COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Engine No. 102. of the Pennsylvania railroad played out this morning, and was sent to the shops for repairs.

Yesterday afternoon the one-year old son, Master Freddy, of Mr. Fred. Brink, died of bowel camplaint.

Tickets for the Lancaster excursion to Atlantic City, on August 18th, can now be bought either at Richards's book store, Rumble's tobacco store, or at the Pennsylvania railroad depot. For the round trip only $3-good for three days. This morning three well-dressed tramps were arrested for disorderly conduct, had a hearing before Squire Young, and as the complainant did not put in his appearance they were discharged for want of evidence.

Some of the machinery on the dredging machine, which is dredging the coal chutcs, broke yesterday, and the men were compelled to quit work, but, if possible, they will begin again to day. The excursions to Pine Grove and Atlantic City left here at 7:00 and 7:30, respectively. A large number of Columbians accompanied both, and as the day is fice they will have a pleasant time. Again the "coffee mill squeezer" of the Shawnee rolling mill has broken. This is the third time since it was erected, about a month ago, but this time it is so badly broken that it will not go in use again for two or three weeks.

Miss Minnie Gillman, left town to-day for, a three weeks visit in Lebanon. Miss Annie and Charlie Gull, who for the past few weeks have been visiting Miss Mame Shomier, returned to their home in Philadelphia last evening. Morris and Beverly Glover, of Harrisburg were in town yesterday.

On Saturday evening, August 13, the Ladies' Church Aid society of the St. John's Lutheran church will hold a festival at the residence of Mr. C. P. Shreiner on Locust street. All the delicacies of the season will be for sale, the proceeds going to the church fund for their new church, which is now a state of erection.

The Citizens' band, as'expected, went to Marietta last evening and serenaded several of the citizens of that borough, among whom were Col. James Duffy, Col. Thomas Scott, Capt. D. B. Case and Mr. John Young. To the latter named gentle-men the band returned their warmest thanks for his kind reception which they assure him will be long remembered. About 12:30 a. m. they started for home reaching here a little after one o'clock.

In one of the Western papers there was an appouncement that a Mr. Alex Me Manus had been killed, and as Columbia had a young man by that name who went West some three months ago, they all thought it was he. His parents, who live on Walnut street, telegraphed to where he had last been and received an answer from Alex himself, saying that it was an other man, but who had the same name as himself had been killed. This was a great relief to his parents when they found that their son was still in the land of the living and was doing finely. This will in-terest a number of Columbians, especially those who are still under the impression that Columbia's Alex McManus is dead.

The Worshippers at Landisville. At the missionary meeting in the tabernacle yesterday afternoon there was an election of officers; and at 3 p. m. Rev. John Stringer, of Strasburg, preached from Philippians iii., 13. "But this one thing I do.'

THE CAMP.

At 6 p. m. Prof. Kirkpatrick conducted a well attended service of song. At 7 p. m. Rev. Dr. Holmes, of Pittsburgh, read hymn No. 569, "When I Can Read My Title Clear." Rev. W. C. Robiuson read the 1st Psalm. There was a short period of silent prayer, after which the sermon of the evening, an able discourse, was delivcred by Dr. Holmes who preached from St. Luke, xx. 10, "Rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Dr. Holmes was followed with and exhortation by Rev. Rakestraw. The meetings were well attended despite the hot hot weather.

This morning was the warmest of the season, and the exercises were attended with special interest because it is the last day of the meeting, and to-day, with the usual ceremony, the final services will take place.

Left Town.

Mr. John A. Snyder and wife have gone o Atlantic City for a season. Mr. Henry E. Johnston and family, of Wheatland, have gone to the Elberon, Long Branch.

A Valuable Farm.

The farm of the late James Barnes, deceased, of Drumore township, advertised for private sale in the WEEKLY INTELLI-GENCER, is one of the most valuable and desirable in the lower end of Lancaster county. Its situation is especially desirable, being within casy reach of both the Quarryville and Oxford railroad lines, opening its pro-ducts to the competition of Philadelphia and Baltimore markets. It most beautifully toward the slopes its land is in a high state south. of cultivation, its improvements modern, complete and well kept up, and its productiveness proved by an invariable succession of good crops. Its wheat and tobacco are always unrivalled in the neighborhood. Those who have known it for years, persons from a distance who want to make an investment in Lancaster county lands, or our ap country farmers who are looking for cheaper farms down the county will find a bonanza in the Barnes place.

