This morning a horse ran away, and had serious was the result.

An exciting as well as disgraceful scene terday afternoon. A number of women young heads and blessing them. were lighting, and when the men attempted to stop it, the women turned, and in a body rushed upon them, and they not run. These disgraceful affairs are of daily occurrence, and the peaceful inhabitants around there are forced to witness them, among those arrested are two women who are generally the cause of all disturbances.

A Series of Robbertes. house of David Fisher, in Kitchentown, dition will warrant it. was made. The robbers climbed a grape arbor, and raising a window effected an entrance. The inmates of the house distinctly heard them, but were too badly frightened to give an alarm. One of the neighbors in passing noticed the open window and the torn arbor, and thinking all was not right, knocked at the front door, which so scared the robbers that they dropped the booty they had secured and fled, making their escape by a back door. On the same night the house of Wm. anything of value could be secured they attended to by a surgeon. were scared off.

Another but much bolder robbery was committed last night at the residence of Mr. Geo. Haldeman on Chestnut street. A ladder had been placed against the side of the house which reached the second story window. The robbers entered a room and after it was thoroughly ransacked, they descended to the dining room. Here they relieved the sideboard of all its valuable silver-plated ware. They next went to the kitchen, but as nothing of value could be found there they took their departure. In the morning one of the servants found the gas in the dining room lighted but not until the ladder was discovered was there an alarm raised. The family descended and found things in a disordered condition. No steps have as yet been taken to find the robbers. It appears that the roberries that have been committed lately, are done by a regularly organized gang, and they work in separate crowds of three. The robberies on Tuesday night were done at nearly the same time, about 1:30 a. m., showing that it is either an organized crowd or else there are more than one separate crowds. Last night one of our watchmen noticed a crowd of men, six in number, standing at Mezier's drug store. He watched them for some time, and when they walked the Vigilant house they separated, three going up Walnut street, no doubt the ones which robbed Haldeman's, and the other three coming back and going down Wilson's alley. The watchman followed them as far as Redsecker's livery stable when they disappeared. Our police force is not large enough for a town the size of Columbia, and if council does not take the matter in hand at once their mistake cannot be rectified. People on the route that Henry Rodenhauser watches feel safe, as he is always on hand when wanted. Let council put a man like Mr. R. on each square at night and these robberies will not then be committed.

Police Cases.

Yost Wendler, for drunken and disorderly conduct was yesterday committed to jail for 10 days by Alderman McConomy. The same magistrate held Mrs. Thomas Baxter and Harriet Painter to bail to answer at court a complaint made against them by John Stein, who charges them with the larceny of doors, sash and other lumber from the building belonging to him on South Prince street and recently destroyed by fire.

John A. Shober this morning made com plaint against Thomas Burns, a night boss of the Safe Harbor iron works, for drunken and disorderly conduct and for him shot. obscene, boisterous and abusive language. Alderman McConomy issued a warrant for his arrest

Alderman Barr had a largely attended levee last evening, the crowd being attracted by the hearing of the complaints of assault and battery and malicious mischief made by Susan A. THE CAMP.

The Worshipers at Landisville. At the children's meeting, just after dinner, at the Landisville campmeeting Rev. W. T. Mills of Reading, and Mrs Wheeler of Columbia, made the addresse Rev. Chas. Mervine, of New Holland, preached the 3 o'clock sermon on the text : "But God forbid that I should glory save in the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ," Gal. vi, 14. Rev. Henry Whoeler exorted and a prayer meeting concluded the service.

Rev. G. G. Rakestraw, of Downingtown, conducted a well attended prayer meeting at 6 p. m. and at 7:30 Rev. Chas. Rhoades, of Mount Joy, preached from Luke x, 27 And He answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength and with all thy mind." His audience was the largest congregation up to this out" at the Gap a few days ago, was time. The prayer meeting following, continued until 10 o'clock, when the bell sounded for retirement.

To-day was a very favorable day for the meeting, and bright and early the concourse of people were up, a good attend auce being seen at Rev. W. C. Robinson's 6 o'clock meeting, which he addressed on 'The Witness of the Spirit."

Rev. Mills conducted the meeting at 3:20 and the morning sermon was preached by J. Dickerson, presiding elder, of West Philadelphia district, from the text I John i: 7. "If we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, his son, cleanseth us from all sin,'

The want of a little rain is still felt on the grounds, but otherwise everything is favorable and auspicious for a good meeting. The attendance grows larger. Royer's accommodations for boarding are good, and also Powl's tranportation facilities.

