

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Company C will leave on the 8:10 p. m. train for Westboro, where they will camp a week in camp.

P. R. R. shifter No. 441 jumped the rails on the C. & P. D. railroad, caused by a defective switch, on Saturday afternoon. Engine No. 870 pulled it back again on the track. The only damage done was a bent wedge bolt.

A new water pipe is being laid on Walnut street below Fourth. Two young men were driving a steer to C. T. Swartz's slaughter house this morning, it became frightened and created an excitement on Third street.

Dr. E. W. Goerke, accompanied by his family and Charles E. Wam, left for Pocomoke City, Md., this morning at 7:30. They will remain on the Peninsula railroad.

Jesse Briner a young lad living on Union street, fell from a fence last evening and broke his leg. He was taken to the hospital on Saturday night. Whisky was the principal cause of the disturbance. They were generally bloodless, yet very wordy.

Several larks filled with the colored population of Marietta, Maytown and Mt. Joy passed through Columbia on their way to attend the campmeeting at Mountville. A large number of Columbians also attended the camp yesterday.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred Abendschein were surprised with a handsome pair of gold gloves by the members of the Conestoga Lodge, No. 463 K. of P., on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of their wedding.

Mary McGee, a tramp, was arrested on Sunday night by Officer Keech for drunken and disorderly conduct and placed in the lockup. She had a hearing this morning before Squire Young, who committed her to jail for ten days.

The boat party which went to Wrightsville on Saturday evening had an enjoyable time, and literally speaking took possession of the ice cream saloon. On Saturday evening two couples hired a boat to go to Wrightsville, but before they were a hundred yards from shore the boat began filling with water.

Miss Annie Chalant, daughter of Daniel Chalant, borough supervisor, aged 18 years, died at her residence on 5th street on Saturday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock, after a brief illness, from typhoid pneumonia. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

John Baker, working for E. Beck, shoemaker, fell out of a second story brick window on Sunday at 2 a. m. It appears that he had entered the house rather late and before undressing sat on the window sill smoking a pipe. Going to sleep he fell out of the window, and his leg striking a wire clothes line cut a severe gash.

THE SUABIAN.

GRAND VOLKS FEST AT WHAT GLEN. Large Attendance—Good Music—Good Beer—Rare Sport.

The second grand annual festival of the Constatler Volks-Fest Verein of this city commenced at What Glen park this morning and will be continued all of to-day and to-morrow.

The "Swopes" rendezvoused at Wochle's Tremont house this morning at 8 o'clock, and fifteen or twenty omnibuses and wagons and carriages of all descriptions moved in procession to the park.

A large delegation is present from York, an excursion having been organized by the Harmonia Mennerchor of that borough. The excursion train brought over nearly 300 passengers, of whom about 60 were members of the Harmonia Mennerchor, whom were accompanied by the Buckleaw band.

Delegations are also present from Columbia, Marietta and other towns in this county, and from Reading, Harrisburg Philadelphia and other distant cities.

The sports consist of various kinds of games, both for adults and children of both sexes. There will be a comical speech, a laughing machine, a Punch and Judy show, concerts and dances, a Suabian village wedding, and many other interesting amusements.

The managers have laid in an immense amount of provisions, both solid and liquid, for the comfort of the inner man, and no one who attends need come home hungry or thirsty, if he has a little odd change in his pocket.

An attractive part of the fest is the grand column erected in the park, decorated handsomely and profusely with the fruits of the earth.

Omnibuses leave for the grounds all hours of the day.

The Old Maid Dr. Our obituary column records the death of Miss Jane Downing, a maiden lady, long resident on North Queen street, who was highly esteemed by all who knew her.
