OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Killed by Lightning. Thomas Whiteleather, of Wrightsville, an employee in Kerr, Cook & Co.'s quarry, was yesterday afternoon struck by lightning and instantly killed. When the storm broke out, he, with two other workmen, took refuge in a vacant house on Detwiler's upper farm. His companion went into a back-room while he stood in the doorway, where shortly afterward he was struck. His companion, hearing him fall, ran to his assistance, but he was past all human aid, for he lay before them a scarred and blackened corpse He was taken to his home, where leaves a wife and two children.

A party of gentlemen were fishing near the dam when the storm of yesterday arose, and not being very familiar with row boat, swere carried down over the dam, coming near being drowned. They saved themselves by hanging to their boat until all stations.

Last evening three men giving their names as James Grady, of Baltimore John McNicholas, of Scranton, and Allison, of Pittsburgh, were arrested by Offi cer Brady, on suspicion of stealing a ride on a freight train, and placed in the lockup over night. This morning they had a hearing before 'Squire Frank, who after hearing their evidence discharged them. The cyidence showed that Grady and Mc Nicholas applied to Mr. C. N. Simm, of the Chestnut iron ore company, for work, which was given them, and they were to begin this morning. When arrested they were hunting a boarding house and a freight train having stopped it was necessary to cross it. In doing so Brady saw them, and pulling out his ready re-volver said: "Don't move or I'll shoot!" at the same time showing his star. The men were then placed in the lock-up over night, and perhaps, by the over-officious act of Brady, will lose their job. Squire Frank deserves credit for giving a person justice, while Brady, if the men lose their work, should be made to get them more, for this is not the first time that he got himself into trouble by his freshness. The managers of Columbia and Washington turnpike company yesterday de-clared a dividend of ten per centum on the capital stock of the company.
