Now that Jas. P. Marsh, of the Gap, has withdrawn as a candidate for auditor, Chief Burgess George W. Roberts, of Washington borough, will allow his name to go before the convention on Wednesday Mr. Roberts is a young man of sober and industrious habits, and a g5od accountant.

Messrs. W. H. Moore and C. C. Kauff man, while out rowing in their new boat a few evenings ago, took an involuntary bath in the Susqehanna, giving them a good ducking and spoiling their new rigs which they have just purchased, and look so well. Although they are embryo oarsmen, yet they handle their new craft with great dexterity, and visitors along the river shore can often see it skimming over the water like a sea-gull.

SAFE HARBOK. Down the River Items.

The water is so low that the raft channel can be crossed at half a dozen places, dry Eisherman are catching comparatively few bass, although the catties are plenty. The corn crop is very good-considering the long dry spell-and tobacco is more than fair, quite a large crop being harvested this season. Lancasterians are frequent visitors to this and points below, and generally have good sport, although they do not always bag large lots of game or fish. There were three or four parties on a fishing trip this week, two of them having representatives from the INTELLIGENCER with them. They appeared to enjoy themselves. Mundorf's, or Capt. Sitting on the porch that evening with half a dozen tobacco men about him, Jack said: "Talk about tobacco, the crop this year is the best ever raised on this island and the best in this section. Bill, go down in the patch and bring up a leaf or two till we see them. Bill soon returned with half a dozen leaves as fine as could be found anywhere. "You see," said Capt. Jack, "there is not a fleabite, a grasshopper cut or a burn on any of these. They are as fine as silk, but maybe they are not a large as some A rule produced showed that three of the six were 42 inches long with corresponding width, while the others were about 37 and 38. These leaves were pulled about dusk and no special selections were made

Some time during last night thieves broke into the blacksmith shop of R. S. Oster, on Water street, between Walnut and Lemon, and stole therefrom a crowbar and perhaps a few other tools. It is supposed the tools were stolen to enable the the manufactory of microscopical instruments, situated on North Cherry street, between James and Frederick streets, was broken into last night, the thieves gaining an entrance by breaking off the hasp of the door of the outside stairway leading to the second story of the factory. A number of bottles of chemicals were lifted out of a closet and placed upon a bench by the thieves, who seem to have accidentally upset a workbench, and to have been scared off by the noise thus made. They left behind them a crowbar that answers the description of the one stolen from Oster's shop, though it has not yet been identi-

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

Woman and Child Injured. This morning about 11 o'clock as Mrs Snyder residing at No. 529 West Chestnut, in company with her infant child and near Dillerville, the horse attached to the carriage, took fright at an approaching train of cars, and ran off. The carciage came in collision with some cars sores, ulcers, salt rheum, tetter, chapped hands, standing on a siding and was upset, throwing out the occupants, badly injuring Mrs. Snyder, who suffered a very severe sprain of the right wrist, and had besides a deep cut and a bad sprain of the right ankle. The babe was also a good deal cut about the head and face. The other boy escaped with slight injury. Dr. Yeagley was sent for and attended to the wounds of the A Good Angel's Visit-A Tale of "Rosabarty, after which they were taken to their

After September 1, too, the delinquent water rents will have to be put into the alderman's hauds for collection. Water consumers will avoid annoyance and expense by preventing this necessity with Store, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

Climbing a Flag Staff.

The rope that passes over the pulley on the top of the flag staff on the INTELLI-GENCER building having been pulled through the pulley, Taylor Dixon and Jacob Hotz, the well-known telegraph repairsmen, climbed the pole this morning and made the necessary repairs-Dixon going to the very top of the slender stick, on the corner of the roof four stories above the pavement, with as much confidence as if he were on terra firma.

A Sweet Gutter. About noon to-day, a large freight wagon with a hogshead of molasses in it, was being moved in front of Dice & Lawrence's grocery, on South Queen street. The end gate was out of the wagon and the hogshead fell out into the gutter. The end was broken out, and nearly all the molasses was spilled into the gutter, much to the amusement of the small boys and 1,000,000 flies that were in the neighborhood.
