THE GIANT SHOW.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Miss Maggie Lee, of Lancaster, is the guest of Miss Mame Hippey.

Miss Hattie Miller, who has been visit-ing her cousin Miss Hattie Miller, returned home this morning. Miss Hattie Pigman, of Kansas City, Mo., is paying a visit to Dr. Craig. Part of Gowen Post, No. 23 of the G. A R., of Pottstown, spent Saturday in town on their way to the annual encampment. The G. A. R. started this afternoon for Gettysburg on a special at 3 o'clock. Fifty tickets were sold and there was a demand for more, which have been telegraphed for.

Fishing parties were in full bloom yes terday, there being no less than a half dozen large parties within a space of fifteen minutes came in last evening.

The First national bank of Wrightsville was yesterday connected with the telephone exchange. Rev. F. A. Barnitz, of Middletown, will officiate for the St. John's E. Lutheran church to-morrow morning and evening. Services at the usual hour. Mr. Geo. Mason, who recently lost a watch chain, a gift from his deceased father, prized very highly on that account, has regained it. One of the laborers on the contract of Upp and Black was put in the lockup last evening for drunken and disorderly conduct, annoying storekeepers, &c. He was arrested by Special Policeman Dysinger. On Sunday morning, at 9 o'clock, a col-

the Susquehanna, at the foot of Perry street. The candidate is Martha Louisa Brown, familiarly known as "Surgey." A slight wreck occurred near the corner of 4th street, on the Reading railroad, in which a palace car belonging to the circus was somewhat damaged.

The work of shipping has again begun on the coal schutes. It will be remembered that some time ago a break occurred in the canal at Catawissa, thoroughly suspending navigation. The break has now been repaired and shipping resumed yesterday.

A sanguinary fight occurred at the Five Points, corner of Union and 4th streets, in which a number were engaged; some of the combatants were severely bruised and

The weeks' wash belonging to Mr. Jos. McFall, residing on Walnut street, was stolen by thieves last night. The wash was in a clothes basket on the balcony and was seen during the afternoon by some one passing up or down the alley in the rear of the premises, who thinking he could make a "spree" made a midnight call, taking with him everything in the basket, which he kindly left behind.

A fire of a trifling nature occurred yes terday afternoon on the corner of Perry street and the Pennsylvania railroad. The flames were luckily extinguished by a young man with a couple of buckets of water before they had gained any considerable headway. This is about the twentieth time this same house has been on fire to our immediate knowledge, but has always escaped destruction.

evening to disband was abandoned. We are pleased to learn of the resolution, as there is enough musical talent in it to make it one of the best in the state. suggest that they take "excel-ior" for their motto and they cannot fail to succeed. They have heretofore received substantial aid from our citizens, and it will not be withheld now. Let them keep on in the course they have been pursuing in the past and we predict a brilliant future. The band was out screnading last evening and rendered some very fine selections.

The Shelby, Pullman & Hamilton's circus arrived in town this morning over the Reading road and shows to-day and to-night. A large number of persons are crowding our streets anxious to see all they can. As a rule, however, the "small boy" is in excess, giving variety to the scene by his recklessness, walking uncon-sciously near to the heels of kicking horses The parade was up to the average, and amid the glittering paraphernalia that always attend a traveling show, bands of inspiring music, inter-mingled with the hilarious shouts and exclamations of the people on the side walks. On the whole this is one of Co'umbia's lively days. The country folks are present in throngs, and the hotels will all be crowded to their uttermost. Beer saloons will do an immense traffic, and merchants will be benefited not a little by this influx

Grading for the P. R. R.

