"NOT THE LEAST BIT SMART." "Come hither, you madcap darling!" I said to my four-year-old, "I say, what shall be done to the bad, bad gir

Who will not do as she's told? Too well you have your own wee way, While little you love to mind; But mamma knows what is good for you, And isn't she always kind ?"

So I told her of Casabianca, And the fearful burning ship;

"Do you think," said, I, "such a child as that His mother would have to whip ?" And my heart went out with the story sad Of this boy, so noble and brave, Who would dare not to disobey, Even his life to save.

Then her eyes grew bright as the morning, And they seemed to look me through: "Ah! ah!" thought I, you understand The lesson I have in view.

Now what do you think of this lad, my love Tell me all that is in your heart." "I fink," she said, "he was drefful good

But he wasn't the least bit smart."

The Scotch definition of metaphysics is, after all, not a bad one. "Twa men are talking together. He that's listening dinna ken what he that's speaking means; and he that's speaking dinna ken what he means himself—that's metaphysics."

Danbury, Conn., has been indulging in a new enemy of the potato, that begins at the top of the vine and eats down the centre to the bottom, destroying it entirely. It is a slender, striped worm, from onehalf to three-quarters of an inch in length. Letters from West Africa concerning Stanley's Congo expedition show that he is pushing his way toward the interior under many difficulties, cutting a road over mountains which are very steep, at an angle of sixty degrees and making very slow progress.

Vernon Duffee, ten years old, son of Charles Duffee, of South Oil City, while on a visit to his grandmother, Mrs. Maxwell, had driven some cows from the pasture to the barn, which is hung on rollers at the top, it toppled over on him, smothering him to death in the mid and water

A runner snake ran ahead of an express train on the Shenandoah Valley railroad for about a mile, and escaped the track. although the train was flying at the rate of fifty miles an hour. The snake was seen to fall dead and, says the veracious chronicler, was found to have been burned to death by the intense heat of the rail. The year of 1878 was strangely fatal to Italy. The first Italian General, La Marmora; the first king of Italy, Victor Emanuel; the first infallible Pope, Pius IX; the first astronomer, Padre Secchi, and the first international arbitrator, Sclopis, died in less than three months. Monuments to each have now been put up and are continually being multiplied.

The Philadelphia Inquirer states that maritime circles are still agitated over the Delaware pilotage law. It is thought by some that the opposition to the law will result in two sets of pilots, the pilots acting under the Delaware law to bring vessels from the Breakwater to Marcus Hook, from whence they will be brought into port by Pennsylvania pilots, and vice versa on outward-bound vessels. Secretary Windom has appointed Hon. Sherman O. Houghton, of California, and Hon. Thos. S. Young, of Ohio, as agent of the treasury department to assist General R. Alexander Ramsay, of Wisconsin, in investigating charges made by Representative Page, of California, against Superintendent Dodge of the San Fran cisco mint. All these gentlemen are now in California and will begin the investigation this week. As a flock of sheep, about one hundred in number, were being driven down Michigan avenue, Chicago, one of them took a notion to shade and rest in a shop on that thoroughfare. It is a well-known trait of these animals that where one goes the others will follow, and "in two shakes of a lamb's tail" the whole drove was in the store. Several clerks were knocked over and some damage done before they could be started out again; then they knocked over a horse standing in front, and every leg of mutton in the lot jumped over him before he could get up.

An Ohio man has solved the problem of gun shot wounds in the liver, judging from the following taken from the Boston Transcript: A man supremely blest has been found at last. It is unnecessary to say he is from Ohio. He is liverless. A man without a liver! Think of the immunities from pills and potions and pads involved in this freedom from liver bondage. There should be started a company for the disintegration of the liver among the long suffering people of America. Shares could be sold at a premium at the very start. Too long has King Liver reigned over us. Away with him! Factory Facts. Close confinement, careful attention to all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidneys and uripoor blood, inactive liver, kidneys and uri-nary troubles, and all the physicians and med-icine in the world cannot help them unless they get out doors, use Hop Bitters, made of the purest and best remedies, and especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy checks in them. None need suffer if they use them freely. They cost but a trifle. See another column.
