Lancaster Intelligencer.

MONDAY EVENING, AUG. 15, 1881.

THE PHANTOM OK. Cornhill Magazine (in Norway it is a superstition among the easante that a spectre in the form of a white ox glides through villages and farms, and that any person on whom he breathes will at once sicken and die.]

What frightens you in from your play my

Your cheeks are as white as snow. Your lips are pale and your eyes are wild; Oh, why do you tremble so "" Dear mother, while I was wading the brook

For illies along the brink, A ghostly ox, with a deathly look, Came down to the stream to drink.

The creature was not of flesh and bones, But paler than crystal glass:

I saw through his body the trees, and stones And mosses, and meadow-grass. "He wander'd round, and, wherever he went, He stepp'd with so light a tread, No harebell under his hoof was bent,

No violet bow'd its head. "He cast no shadow upon the ground, No image upon the stream :

His lowing was fainter than any sound That ever was heard in a dream. "I quiver'd and quaked in every limb!

I knew not whither to flee: The further away I shrank from him. The nearer he came to me. "My handful of lilies he sniff'd and smelt :

His horns, as they touch'd me softly, felt Like icicles to my flesh. " I shiver'd with cold, I burn'd with flame,

His breath was chilly and fresh;

I call'd upon God and man; But nobody heard, and nobody came, And then I started and ran.

"I rush'd through the water, across the brook. And high on the shelving shore I stopp'd and ventured to turn and look, In hope to see him no more.

"He walk'd in my wake on the top of the floor And tollow'd me up up the bank! A blast from his nostrils froze my blood!

My spirit within me sank. "I hid in the reeds, on mother dear, But swift as a whiff of air He tollow'd me there! He follows me here!

He follows me everywhere! "Oh, frown at him, frighten him, drive him away : He's coming in at the door !"

And down fell the lad in a swoon, and lay At his mother's feet on the floor. The mother look'd round her, dazed and dumb

She saw but the empty air, Yet knew, if the phantom ox had come, The shadow of death was there. She caught the pallid boy to her breast.

And pillow'd him on his bed; The white-eyed moon kept watch in the west The beautiful child lay dead. THEODORE TILTON.

Tobacco Market.

Seed Leaf and Havana for the Week End-ing saturday, August 13, 10 A. M. United States Tobacco Journal.

Though our market wore a dreary as pect, a very satisfactory business was done. Exporters were busy looking at low grades '80 crops, regardless of their names and looks. Their offers vacillated between 4 and 7 cents. They succeeded in getting 2,000 cases of 1880 Ohio at from 51 to 61 cents. From what we learn, it is reasonably certain that many more such sales will be made shortly. As long as holders are willing to unload at such figures, exporters will purchase.

Two small packings of '80 Pennsylvania were sold to manufacturers, the prices being quoted at 15 to 18 cents. A good deal of low '80 Pennsylvania is being offered in the market at from 12 to 14 cents, but no sales are reported. Good '80 Pennsylvania stock sells easily if offered at reasonable prices. Of '79 stock we hear of nearly 800 cases (including one exten sive sale of 400 cases, made at the close of last week's market). The '78 crop is rapidly leaving the market, and when sampling of '80 tobacco begins, it is expected the last will be seen of that memorable crep. Business prospects continue most excellent.

Leaf. Seed Leaf-Trade in eigar leaf continues improving and bears upon its face all that is encouraging. New leaf appears to meet the expectations of all parties, so that you may expect that splendid results will follow the balancing of leaf dealers' books at the first of the new year. Last Year's Business.

There were returned for taxation in the past fiscal year 2,682,620,797 cigars and cheroots—the cheroots being so few in number as not to be worth considering by themselves. Of the cigars on which taxes were paid, about 45,000,000 were im ported, leaving 2,637,620,797 of domestic production. The practice of the office of internal revenue is to allow 25 pounds of reweighed or sweated leaf to each thousand cigars in accounting with cigar manfacturers, and accepting this number as a measure, it will be seen that-subject to deductions now to be mentioned-last year's domestic cigars embraced 65,940,-519 pounds of seed leaf, equal to 188,401 cases of 350 pounds each. In their manufacture about 8,000,000 pounds of Havana and 2,000 000 pounds Sumatra and other kinds of tobacco were involved, which deducting, an appropriation of 55,940,519 pounds, or 159,830 cases, is shown.

In the period under consideration 567, 386,982 cigarettes and 47,554,876 pounds of smoking tobacco were made. The cigarettes, at five pounds of leaf per thousand, required 2,636,934 pounds, whereof one-fourth, or 709,253 pounds, or 2,026 cases, was seed leaf. Of the smoking tobacco one-fourth, or 11,888,719 pounds, equal to 33,967 cases, was also composed

Tobacco-Growing in Lycomiug and Clinton

Jersey Shore, of 1,400 inhabitants, is the centre of the tobacco-growing districts of Lycoming and Clinton counties, which lie in the pich valley of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, and this industry is increasing in importance each year. Tobacco was raised in this valley fifty years ago, but it is only in the past few years that so much attention has been paid to it. Last year over 2,000,000 pounds were raised, and sold for good prices, and this year the yield will reach nearly 4,000,000 pounds. The estimate is made from the number of acres now under cultivation in the two counties of Clinton and Lycoming. In the former two townships only are noted for the quantity of tobacco raised-Pine Creek and Wayne. A careful canvass shows that 298 acres are planted in the former, and 120 in the latter. A partial canvass in Lycoming shows that Nippenos township has 116 acres, Pratt 71, Porter 231, and Mifflin 20, a total of 857 acres in the six portions of the crop, as in other sections of Pennsylvania, have suffered for want of rain, and have a stunted appearance. Where replanting was made necessary by the ravages of the cut worm, the plants are so small that it is doubtful if they will mature in time to escape the early frosts. The recent rains, covering the whole dis-trict, have done incalculable good, and as the growers are doing all in their power to aid in the good work, even putting manure about the roots of the backward plants, in order to stimulate them, the prospects for a good crop are first rate.

If the growers in this little district con tinue to be successful, there is little doubt that in a few years the farmers in the whole valley of the west branch, from Northumberland to Lock Haven, a distance of sixty miles, will embark in the culture of tobacco, for the soil is pe-culiarly adapted to the raising of this

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

I am a Paptist minister, and before I ever I am a Eaptist minister, and before I even thought of being a clergyman, I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present, 40 years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy; "Thomas' Eelectric Oil cured me." I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eelectric Oil always relieved me. My wite and child had diphtheria, and "Thomas' Eelectric Oil cured them," and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold or cough, and it any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice that twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarrh. For deafness and carache it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever telt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Eelectric Oil.

MEDICAL. DEIGART'S OLD WINE STORE. Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those affects of the statement Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we pre-sent to the favorable notice of invalids—espe-cially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly, A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young triend, H E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandles no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or ascs. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we hard-working farmer had been afflicus

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, Reigart's Old Brandy,
In his case, he looked up with astonishmen, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquamtances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which hetchose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Pakotisine Paysician.
