LEAMAN PLACE AFFAIRS

Reported by a Special Correspondent. Leaman Place has presented quite lively appearance during the last five or six weeks. The Pennsylvania railroad company have at present a large number of mechanics of all kinds employed in remodeling and repairing their property at this place. The new telegraph company have about thirty men employed in erecting the poles along the pike. They have large canvas tents erected here and board themselves a la gypsy. They are a jolly set, having a first-rate glee club. They pass the evenings singing humorous songs to the great delight of their many visitors who come to see them.

The hotel kept by that prince of landlords, Mr. George Diller, is at present filled to overflowing with boarders and business men who appreciate its good management.

The Presbyterian church, midway between here and Paradise, has been partly torn down and will be rebuilt considerably larger, and when finished will be one of the finest and most beautiful churches in the county. Our wide-awake lumberman, II. II. Robrer, of Leaman Place, furnishes all the lumber required, and our Democratic friend, Jos. Aiken, of Williamstown, has contracted for the erection of the structure, which will be finished, as he finishes all his work, in the most substantial and workmanlike manner.

Large quantities of lumber and coal are sold here and every branch of business seems in a prosperous condition.

Lancaster County Cultivators. John B. Morrison, of this county, who has been farming five acres of tobacco for H. F. Groninger, of Juniata, writes us it will run many leaves 30 inches long and 20 wide, and an acre and a quarter which he farmed for Geo. Groniger is just as good. Most of it is housed and curing nicely; and Mr. G. will plant ten acres next year and build a tobacco shed 72 by 36, and 20 feet to the square.

Mr. George Waller of Lancaster county has also seventeen acres of very fine tobacco in the same neighborhood, ten acres of which he farmed on Mr. Roberson's farm and seven on Col. Hartshorn's farm where he raised a crop last year. His tobacco this year will measure 30 inches long and 18 to 20 wide. He intenda to raise 22 acres next year. These crops were raised on bottoms along the Tuscarora creek, and this valley has not been as dry as some high lands.

For Six Months More.

Alderman McConomy has received a commission from Gov. Hoyt as alderman of the First ward from November 6, 1881, to the first Monday in May, 1882. The squire was elected to his office in February 1876, his term to begin in November, 1876. Thomas F. McElligott was then alderman of the First ward and soon after the election he resigned. Governor Hartranft then appointed Alderman McConomy to fill out the unexpired term of six months. By a special act the time for holding the election was changed from November to February. Alderman McConomy's term would therefore expire on November 6 of this year. He has been reappointed, however, and it will be seen that he has served six years although only elected for five, having since been appointed for six months' terms by Republican governors.

The body of Nicholas Voelker, an aged man, who had been most of his life a resident of Philadelphia, was found on Wednesday in the Elk river, about twelve miles from Elkton, Cecil county, Mary-There was a chain around the neck with another attached, and the skull was crushed in. William Arrout, who rents Voelker's place, and lived in the same house with him, has been arrested for the murder. He and the murdered man had quarreled frequently, and there is evidence that Voelker was killed in the stock yard. and his body dragged to the river by a horse. Blood stains, it is said, were also Mt Joy Star. Last Sunday, a steer belonging to Christian Brubaker, residing a short distance south of town, managed to work its way up the stairs to the second story of an unoccupied tenant house. It was first no ticed by a neighbor, when the animal had its head out of the window. Mr. Brubaker was informed of the peculiar posisition the steer was in, and with considerable work it was safely put down stairs and out of the house.

A Very Sick Mule, Last evening a team belonging to a man named Haverstick, residing in Manheim township, just north of this city, was being driven along Chestnut street, and at the corner of North Queen one of the mules fell on the street, having been overcome by the heat. He was attended for several hours at this point by veterinary surgeons, but at last it was found that he could not recover, and he was therefore killed and taken to Lamparter's.

Driving Accidents. This morning a man drove into the milk wagon of a man named Miller, on Lime street, breaking one wheel. Kochler's large brewery wagon was being driven out East King street this morning when, owing to the crowded condition of the streets, it struck against a buggy, the horse of which was tied, and upset it. No other damage was done.

Sudden Death.

Yesterday afternoon our town was startled by the announcement of the sudden death of Mr. Albert Thompson, formerly a freight conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad, but who for the past year or two has been more or less sick. For over a month he has been boarding a Batt's hotel. Mr. Batt informed us that be ate the heartiest dinner since he had been stopping with him. After dinner he went to his room to lie down; about a quarter of two he came down stairs with said he had a hemmorrhage. After a little while he again went back to his room. One of the dining room girls happening to pass his room saw him fall off the bed on which he had been sitting. She immediately raised an alarm and Mr. Batt came up stairs, went into the room and found Mr. Thompson dead. He leaves a little son, who is staying with a Mr. John Mullen, in Harrisburg, also a brother working in Pottsville. The Odd Fellows took charge of his remains, which will be buried to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Harry Sample a nephew of the deceased.

THE SICK MAN BY THE SEA.

His Condition Still Improving.

CHEERFUL TONE OF THE BULLETINS. FAVORABLE CHANGE IN WEATHER.

Evidence of Favorable Progress. ELBERON, N. J., Sept. 9.-8:30 a. m.-Official bulletin-At the examination of the president at S. a. m., his temperature was 98.5, pulse 100, respiration 17. The condition of the parotid gland and wound are improved. He was somewhat wakeful during the night, but not restless, and slept sufficiently. The enemata and stimulants have been supended during the past 36 hours. On the whole the past 24 hours give evidence of favorable progress. [Signed] D. W. BLISS,

F. H. HAMILTON.

Fires Started in the Cottage. LONG BRANCH, N. J., Sept. 9 .- 10:15 a. m .- General Swaim says the president passed a good night and his general condition this morning is as good as could be expected. He ate some bird for breakfast and relished it. Fires have been started in the cottage, rendering it perfectly comfortable. Attorney General MacVeagh feels encouraged and looks for continued improvement. There was no nausea durimprovement. There was no nausea during the night. Thermometer 74 degrees. Waiting for Developments.

LONG BRANCH, Sept. 9.-Noon-While the morning bulletin is favorably commented upon it does not create a sanguine feeling, and more cautious people await further developments before believing the favorable change will not be interrupted. The gratifying assurance that the president is much better here than he was in Washington is nevertheless very generally received. The thermometer at noon stood at 75 degrees.

The extremely hot weather during the past few days brought a large number of visitors and the hotels are well-filled again. A threatened storm, however, has had the effect of diminishing the number of guests to-day, and a large number left the shore in the morning trains. Mr. Hildreth, of the West End hotel, is authority for the statement that while the recent hot weather was unusually extreme, for several years past about the same time there have been several days of uncomfortably warm weather.

Everything Looks Favorable. Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 9.—Attorney said to-day that they considered the president's condition very encouraging and everything looks favorable. The president dent's condition very encouraging and this morning expressed a desire to see members of the cabinet who wished to call.