Keller & Reilly, contractors, will, on Monday next, begin work on the new line | trains. No delay. selected for straightening and shortening the Penusylvania railroad, north of this city, between the Big and Little Conestoga creeks. Keller & Reilly's sections of the work will be commenced at Dillerville and run in a straight line to the Little Conestoga bridge. From Dillerville eastward Keller & Reilly's work runs toward Mr. McGrann's farm, and this part of it will not be begun at once. The new piece of road will be graded for three tracks, and must be finished by the 1st of April Adjoining Keller & Reilly's section on the east, Mr. C. S. Kauffman, of Columbia, has a section of the new road, and still further east, extending to the Big Conestoga bridge, Mr. Armstrong, of Philadelphia, has a section. The new road from the Big to the Little Conestoga will be a perfectly straight line, with the exception of a very slight curve at Hard-wicke, which will be made for the purpose of saving Captain Wiley's house. Armstrong and, perhaps Mr. Kauffman, will also commence work next week.

Good Harvesting and Threshing.

The harvesting and threshing of the wheat and rye on the farm in Manor township known as the "Sener farm," now owned by Isaac Weaver, of this city, was finished on Friday afternoon. The crops belonged to Jacob L. Landis, late owner of the farm, and consisted of 65 acres of wheat and 12 acres of rye. The grain was cut in six days by J. B. Garber, of West Hempfield, and threshed by his brother, C. G. Garber, of Mountville, the whole work being done under the superintend-ence of Abraham Leonard. The thresher used was from the manufactory of Altman & Taylor, Mausfield, Ohio. The en tire cost of harvesting and threshing the crop was only 22 cents per bushel.

Alleged Embezziement.

B. F. Henderson, of Maytown, collector of state and county tax for the township of East Donegal, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Constable Eicholtz at the instance of Gen. Simon Cameron for embezzlement. He was taken before 'Squire Brown, of Maytown, and held in bail in the sum of $1,500 for his appearance before Alderman Spurrier on Tuesday next. Henderson, it is alleged, is some $1,500 short in his accounts, and the county commissioners demand payment by his sureties, of whom Gen. Cameron is one.

Withdrawn,

The $25 left at this office, as a forfeit, challenged club.

Bill Posters' Brolis. C. Kenyon, a bill poster of Batcheller & Doris's circus, was arrested here this afternoon on a charge of defacing and mutilat. ing show bills of the Sells Brother's show. Kenyon belongs to the brigade of posters who arrived here this morning. He went to the country for the purpose of billing and it was charged that he covered several "stands" of bills belonging to the Sells party. "Yank" Newell, an agent of the Sells show, was in town and the driver of the wagon which took Kenyon to the country told him that Kenyon had covered their bills. Newell made complaint against him before Alderman McConomy. Kenyon pleaded guilty, as he desired to go to Reading to-day, and his fine of $5 and costs were promply paid by Mr. G. W. Vogle, the boss of the brigade. The Sells agents state that their men received orders not to cover the paper of the other circus. The Batcheller & Doris men say that upon going to the country to-day they found stands of their bills which had been covered by the Sells men. At one place they covered a stand during the absence of a farmer whom the Batch eller & Doris people had paid for the Hearing of Tramps. The tramps who were charged with shooting John Brimmer, in a fight near the poor house a few evening ago, had hearings before Alderman Barr this afternoon and the case of felonious assault and battery was dismissed, and none of the men were identified. All except Thomas Harding were sent to jail for 20 days for being drunk and disorderly, Harding was discharged.

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 28, 1881.

A HIGH PULSE.

GARFIELD HAS A RELAPSE.

The Consulting Surgeons Sent For. WASHINGTON, July 23,-The following was sent this a. m. to each of the cabinet officers by the president's private secretary: EXECUTIVE MANSION, July 23 .- 8 A. M .-The slight fever which made its appearance between 8 and 10 last evening, but which subsided during the night, is not noticeable this a. m. This febrile rise was due to local and temporary causes rather than to any unfavorable change in the president's condition. He is as well now as at the same hour yesterday morning, and this taken into consideration with the fact that he did not sleep so well as on the previous night seems to indicate a gain in his favor.