THIRD EDITION. THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 4, 1881. STILL SATISFACTORY. THE CONDITION OF THE PRESIDENT.

This Morning's Official Bulletin. EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 4, 8:30 a. m.-The president continues to improve. He slept well during the night, and this morning looks and expresses himself cheerfully.' Another satisfactory day is anticipated. At present his pulse is 90 ; temperature 98. 4 ; respiration 18. The next bulletin will be issued this evening, and hereafter the noon bulletin will be dispensed with.

Better Than at Any Time Yet.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Aug. 4, 12:30 p. m .- Unofficial Bulletin .- Dr. Bliss authorizes the statement that the president is having an excellent day. The 12:30 examination has just been made, with the following result. Pulse 96 ; temperature and respiration normal. The patient continues to take increasing quantities of nourishment, and is daily gaining in strength. All reports of unfaverable changes should be discredited, unless they have official authentication. The president's condition at this hour'is better than at any time since his injury. Dr. Hamilton's Views.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 4.-In couversation on the president's condition about eleven o'clock this morning Dr. Hamilton discussed the situation quite freely and expressed the opinion that President Garfield was progressing towards recovery in a very satisfactory manner. In reply to the direct question. " Do you think the president will recover ?" the doc tor said "I have no doubt whatever of his ultimate recovery." Dr. Hamilton also the principal entrance of the Vatican wo expressed the opinion that there was no malaria in the patient's system. In response to interrogatories relative to mov- and tabards. They had ing the patient from the executive mansion breast plates and wore holmets with flowthe doctor said that nothing could yet be determined upon, as the president was in determined upon, as the president was in no condition to be moved. Mackey." Some remark was made in regard to the magnificence of Mr. Macky's style of living and travel abroad.

"Oh, that's all a mistake," said Mr. Florence. " Mr. Mackey is a plain American citizen, and he hates anything like parade or ostentation. I know that such reports about him annoy him very much. He loves this country, all his feelings and interests are here, and he is not the man to do anything unbecoming a citizen of the republic. We traveled in simple style to do anything unbecoming a citizen of the republic. We traveled in simple style like anybody else. Some of the Italian papers herakled him as the richest man in the world, and sometimes we would find erowds at the stations waiting to see him. But we would get past without attracting their attention, and be gone while they were still looking for him. His style of living in Paris is that of a wealthy gentleman, and Mrs. Mackey's entertainmeuts are magnificent, but there is nothing ostenta-tions about them. His equiprees have tious about them. His equipages have nothing about them to attract attention : His livery is a quiet, dark green, and there is nothing that looks like parade.

"Did you have an audience with the Pope ?" "Indeed we did. That is one of the monial audience extended to Mr. Mackey and myself, and we had fifteen or twenty minutes' talk with the Pope."

On being pressed for details, Mr. Florence said : "We first received a large card of invitation, and at the appointed time Monseigneur Cataldi, the master of ceremonies at the Vatican, called for us. Last evening two well known young Columbia gentlemen rode on horseback to the Landisville campmeeting. When entering the grounds they saw a number of country louts insulting two ladies also from Columbia. They immediately put the scamps to flight, who in a short time returned in company with about twenty of their fellow countrymen. Some of them carried clubs in their hands while others had large stones. The Columbia boys tried to pacify them, as they knew it was no use attempting to light such large odds. After considerable talking they left, grumbling as they did so. They were even so cowardly as to "lie in wait" for our two young men as they rode home, and had it not been for the speed of their horses, they would have got such a whipping they would long remember.

He acknowledges that he was in Mrs. Rutter's house, but denies having committed the offence charged against him. Albright declares he was not in the house nor on the side of the street on which Mrs. Rutter lives, and in this statement he is corroborated by Mr. Wright. The accused will have a hearing before Alderman Donnelly at 4 this afternoon.

Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a lit-tle occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-fit to the doctor.—A Pragman Paysectaw. train.
