COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. The Marietta bicycle club were in town yesterday, and after spending a few hours here, they, in company with one of our town gentlemen, started to ride to York, which they reached about 4 o'clock p. m.

A large crowd congregated yesterday afternoon to witness the laying of the corner stone of the Baptist church. The ceremonics were appropriate and listened to with deep interest. The expected ministers were present.

Last evening about 8::30 the neighbors living in the vicinity of Mrs. Richard Enny's house, were startled by loud screams. They ran in and found Mrs. Enny lying on the floor. A doctor was called in and it was found that she had a stroke of paraly-Relief was given her and this morning the lady is somewhat better.

Our public schools reopened this morning with the teachersand an increase of scholars n attendance. After so long and pleasant a vacation the scholars are now in good condition to do good work, and we know from past experience if they list n to the good advice always given by Prof. Ames it will be done.

This morning a committee of three from the Columbia fire company went to Reading to see their steamer and make preparations to bring it home to-morrow evening. This evening a special meeting of the company will be held to determine what to have upon the steamer's return. The majority appear to be in favor of having a short street parade and reception.

Mrs. David Hanauer left for Philadelphia yesterday afternoon where she expects to make a short visit to her many friends · Mr. Julius Kamerer, of Marietta is the guest of Mr. Albert Slade ; Miss Lizzie Darling, who has been visiting Mrs. James Perrotett, returned to, her home in Camden, N. J., on Saturday ; Mr. Joe Fendrich arrived in town on Saturday and announces their steel shops to be in readiness for work.

Nick Roberts with his immense troupe will appear here to morrow evening, and, as is always the case, to a large house. He has succeeded in getting together this year a troupe which is the largest now on the road, and one that has excelled all his past efforts.

Mr. Charles Shillow arrived in Columbia on Saturday evening. He looks well and expresses himself as being delighted with his European trip. About 8 o'clock in the evening fifty or sixty of his most intimate friends assembled at his house to congratulate him on his safe return. Shortly after the Citizens band made their appearance and furnished dancing music for the remainder of the evening. A bounti-ful repast was provided by Mr. Shillow's good wite to which the guests did ample justice. The party broke up at a late bour.

On Saturday night about half-past eleven a number of half drunken men began fighting at the Five Points, making the night hideous with their blasphemy. A number of swollen heads and black eyes were to be seen the next morning. Another fight occurred in the alley at the side of Nolte's blacksmith shop yesterday afternoon, be tween a colored boy and woman. The The woman had to be knocked down before she could be quieted. The boy was stuck in the hand with a large hairpin.

The religious services in the several churches yesterday were largely attended,

On Saturday evening a number of men, who we are sorry to state call themselves in the presence of an audience that crowdwhite, played a dastardly trick on an inoffensive colored bootblack. They asked consisted of singing, scripture reading, him if he would like to have a glass of prayer, &c., led by the pastor, and Rev. beer. He told them he had never tasted it. They took him into a saloon on Front street, and instead of giving him beer gave him two large glasses of whisky. The effect was almost instantancous, for a short time afterward we saw the boy, who is not over names are unknown or we certainly would have given them, for a person who would do a trick like they did, deserve to meet with the severest punishment law can give them.

Kain and Hall on Saturday.

The smart shower which fell here ou Saturday afternoon and the moist atmosphere of yesterday have refreshed the parched earth, but in some parts of the country there has been a much greater rainfall. In the lower townships the showers were very heavy and did great good. In Colerain there was some hail. In the northeastern part of the county very destructive hail fell.
