A BOUQUET. she brought a bouquet with a dainty perfume. 'Twas bright to the eye in its beauty of bloom.

A heliotrope and a tinted wood-bine, so rich in their scents, so happy to twine around the pink buds between them.

Two Millions Going Begging.

Another English Estate Waiting for American Heirs—A Lawyer Looking for Certain Williams and Backus.

In the last few days an advertisement in the "Personals" of the Herald calling for information in reference to a $2,000,000 legacy in England, for which the heirs are said to be wanting, has attracted considerable attention.

IMPORTANT—$2,000,000—MRS. B. P. BACKUS, formerly S. A. Hayward, Baltimore, Md., will send her address to A. W. Brown, executor of the estate of William Brown, England.

Brown, according to the statements of the lawyer, was a rich young country gentleman from Yorkshire, England, who came to this country in 1873 in company with one Alfred Willard Williams, and traveled about for some years, residing for a considerable portion of the time in Boston, where he was well known.

At the Parker house his name has been found on the register, and he is recalled as a tall, fine, heavy-looking Englishman of lavish habits. He is also said to have lived at the Tremont house, but of this no proof has thus far been obtained.

Who Mrs. Backus was is a puzzling feature of the case, and it is equally perplexing to guess what her relation to Brown could have been to her entitled her to the $2,000,000 Yorkshire estate. Williams was in New York last August before his return to England. He stopped at the Astor house, where he is still remembered. It is now supposed that Williams, as well as Mrs. Backus, has also died, and no trace has thus far been found to the heirs or kinsmen of either of the three persons named in the mystery.

It is a remarkable fact in these days when "bogus" claimants to large inheritances spring up like mushrooms that not a single reply has been received by the English lawyer to the advertisement which has appeared in the Herald for three or four days. Williams was supposed to have been searching for the nebulous Mrs. Backus last August, and to have died broken-hearted from the knowledge that the vast estate might be diverted from its rightful owner, the fair Mrs. Backus, in the case of his death. It is now sought to find the heirs of Williams and Mrs. Backus in order that they might accept the estate, but thus far no success has crowned the efforts of the English lawyers engaged in this noble search on both hemispheres.

Thus far there have been many English estates for which American heirs have been advertised which have shown themselves of a rather shadowy and evanescent nature, but the English lawyer claims that there is no doubt of this cozy little $2,000,000 property actually awaiting in Yorkshire the first true heir, the Williams and Backus who may turn up.

Factory Facts. Close confinement, careful attention to all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidneys and urinary troubles, and all the various ailments which in the winter cannot help them unless they get out doors, use Hop Bitters, made of the purest and best medicinal herbs, and for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rest, are the only remedy which will cure them. They cost but a trifle. See another column. jyl5-2nd&w

Don't Throw up the Spong. When suffering humanity are enduring the horrors of dyspepsia, indigestion, or nervous and general debility, they are too often inclined to throw up the sponge and resign themselves to fate. We say, don't do it. Take Burdock Blood Bitters, the unfading remedy. Price $1. For sale at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

It is a remarkable fact that Thomas' Electric Oil is as good for internal as external use. For diseases of the chest and throat, and rheumatism, neuralgia, crick in the back, wounds, and sores, it is the best known remedy, and much trouble is saved by having it always on hand. DEY GOODS. SUMMER GOODS.

AFTER THE 4th.

After the Fourth of July finds us heavily overstocked with many kinds of goods for summer. They must be sold at whatever price they will quickly bring.

It isn't practicable to set particulars before you in the papers to-day, nor indeed any day, with anything like fullness. Whatever we have too much of for the season will be marked down as soon as we get to it, taking the most urgent things first.

Laws that should have sold at 12 1/2 cents when they came, a week ago, must now go at 10 cents. Woolen checks, deigns, flannel suitings, silk and wool garments and black grenadines go down. Many sorts of hosiery; men's and boys' hats of a great many sorts; and all the ladies' trimmed hats and bonnets go down. Boys' clothing suffers a severe sorting out. Some whole stocks and all broken ones go down. Laces, embroideries and white goods we can't reduce the price of, no matter how many there are; for we have all the trade we can serve now.

Besides goods that are so strictly seasonable as to be urgent, all the odds and ends in the store go down. Whatever you may want there's a fair probability that we have it below the market price.

JOHN WANAMAKER, Chestnut, Thirteenth and Market Streets, and City Hall Square, PHILADELPHIA.
