Filbert, Wann and Musser, president.

Mf. Pfahler offered the following which was adopted unanimously. "Resolved, By the town council of Columbia that the recent attempt on the life of President Garfield has excited feelings of profound sorrow in this community, a gloom most intense mingled with our earnest deprecation of the atrocious crime, and as representatives of the citizens of Columbia, and in their behalf, we hereby tender to the afflicted family our warmest sympathy and express the hope, strengthened by each bulletin received from the bedside of the sufferer, that a Divine Providence will soon restore to his place of henor the chief magistrate of our nation."

The finance committee presented the following report which was adopted:

The property committee recommended that the auditorium be thoroughly Dillerville local, Turning at the turn-cleansed and put in condition for the next table he returnd at 1:41 sharp. He often season; the scenery needs repairing; the does. fire extinguishers and hose should be examined and put in order; the matting on front stairway is almost entirely worn out and should be renewed; the tower leaks in some places and should be repaired; the galvanized iron work on the tower needs repairing; the girders need screwing up; the conductor spouts should be differently arranged, and so should the conductor at the front door. The committee asked for instructions.

The road committe reported having placed a granite centre in alley "I"; the macadamizing of a couple of streets and the repair of others, and several as being in a very filthy condition. The paving committee reported the renewal of several payements and the laying of some gutters and also that by instructions from council they had drafted an ordinance relating to trucks, carts, etc., on the sidewalks,

The fire committee, per Mr. Wann, ver bally reported the result of some corre spondence between the committee and the Spawn & Dennisson manufacturing company, of Reading, relative to the repairs of the Columbia engine.

The sanitary and police committee re-ported a good sanitary condition. They consulted with the chief burgess and fixed the salaries of the special policemen, recently sworn in, at five dollars per month. They have had the lock-up thoroughly renovated and its fixtures renewed, and suggest that prisoners confined therein be compelled to clean up before vacating.

Mr. David O. Lescure, a representative of the Moyes belt and leather stuffing company of Boston, Mass., represented to council the virtues of the Moyes engine hose oiler. Chief Director Shenberger said the hose was in a very hard condition and needed oiling very badly. On motion of Mr. Pfahler the matter was re ferred to the fire committee with power to purchase if they think necessary.

The action of the sanitary and police caster. committee in fixing the salary of the new special policemen at five dollars per month, was ratified by council and an order was granted in favor of the chief burgess to pay the regular policemen for special services.

The property committee was instructed to make the necessary repairs to the opera house building enumerated in the committee's report.

The Chestnut Hill iron ore company having complained of water flowing from Manor street upon its tracks, the road committee was instructed to consult the borough solicitor and if necessary find another outlet for this water. A discussion took place relative to the tifthy condition of the alley between Cherry and Union streets and running from Second street to the Pennsylvania railroad tracks.

A complaint was made of the weedy condition of Chestnut street. To the preperty committee was referred the question, subject to the conditions, of renting the opera house basement to Ben jamin Barr, at a monthly rental. An order for one hundred dollars was granted in favor of Dr. Bockius, from amount of retained commissions on collected taxes, of which he is the collector. Bills to the amount of more than one thousand dollars, including the pay roll of $306.79, were read and ordered to be paid.

The Warm Weather Affected Him. This afternoon a man who was drunk was found on Middle street near Rockland by Officer Gill. He was flourishing a revolver and making a great deal of noise. The officer took him in charge but the man fought all the way to the station house. Several persons assisted the officer and the man was safely caged in a short time. He refused to give his name and threatened to kill any one who interfered with him. When last seen by our reporter he had not killed any one but was yelling "fire" at the top of his voice.

The Sudden Demise of a Lady in New York. New York, July 9.—Mrs. Eliza Bridg-man, aged 53, of Chicago, fell dead on Broadway, at the corner of Cedar street. this morning, as she was going toward Trinity church, accompanied by her daughter, a young lady of 18 years, and nephew, Mr. W. C. Boone. Mrs. Bridgman was the wife of Col. Frank Bridgman, paymaster United States army and a member of Gen. Sheridan's staff. She was the sister of Gen. McDowell. She left Chicago for a trip to the seaside and arrived in this city early this morning. Her body was carried into the building No. 128 Broadway, and a message was sent to Gen. Hancock, on Governor's Island, who forthwith dis-
