The Columbia Baptist church, white, held recognition services in the Odd Fellow's hall, yesterday afternoon and evening, their hall, the Vigilant fire company meeting room, being too small. In the evening members of the colored Baptist church attended in a body. A large num-ber of high officers of the Baptist fraternity from different states were also present. Last evening the neighbors of Mr. Samuel Filbert were startled by the report that Mr. F.'s youngest son, Burke Filbert, had disappeared. A search was immediately instituted and the missing one was found at the river shore in company with a number of other small boys, they having gone there to see the arrival and departure of the tug steamer "Wrights-

Some time last night the house of Mr. S. Vache was broken into and a number of things stolen, among which were a large quantity of victuals and a blue shirt. The robber or robbers effected an entrance by cutting a pane of glass out of the kitchen window, undoing the fastening, and then raising the window. Mr. Vache was compelled to go to market this morning and purchase eatables for their breakfast. This is the third robbery that has occurred within the past week, and yet no clue has Brady on the track, and if he cannot catch them no one can.

A Human Jaw Bone.

As the clay dug from the ground where the new 5th street school house is being erected, was emptied at the Supplee works where it is used in the moulding shops, the lower jaw of a human being was found and is now at the works for inspection. When found all the teeth were in except two back ones, but with the exception of five all the rest have fallen out. Many was a man or woman; white, black, Indian. Walter F. Rogers, of this city, son of late Dr. Rogers, formerly of Ohio, has been appointed to the position of third assistant in the United States patent office, Washington, with a salary of $1,400. Mr. Rogers is a young man of only 20 years, and without possessing the educational advantages of more favored young men, educated himself by close application to study during leisure hours, alternately teaching school and attending school at the Millersville normal. MILES FITE, LAMPLIGHTER.

How the New Street Lamp Lighting Works Our citizens have now had nearly a month's experience with the new system of lighting the street lamps with gasoline. There are some five hundred of them in all and the total cost will be somewhere about $12,000 per annum, a good deal less. it is estimated, than it would have cost the city to have accepted the bid of the gas company, even if it had been a bid in conformity with the proposals and the city ordinances. Enough time has elapsed to see whether the experiment of gasoline lighting is a step backward, a failure, and whether it justifies the croakings of the wiseacres who declared that unless the Gas Monopoly had its own way our peo ple would have to grope in darkness. The question is : " Have the gasoline lamps been a failure ?" We fancy not.

We hear no complaints. To be sure, it is midsummer. nights are short and not very dark. the other hand a great many people are out late, driving and walking.

There are no complaints of lamps not being lighted, of glasses being dirty, of irregular hours of lighting and of lamps burning long after daylight. It is plain therefore that much of the success of the new system depends upon the satisfactory manner in which the lamp lighters do their duty. This is as pleasing to the citizens as it is profitable to their employee the contractor.

Of the 500 lamps to be kept clean, trimmed and burning at the right time, Miles Fite has charge of 120; Henry Leonard, 90; Wm. Lewars, 60; Adam Ditlow, 50; Frederick Shroad, 80; B. F. Breneman, 50 and Henry Rogers 50. They get 2 cents a lamp, per diem, and they do their duty. A representative of the Intelligences. who yesterday interviewed Fite, the heaviest of these sub-contractors, was informed by him that his wages amount to $72 a month-that is $60 for each of the 120 lamps. He has to have an assistant, of course, James Ritchie, pays $30 a month - and he does his work. It takes them from 6 to 8 in the evening to light the lamps, and the calculation is that they shall burn themselves out, being supplied with about enough oil to last until 4:30 in the morning. For this it requires for these 120 lamps 35 gallons of oil-over a quart apiece. In the winter, when they will be lighted carlier and burn later, they will each take about three pints or 45 gallons a day. The lamps are cleaned daily. On this mission they start out very early, and if they get to the lamps to turn them out, they are less trouble to clean than if the wick flickers out. By noon they are generally through with the cleaning. The wicks do not require very frequent refurnishing, and are gradually replaced-eight or ten at a time.

Miles tends to all the lights in the square and is proud of them. He keeps about a dozen barrels of gasoline on hand at a time and has it well protected in a shed built for the purpose on his premises. When he first came to town he had a good deal of a wrestle of it to get along. But his back pension bought him a home and his $42 month clear from the lamp lighting, and $8 a month pension, enable him to get

Industry and frugality are sure to win. LAMP EXPLOSION.

