West Chester Republican.

Wilkesbarre Union Leader. The mistake made by the faculty at Millersville is in the depreciation of their pupils' virtues.

Reading News. Brass bands and a noisy mob are not good arguments, and rebellion against constituted authority does not commend itself unless it succeeds. The Trouble

The trouble proceeds to a great extent, from the old practice of regarding boys and girls as wild creatures who cannot be admitted to each other's society without dangerous results.

Paternal Advice. Reading Engle.

Millersville normal school teachers should endeavor to control their passions and set a good example to their pupils. Any other course will bring them and their school deservedly into contempt. Touchwood and Flintiness.

Philadelphia Record. There is too much touchwood in the composition of the professors and too much flintiness among the youth. Hence sparks, smoke, fire, fuss and feathers. The boys should be spanked and the professors dieted.

Argument Against Co-Education, Philadelphia Press.

If such regulations are required where the two sexes are brought together in schools they should be given different establishments entirely. Separation by imaginary lines and arbitrary rules under such circumstances can only be maintained by a continual and vexatious exercise of authority. Undue Harshness

North Wales Reporter.

Considering that the pupils at Millersville are all grown men and women, who were respectable members of society at home, we think Dr. Brooks and his associates have shown undue harshness in the rules made for their government, and a needless system of surveillance not found necessary at other institutions, where both sexes mingle in study and recitation.

The Solution Norristown Register.

It ought not to be left to the arbitrary pleasure of any one or any set of teachers to make the rules by which these schools are governed. General rules should be adopted for all the normal schools in the state and those rules consistently but resolutely enforced. The young man or young woman who is not willing to abide by such regulations should not enter as a pupil.

Childish Students. Scranton Republican.

They cannot expect a great educational institution to be run on sentimental principles, and their childish, petulant and unseemly action because forsoeth they could not dictate to the faculty and set up government of the students, by the students and for the students, is the best evidence that Dr. Brooks is right. * * * * It occurs to us that an important lesson may be learned from this quarrel, and that is the inexpediency of educating young men and women together at a normal school.

"I Am All Played Out" is a common complaint. If you feel so, get a package of Kidney-Wort and take it and you will at once feel its tonic power. It renews the healthy action of the kidneys, bowels and liver, and thus restores the natural life and strength to the weary body. It can now be had in either dry or liquid form, and in either way is always prompt and efficient in action.

MEDICAL. REIGART'S OLD WINE STORF. Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those al-flicted with

Indigestion and Dyspepsia. BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims, With a purely phllanthropic motive we pre sent to the favorable notice of invalids—espe-cially those afflicted with that miserable dis-ease Dysnewska a specific remode which is ease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which nothing more or less than Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young friend, II E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give if the preference over all other Brandies no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or ascs. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, Iri cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we A hard-working farmer had been addicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Braudy. In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomagh capable of digesting anything which he choose as a little occasionally; and since he has this nacilicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.