The Official Hullatin. EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., July 23, 10 A. M.—The president was more restless last night, but this morning, at 7 a. m., while preparations were making to dress his wound, his temperature was found to be normal, pulse 92, temperature $\frac{124}{30}$; to dress bis morning, pulse 92, temperature $\frac{125}{30}$; toose butchers' at $\frac{11}{30}$11 50c; prime more restless last night, but this morning, 98-4, respiration 19.

At 7:39 he had slight rigor, in consequence of which the dressing of his wound was postponed. Reaction followed promptly and the dressing has now just been completed. At present his pulse is 110, temperature 101, respiration 24.

> D. W. BLISS. J. K. BARNES. J. J. WOODWARD. ROBT. REYBURN. An Unofficial Report.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D.

C., July 23—11:30 A. M.—Dr. Boyton, who just came from the president's chamber, attributes the sudden rise in the president's pulse and temperature to some obstruction in the way of a free discharge of pus from the wound. Symptoms of granulation were noticed along the track of the ball yesterday, and it is possible that this healing process, going on at some point comparatively near to the external surface of the body, has dammed up a quantity of pus in the deeper part of the wounds, and the chill and increased forces are to be there are a factorized as a factorize fever are to be thus accounted for. The discharge this morning, although perfectly normal and healthy in its character, was unusually scanty, which would seem to indicate that its flow has been in some way impeded or interrupted. The chill mentioned in the official bulletin commenced about 8 o'clock, and lasted until 9, being quite severe, the pulse running up at one time to 130. At this hour the fever is said to be gradually disappearing and the patient's condition is considered better than when the bulletin was issued.

A Later Unofficial Bulletin. EXECUTIVE MANSION, July 23-1:30 P. M.—The president's symptons at this hour are a little more favorable than at the date of the last unofficial bulletin, but his condition has not materially changed. The attending surgeons have just telegraphed Drs. Hamilton and Agnew to come to Washington at once for consultation. How Bliss Explains It.

WASHINGTON, July 23-1 P. M.-Dr. Bliss says there has been a suspension of pus and that there is probably an abscess forming. That is why Drs. Hamilton and Agnew have been sent for.

1:30 P. M .- The president has had a second chill; pulse now 125, temperature Begins to Perspire. 2 P. M .- Dr. Reyburn states that the president's fever has broken and he begins to perspire. They are still at a loss to ac account definitely for the unfavorable symptoms, but as yet they are not very alarming. More Favorable Reports. EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, July 23-2:20 P. M.-Secretaries James,

Kirkwood and Hunt, who have this mo ment come from a consultation with the physicians as yet see no cause for alarm. They attribute the president's unfavorable turn principally to a stoppage in the flow of pus, which is unaccounted for, but which may be owing to the nearness to a complete drainage of the wound. The closest watch will be kept on every symptom during the day, but no official bulletins will be issued until evening.

INDIAN OUTRAGES.

Two Americans Riddled With Bullets.

DENVER, July 23.—A special from Las Cruces, N. M., to the Sauta Fe New Mexican says: A reliable man who arrived here on the 21st reports having left the camp of Lieutenant Guilfoyle at St. Nicholas springs on the morning of the 20th, and says that Lieut. Guilfoyle on Tuesday camped at Alamo canon in the Sacramento mountains Two of his men arrived from Fort Stanton and reported that about half way between, Alamco and Fort Stanton they were ambushed by Indians, who fired upon them. The tire was returned and kept up for half an hour. One of the soldiers was wounded in the thigh and two pack animals were killed. Upon receipt of this news Lieut. Guilfoyle started in pursuit and at Lag-Unas found two Americans dead and riddled with bullets, their bodies being still warm.

A Town Burned, San Francisco, Cal, July 23 .- A dispatch from Walla Walla, Washington territory, says, that the town of Hanford was almost entirely burned down; several of the most valuable blocks in the town were destroyed; the loss is not definitely known, but is large.
