us money every time; but we would rather you would bring back, than keep, what you don't like. So, we try to see that you get at first what you will like the better, the more you know of it. This is really the whole philosophy of our dealing."

Second, in its goods-the amount and variety of them. There are other houses where excellent clothing is kept, and a great deal of it; but there is none, anywhere, that keeps so much. The dealing related above has won the largest trade the world has yet seen. To supply such a trade great quantity and variety of clothing are required; and these in turn increase the trade, because everybody likes to choose out of many things, rather than out of a few.

This is the country of ready-made clothing. Great Britain makes the most of any European country; but there is not in all London any clothing business a quarter as large as that of Oak Hall. New York has several large clothing businesses; but no one nearly equal to that of Oak Hall; Boston
