A Worthy Young Man. Mr. Robert II. Read, of Columbia, who for the past two months has held the position of local editor of the Carlisle Volunteer, with credit to himself and profit to its readers, has received the appointment of third assistant examiner in the United States patent office at Washington, D. C., at a lucrative salary. Mr. Read was graduated from the Columbia high school at the head of his class and from Lehigh university with first honors. In March, 1880, he stood a connetitive examination with 400 applicants in the interior department at Washington, and, coming out eleventh, was appointed to a position in the pension office, which he held until the 31st of last January, when the force of pension clerks was reduced and he, along with forty-five others, was dismissed on "account of the appropriations being exhausted." Two months prior to this he had stood a competitive patent office, and although the class was | month, large and the examination rigorous he

MPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

To-day we open a tull line of Spring and Summer Goods for Men's Wear, which has never been eclipsed in this city or any house in the country for quality, style and high toned character. We claim superiority over anything we handled before during our experience of quarter of a century in business, and our reputation is established for keeping the finest goods' in our line. Our opening to-day is an invoice of Novelties captured from the wreck of a large Boston house, whose failure has precipitated these goods on the market too late in the season and consequently at a sacrifice, so they are within reach of all desiring a first-class article at a moderate price. The consignment includes a full line of the celbrated Talamon's French Novelties, the handsomest and finest goods imported to this country, a new feature in Silk Warp ; Talamon's Tricot a-Long, Scrpentine Tricots, Cork Screw Diagonals and Granite Weave. A full line of Taylor's English Trouserings of beautiful effects. Also a fine line of Choice American Suitings as low as $20 a Suit. All the Latest Novelties in Spring Overcoatings at moderate prices. All are cordially invited to examine our stock and be convinced that we are making ne idle boast, but can substantiate all we say and respectfully urge persons to place their order at once before the choicest styles are sold, for they cannot be dupli season.