Au Old Lady Dangerously Burned. This morning before daybreak Mrs. Catherine Powell, an aged lady residing at the corner of South Lime and Middle vesterday afternoon. He was working at streets, was very seriously burned by the a hoisting crane lowering a bed plate, when his fingers were caught in the cogs, that she arose from her bed, lit the lamp, resulting in the above mishap. William dressed herself and without any apparent Bahn also an employee in the above works | cause the lamp suddenly exploded, throwing the burning oil in all directions, setting fire to her clothing and also to the bed and bed clothing. The report of the exploded lamp and the screams of Mrs. Powell aroused her daughter, Mrs. Jacob S. Duchman, who occupied an adjoining room. Mrs. Duchman being unable to put out the fire ran to her brother, John W. Powell, who lives within a door or two of his mother's residence and aroused him. He was in the burning room in a moment, nearly naked, having in his hand a bucket of water. The room was so guest of Miss Lillie Wilson; Mr. Morris filled with smoke from the burning bed and clothing, and in the darkness unable to see his mother, and supposing her to be in the bed, he stumbled over her as she lay on the floor, and fortunately spilled the bucket of water over her. Mrs. Powell, to save herself, had thrown a blanket around her burning person, and lay down upon the floor. Mr. Powell, as soon as possible tore the clothing from his mother's body, carried her to a place of safety and fought the flames in her bed room, being badly burned about the hands and arms before he succeeded in quenching them. Several doctors were sent for been found to the robber. Put Detective to attend Mrs. Powell, and Dr. Compton was the first to arrive. He found the old lady terribly burned about the face, arms and body, one of her shoulders being burned almost to a crisp. The usual remedies were applied and it is thought Mrs. Powell may recover if she has not inhaled the flame; but her advanced ago is very much against her, she being about 75 years old.

Another Firm Victimized. A letter received in this city from Wm. Smith & Co., of York, states that they opinions were expressed as to whether it have been made the victims of a transaction something like that which A. B. Pottor, recently arrested in this city, played upon unsuspecting merchants in Pittsburgh and elsewhere. The man who shut up the eyes of Smith & Co., is described John Weymer, John Newcomer and as being 5 feet 9 inches in height, with dark eyes, dark hair, dark complexion and weighing about 160 pounds. He represented himself as an agent of a Philadelphia house, and, hearing of the excellence of Smith & Co.'s flavoring extracts proposed to sell them in connection with his other business. He told them they few. The reason is given that they read would run no risk as he would merely take the orders and they could collect the money. He sent them a few bona fide orders on which they collected the money. and then sent them a number of bogus orders, and, probably, lifted the goods from the express offices to which they were sent. At all events Smith & Co., have heard nothing either of their agent or their goods.

Fisherman's Luck. Wm. F. Shultz, tobacco packer, fished for bass yesterday, in the Susquehanna, below Wrightsville, and returned to Laucaster last evening with 32 fine specimens of the favorite game fish. Yesterday David Warfel, assistant county treasurer, went fishing to Columoia and caught 37 tine large bass, besides number of cels and one cat fish. Judge Patterson, A. F. Shenck, esq., Al. Rosenstein and Julius Levy, of this city, caught seventeen bass at Columbia. yesterday. The judge and Mr. Shenck went to Columbia to-day to try their luck.

THE LANDISVILLE CAMP MEETING.

The Religious Exercises Fairly Begun. The first services at the camp meeting were held last evening when Rev. Mr. Rakestraw of Downingtown, preached an eloquent sermon from I Thes. v. Chap-16, 17 and 18.

This morning at 6 o'clock early prayer meeting was held in the tabernacle by Rev. J. M. Wheeler, of Millersville. At 8 o'clock another prayer meeting was held which was conducted by Rev. W. C. Robinson of the Duke street M. E. church of Lancaster.

At 10 o'clock the usual services were held. The sermon was preached by Rev. George W. McLaughlin, corresponding secretary of the Pennsylvania Seamen's Friend society of Philadelphia. His text was Psalms xci. 1st verse.

This afternoon a childrens' meeting was held at 1:30 and the sermon at 3 o'clock was preached by Rev. Mr. Urban, of Steelton, Dauphin county.

