COUNT. Surety of the Peace Cases.

Before Judge Patterson on Saturday af ternoon were heard the remnant of the August sessions surety of the peace and Elmer Holzinger, having threatened t " bust the head" and " mash the mouth' dered to pay the costs and give bail in $100 to keep the peace. He did it. John II. Steiger, the well-known cab man, was arraigned for disertion of and failure to support his wife. Mary Szeiger, daughter of Sabastian Grau, who accompanied by two pretty little girls, appeared and told her story of the descrtion and failure to support. Mr. Steiger told a counter story of willingness to support given his wife, whose harsh dismissal of here and the Rocky mountains." him from the house and numerous acts of cruelty and unkindness-corroborated by other witnesses-were the cause of his quitting his home; he was willing any time to support his family and live with his wife, if she acted as a wife should. The court seemed to think they should live together, but Mrs. Mary shook her head obdurately and the case went over to November.

In the interest of common decency the complaint of Aaron Baumgardner's wife against him for surety of the peace was continued until October.

Mrs. Ellen Shell, prosecutrix, told a dreadful story of the white-livered and black-livered nasty names that Mrs. Mary Young and Mrs. Francis Jackson, sisters, and both colored, called her. They denied it and told a story of like usings at the tongue of Ellen. Witness Thomas King held the balance of power and he so cast it that the court adjudged that Ellen Shell should pay the costs in the case against Mary Young, and Francis Jackson should stated. Only three passengers were inpay the costs in the prosecution against her, and both behave better hereafter. Court adjourned.

Court of Common Pleas. The second week of common pleas court began this morning with Judge Patterson on the bench. Of the thirty cases down on the list about sixteen are ready for Verdicts were taken in the following cases, which were actions for damages and grew out of the disaster on the Pickering

Valley railroad in October 1877: Matthias Anderson, vs. the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company. Verdicts in favor of the plaintiff for $2,500. Hosea Moses, vs. the same. Verdict in layor of the plaintiff for $250. Hosea Moses and Mary his wife, in right of said Mary Moses, vs. the same. for plaintiff for $500. The following cases were marked settled:

The city of Lancaster vs. the Lancaster gas company, reputed owner or whoever may be the owner: Emma Mearig and her husband, Daniel S. Mearig, vs. Daniel Bard; Mary C. Holt vs. the American life insurance and trust company.

In the case of the Com'th of Pennsyl vania vs. Christian Stiff and James A. Nimlow, a rule was granted to show cause why the bail should not be respited. No cases were taken up for jury trial this morning, and court adjourned to 21 his New York employer. Having finished o'clock this aftern oon.

Sent to House of Refuge. This afternoon Martina Jane Hall, aged nine years, a daughter of Frances Hall, colored, of Mount Joy, was taken before Judges Patterson and Livingston on the charge of being incorrigible and beyond the control of her mother, having no father. She was ordered to be sent to the house of Europe. It was postmarked "Cranonix, dressing, tragrantly perfumed, rendering it soft and pliable making it an indispensable te-morrow.

Inc Parotid Swelling Sensibly Diminished. EXECUTIVE MANSION, Aug. 29, 11 a. m-At the morning dressing of the president's wounds the parotid swelling was found to have diminished sensibly in size since yesterday morning. There had been a pientiful discharge of pus during the night from the three openings. Another yellow spot was discovered on the side of the face this morning, which, when pricked, permitted a free discharge of pus from another pocket. The wound in the body was found to be doing well. It still continues to discharge freely. The character of the pus discharged has not changed materially since yesterday, but is thicker and healthier in character than what flowed from the wound a few days since. While dressing and cleansing the wound this morning the cleansing catheter intered to a depth of fully twelve inches.

The President's Query. Dr. Boynton, who was in the sick room the greater part of last night, says the president passed a good night, sleeping most of the time. His sleep was more natural than that of any night during the past week. During the intervals of wakefulness his mind has been perfectly clear. Once (about 2 a. m.) when awake and while taking some nourishment he remarked to Dr. Boynton, evidently referring to his several relapses, "I wonder how many more stations I will have to stop

Dr. Boynton says the president looks better and feels better this morning. The doctor's hope is stronger this morning, owing to the fact that the president has held his own through another day and night. He will feel content and satisfied with a continuance of this stationary period for a few days; after that he hopes the work of repair and recuperation will com-

The Noon Builetin. EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 29.—12:30, p. m.—Official—At this morning's dressing of the president an additional point of suppuration was recognized in his swollen face, which being ineised gave exit to some healthy looking pus. The other openings on the exterior of the swelling are likewise discharging. But, though tense, the tumefaction has not materially diminished in size. Nothing new has observed in the condition of the wound. The usual daily rise of temperature has not yet occurred, and the general condition has not materiilly changed since morning. The Patient's Lungs All Right. EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, D. C., Aug. 29, 12:15 p. m.—There was a rumor this morning that an examination had been made of the president's lungs, and that unmistakable evidence in the shape of pus accumulation had been discovered of the secondary or pyemic stage of blood-poisoning. In reply to questions asked by a reporter of the associated press at noon, Dr. Reyburn said: "Since the president's condition became so low we have examined his lungs carefully every day and have always found them healthy. The report that pus cavities have formed there is entirely without foundation." Dr. Boynton on being questioned in regard to the same subject said : "I made an examination of the president's lungs myself last night and found them all right. There are no new complications whatevery in his case and no unfavorable features which are not already known. He continues to do well."

REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE. Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-cian of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. ended to the attention of those at Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease. It is a precific remede which is ase Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly, A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young friend, if E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never falled, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandles no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to care any such case of ases. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we bers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsin for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour cructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He need the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stoneth expalle of digesting anything which a stomach capable of digesting anything which herchose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a li-tle occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-