And Then They Sped. "Hail, wedded love! thou word that sums all bliss! gives and receives all bliss !"-and much more of similar import as may be found in Pollock's "Course of Time," and in course of time, by almost anybody else who tries it on. Well they met on North Duke street (of course they had often met before) half way between Orange and Chestnut. After a brief consultation they moved on, cross-

The Big Circus To-morrow The harvest is well over and the season is so opportune for the rural folks and city stay-atmes to patronize the circus that a big influ of visitors and crowded streets may be expected to-morrow, when the united shows of Batcheller & Doris appear in this city. The company comes with the best of recommendations from the places where it has been and the people who have patronized it. It presents a variety of attractions that cannot fail to please, and some which are novel and hitherto unseen in these parts, such as the great Egyptian Bovalapus and the woman shot from a cannon, 73 teet into the air. In the personnel of its arenic stars it is especially strong, including the Royal Russian Athletes; M'lle. J. Morgan, the Noted Hurdle Rider; Prince Satsuma's Troupe of Japanese Jugglers; the intrepld Rice Brothers: the accomplished Lizzie Keyes; Tribe of Sioux Warriors; the renowned Rome Sebastian ; and above all this circus has som clowns, funnier than the jesters of the old kings, among them James Woodville and that rollicking Irish buffoon, John Patterson, first cousin of that famous " Billy " Patterson who was struck so mysteriously.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time hat I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half collar. I expendicine. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of Dr. Wn. Hall's Balsan POR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and today I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years. "I write this hoping you will publish it, so that everyone afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that conumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. IMPROVING.

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST.

THE CONDITION OF THE PRESIDENT. An Encouraging Report.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., July 28, 7 a. m .- Dr. Bliss says the president passed an excellent night, better than any since he was wounded. He slept soundly most of the night, and awoke this morning looking bright and feeling hungry. There has been a satisfactory discharge of pus during the night. His temperature this morning is apparently about normal.

The Official Report.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, July 28.—8 A. M.—The president rested well during the night, and no rigor or febrile disturbance has occurred since the bulletin of yesterday evening. This morning the improvement of his general condition is distinctly perceptible. He appears refreshed by the night's rest, and expresses himself cheerfully as to his condition. Pulse, 92; temperature 98-4; respiration, 18. [Signed,]

What Rockwell Says. EXECUTIVE MANSION, July 28, 11 a. m. -Col. Rockwell says the president is decidedly better this morning than he has been at any time since he was wounded; that at the morning dressing there was a free and healthy discharge of pus from the wound, and that that portion of the wound above the incision was observed to have commenced healing.

The surgeons, after a consultation on the subject this morning concluded that the removal of the heavy carpet which now covers the floor of the president's chamber would be beneficial; and, considering the brightness of the morning, with a perfectly fresh and dry atmosphere, together with the favorable condition of the patient, it was decided to make the change at once. The surgeons maintain that the carpet absorbs the impurities of the atmosphere which invariably exist to a more or less extent in the sick chamber and that it is a receptacle for the secretion of dust etc. The president's bed was carefully removed from his own room to a room immediately across the hall where he is now resting quietly. After the carpet of the sick chamber is taken up the floors will be carefully dusted and a fire kindled in the grate for the purpose of securing a thorough ventilation. The president will not be taken back to his chamber for several hours. For the purpose of obviatting the sounds of footsteps upon the floor strips of carpet will be placed in the most frequented parts of the room. It is considered that this arrangement will render the chamber much more refreshing to the patient, and that it will henceforth be decidedly more comfortable. Had it been practicable the surgeons say they would have ordered the change made before.

A Good Report. The attending surgeons say that the president has not looked so well since he was wounded as he does this morning, and that he is delighted with the change which Midday Official Bulletin. EXECUTIVE MANSION, 12:30 p. m.—The president bore the dressing of his wounds this morning with less fatigue than hitherto. It appears well and is discharging sufficiently. Shortly afterwards his bed was rolled into an adjoining room while that occupied till now is being thoroughly cleansed and put in order. Pulse 94, temperature 98, respiration 18.

Officious Intermedding Repudiated CHICAGO, July 28.—A special to the Times from the City of Mexico says: 'The government has information that unauthorized parties in the United States and England are endeavoring to form a syndicate to readjust the national debt held in England. The scheme is a private speculation and is repudiated by the president and secretary of the treasury. Nobody has been authorized to make any arrangements. The question will be considered by the government at an early date through official delegates, when satisfactory arangements will be made."

THE RAILROAD PRESIDENTS.

Discussing Terrapin and Pomery Sec. PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—Owing to the fact that President Roberts of the Penn sylvania railroad had been invited by Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt to dine with him at the Union League, a rumor gained currency to the effect that a conference was to be held looking toward a settlement of the dispute over the trunk line passenger and freight rates. 'It is now stated upon good authority that there is no truth in this rumor, and that the meeting is entirely of a social charreter.