All trains running to Landisville bring new arrivals and the crowd is increasing very fast. Among the clergy on the ground are the following: Revs. J. Dickerson, presiding elder of the West Philadelphia district, G. W. McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, H. Wheeler, Columbia ; J. L. Urban, Steelton; Rhodes, Mt. Joy; C. G. Rake straw, Downingtown: W. C. Robinson, Laucaster; J. N. Wheeler, Millersville R. W. McIlvaine, Lancater. Rev. J. A. Roach, of New York, and Rev. Mr. Hamlin, of Chambersburg, are expected to be on the ground and preach sermons on

A Pleasant Affair. Last evening a very pleasant affair took place at the cottage of Henry Shubert, of this city. As stated yesterday Mr. Shubert celebrated his 62d birthday. In the evening his friends, to the number of about seventy-five, gathered at the cottage. Speeches of congratulation were made by Revs. Robinson, of Lancaster, and Wheeler, of Millersville. Mr. Shubert was taken by surprise, as he knew nothing about the affair. He recovered sufficiently to make a short speech, thanking his friends for the pleasant occasion. After a number of hymns were sung, the party adjourned, wishing Mr. Shubert many more pleasant birtidays.

They Paid It. This afternoon there was to have been a hearing before Alderman Samson, in the case of Coroner Mishler against the county commissioners. Sometime ago the coro ner held an inquest on the body of a boy named Henricci, who was found floating in the Conestoga. When the coroner presented his bill he also sent in that of the undertaker and others, for services rendered. The commissioners at the time refused to pay the bill. This afternoon they sent word to the alderman that they would pay the whole bill and the ease did not come to a hearing

One of Squire Bickham's Writs. "Fr. Bickham," must have been a justice around these parts in 1770; for in tearing down the old house at No. 119 South Queen street, which A. H. Reist is rebuilding, was found this morning a warrant dated March 1, 1770 from this squire, directing the constable to bring before him M. Hesslet to answer Michael Haverstake's suit for £2 13s 9d. The costs were 1s 9d.

The Lile Circus. Batcheller & Doris's Great Inter Ocean circus will appear here on July 29th. The show has been on the road for a number of years and it has been very successful. Its managers are well known among showmen and throughout the country. Three years ago this show appeared here, when it exhibited for 25 cents, giving the greatest satisfaction. This year they started from Philadelphia and played west. The business has been immense everywhere. Week before last they jumped into Pittsburgh, where the tents were packed for two days. The circus company includes such people as Romeo, Sebas-tian and W. J. Morgan, riders. Satsuma Japanese juggler; the Seigrist children and Russian athletes; Mlle. Zoe, the rope performer, and many others; Johnny Patterson, as the "Rambler from Clare," who also with them.

is probably the best clown traveling, is The Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette says of the show: "This truly superior organization began its engagement here vesterday, and when we say that the performances for novelty and thorough enjoyment were equal to anything of the kind ever seen here, we but voice the universal sentiment of those who attended. The menagerie is extensive and includes a rare curiosity in the way of an Egyptian Boralapus. The circus proper is of a very un ique and attractive character, the ensem-ble of artists being so praiseworthy that it would be invidious to particularize. Messrs. Batcheller & Doris's departure from the custom of late years in confining their entire circus performance in one ring seems to meet with the hearty approbation of the public as all are enabled to see without nconvenience.

The public should remember the date of this show and should not confound it. with that of Sells Brothers, who have endeavored to mislead them in regard to dates. The Batcheller & Doris show is a large one and deserves liberal patronage.

Nisgara and Watkins. The great natural wonder on this conti nent that none of its citizens should fail to see, is Niagara Falls, with its majestic surroundings. On the way thither the tourist can take in the beautiful Watkins Glen and a delightful trip by the small lakes of western New York. WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 27, 1881.

THE PRESIDENT.

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST.

GENERALLY IMPROVED CONDITION

The Early Morning Bulletin, EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, July 27-8 A. M.-Official.-The president slept sweetly last night, from about 8 p.m. to 5 a. m. with but a single break of short duration at 11 p. m. Since 5 this morning he has dozed quietly awakening at intervals. There have been no rigors. He takes his nourishment well, and his general condition is improving. He expresses himself as feeling better and more rested. Pulse 94, temperature 98.4, respiration 18. [Signed] D. W. BLISS.

