Tobacco Market.

Seed Leaf and Havana for the Week End

U. S. Tobacco Journal. This has been a quiet week. The holiday, the heat, the absence of many operators who prefer summer resorts to leaf sample rooms and the murmuring of the waves or chirping of the birds to the chir music of brokers, combined to create dullness in the market. The few who did some business kept it to themselves, and therefore reports of sales were extremely meagre.

The feeling on the part of holders of sound '80 tobacco that it will sell sooner or later at more or less remunerative figures predominates, and no anxiety is manifested by them to show samples. The enormous rush of business manufacturers are undergoing strengthens the feeling referred to. Nobody can be induced to believe in a great reduction of the cigar business in the near or far future, and as cigars can't very well be made of any thing else but tobacco (except now and then, a little fried mackerel, parts of umbrellas, etc.), as as the quantity raised in 1880 is supposed to be no larger than that raised in 1879, and as of the latter the markets are nearly bare, the '80 tobacco will have to be taken hold of at, at least, no smaller figures than are ruling to day. At present Pennsylvania is king. Whether it can be dethroned by Connecti cut when the latter has gone through the sweat and can show its proper qualities, remains to be seen. Manufacturers want tobacco that stretches. If it has not qual ity, quality is imparted by means which they can control. Tender tobacco may be never so desirable on account of its natural qualities, and never so much desired by the manufacturers, but it is disliked by cigarmakers, and just now cigarmakers are the most important factor in a cigar factory.

The sales of the week were: Pennsyl vania.—Crop '80; 500 cases, p. t. (We quote this sale because nearly everybody in the market will swear that it was made but by whom and to whom cannot be ascertained.) Crop '79; 300 cases, wrappers, 30@42 cents; fine running, 21 cents fillers, 8 cents.

Wisconsin-Crop '89; 500 cases Havana seed (sold to a manufacturer), p. t. Havana-Market very quiet. Sales 350 bales, mostly all '79 stock, in small lots Prices unchanged.

The Philadelphia Market.

Seed Leaf-Cigar leaf continues excellent with those who are fortunate in having the desired stock. Considerable new Connecticut seconds have been offered on the market, and found willing purchasers it is claimed that they are better than the 1879. The 1880 Pennsylvania is looming up; holders appear to be well satisfied after examination. Prices generally hold steady. tians' lieport.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J S. Gans' Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending July 11, 1881 :

700 cases 1880 Pennsylvania, assorted lots, 12(#18c; 100 cases 1879 Pennsylvania, 18(#40c.; 675 cases 1880 Wisconsin, Havana seed, 13(a)15c.; 250 cases 1880 New England, seconds, 101(a:121c.; 88 cases 1880 State, p. t.; 300 cases Ohio 1880, 5366c.; 40 cases 1879 Ohio, 10c. total, 2,153 cases.

Murdered for a Handful of Corn.

A cold-blooded murder was committed Thursday on the Arkadelphia & Mount lda road, eight miles from Hollywood, Ark. Two strangers from Texas stopped at the house of Thomas Holden, two miles pursuit. He overtook the fugitives eight miles from Hollywood and found one of the men sitting on his horse, while the other was sleeping on the ground. The man on watch gave the alarm to his sleeping companion and then took to flight. He was pursued and shot down by Wilson. They captured the remaining man and returned with him to Hollywood to have him tried, leaving the body of the slain man in the woods until yesterday. The magistrate refused to try the prisoner and he was set at liberty. Wednesday an inquest was held upon the body of the slain man, after which he was buried.

---A Father's Dreadful Mistake.

At Lyons, O., some time ago, the post office was robbed, and since that time Postmaster C. E. Carmon has been watching for burglars. About 2 o'clock Saturday morning his attention was aroused by seeing a figure on the roof of the house and he fired the contents of a breech-loading carbine through the head of the supposed burglar. Examination revealed the fact that he had killed his fourteen-year-old son, Elmer, who had gone out in a fit of somnambulism or to seek relief from the terrible heat.

A Murderer's Advice to His Friends Thomas Harper, a cow-boy, was hanged at Tueson, Ari., for the murder of John Tolliday, in September last. His demeanor on the scaffold was cool and jaunty. He made no confession, but left let ters to Curly Bill, a well-known desperado, admonishing him to take warning from him and not be too handy with his pistol, and to "stand a heap from a man before you kill him."

"How are You my old Friend?" "How are You my old Friend?"

Asked a bright looking man. "Oh! I teel miserable, I'm billous and can't cat, and my back is so lame I can't work." "Why in the world don't you take Kidney-Wort; that's what I take when I am out of sorts, and it always keeps me in perfect tune. My doctor recommends it for all such troubles." Kidney-Wort is the sure cure for billousness and constipation. Don't fall to try It.—Long Branch News.

Lawns that should have sold at 12½ cents when they came, a week ago, must now go at 10 cents. Woolen cheeks, debeiges, flannel suitings, silk and wool garnitures and black grenadines go down. Many sorts of hosiery; men's and boys' hats of a great many sorts; and all the ladies' trimmed hats and bounets go down. Boys' clothing suffers a severe sorting out. Some whole stocks and all broken ones go down. Laces, embroideries and white goods we can't reduce the price of, no matter how many there are; for we have all the trade we can serve now.

Besides goods that are so strictly seasonable as to be urgent, all the odds and ends in the store go down.
