BURGLARY LAST NIGHT.

Prof. Stahr's House Entered by Thieves. Last night thieves broke into the house of Prof. John S. Stahr, 437 West James street. They effected an entrance at the the front parlor window by pushing the fastener above the lower sash with a chisel or knife, after which they cut out several slats of the wooden blinds inside. They were then able to unfasten the hook holding the blinds together and were soon in the parlor. They of solid silver teaspoons, with the initial "A." upon them; two large old fashioned solid table spoons with "F. A." upon them : two large silver-plated fruit spoons. six silver-plated ferks and nine plated spoons, all with the letter "A." on them and a silver butter knife. After the thieves had finished their work in the dining room they stole a lot of bread, meat and other provisions. The whole loss will be between $40 or $50. It is not known at what time of night the burglary occurred, as the thieves were not heard by the family. It is believed, however, that they did their work between the hours of 12 and 2 a. m. The professor was awake at 12 o'clock, and Mrs. Stahr did not sleep after 2, one of the children being restless on account of illness. As vet there is no clue to the thieves.