J. K. BARNES, J. J. WOODWARD,

ROBT. REYBURN. In Excellent Spirits.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, July 27, 10:45 a m .- Dr. Boynton bas just come from the President's room and reports the patient in excellent spirits. He says his undisturbed sleep of last night has greatly rested him, and he has partaken of increased nourishment this morning. The favorable change is plainly visible on the countenances of the immediate attendants of the sick room, who, 'during the period of the fever which occurred subsequent to the incision, bore expressions of anxiety, and looked generally care-worn. This morning the same persons may be seen about the house bearing cheerful countenances and exhibiting an apparent air of gratification. When asked what truth there was in the statement that Mrs. Gerfield had suffered extramely from the first state of the statement that Mrs. Gerfield had suffered extramely from the first states of the statement that Mrs. Gerfield had suffered extramely from the statement from the statement that the statement that Mrs. Gerfield had suffered extramely from the statement from the statement that the statement that the statement of the statement that the statement of the statement that the statement of the statement that the statement that the statement of the statement that the statement of the statement that the statement of the statement that of the sick room, who, 'during the period Mrs. Grrfield had suffered extremely from PHILIP J. "In fact," the doctor continued, "Mrs. Garfield is feeling brighter and in better spirits this morning than at any time since she was sick. You may say that she went to ride last even ing and returned feeling refreshed, and her husband's present condition is very encouraging to her."

The Official Bulletin. EXECUTIVE MANSION, 12:30 P. M.—The president's wound was dressed just after the morning bulletin was issued. It looks well, and the pus, which is healthy in character, is discharging freely. Since then he has rested quietly, and takes his nourish ment readily and without gastric disturbance. At present his pulse is 90, temperature 98.4, respiration 18.

D. W. BLISS, [Signed.] J. K. BARNES, I. J. WOODWARD ROBT. REYBURN.

Continuing Favorable Symptoms, EXECUTIVE MANSION-2 P. M.-The very favorable symptoms noted in the last official bulletin still continue. The president is free from fever and resting quietly. Doctor Agnew returned to Philadelphia to-day, but Doctor Hamilton will take his place here to-night or to-morrow morn-

GUNNING FOR A GOVERNOR.

The Crazy Assassin in Albany. ALBANY, N. Y., July 27 .- Much excitement was created here at noon by a rumor that an attempt had been made to shoot Gov. Cornell. The particulars of the affair are as follows: About 11:30 o'clock an unknown man walked up the stoop of the old capitol, and was about to enter the building when the superintendent of the building, Thomas Hyde, noticing the strange appearance of the man, who was carrying an old-fashined on his shoulder, stopped him and asked where he was going. He re plied "I am adjutant general of this state." Hyde, judging that the man was for to medium $3 25@4 25; good to choice at crazy and fearing that some harm to the $1 50@5. state officials was intended, asked for the gun. The stranger declined to give up whereupon a desperate strugg ensued for its possession, Hyde finally se curing it. The gun proved to be unloaded The stranger, who is evidently not yet re covered from the effects of a spree, wa lodged in the second district station house He described himself as Patrick McLane, blackswith of White Hall.

P. R. R. AFFAIRS.

Progress of the Ticket War. PHILADELHHIA, July 27.—The board directors of the Penn'a railroad held meeting this afternoon. The only impor ant action taken was the confirmation of the appointment of D. W. Caldwell to be general manager of all the lines of the company west of Pittsburgh and Erie, to take effect Aug. 1st. The other appointing of the board. The general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania road has not been advised of any further change in west bound passenger rates. The rebate tickets have been placed in the hands of an agent and will be used where it is found necessary, will continue to sell tickets as low as the scalpers, and if the other roads intend to use these speculators as agents no such action will be taken by the Pennsylvania

FIRE ON CONEY ISLAND.

The "Pierrepont House" Destroyed, NEW YORK, July 26.—A fire early this morning at Brighton Beach destroyed the Pierrepont house on the ocean parkway and also the depot of the New York & Brighton Beach railroad. The Pierrepont house was a small, cheap wooden building. The depot burned was the station of the New York & Brighton Beach railway company, formerly Gunther's. This should not be confounded with the Brighton Beach hotel property, as it is situated on ocean garkway, half-a-mile distant. The total loss will not exceed $800. Several cars and a locomotive in the depet were destroyed, which will swell the aggregate loss to $35,000.
