Surprised on Her Birthday,

The friends of Miss Theresa Wall, daughter of George Wall, proprietor of the Southern Exchange, South Queen street, planned a surprise for that young lady on Thursday evening, which they carried out with entire success. The day happened to be the eighteenth anniversary of Miss There is not a mother on earth who has ever Theresa's birth, and in celebration of the important occasion the members of St. will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the Stephen's Lutheran choir, with which she is also connected, together with a few other intimate friends, to the number of about thirty, all told, called at the residence on South Queen street in a body. Of course the young lady was surprised and gratified at the kindly visitation, which was enhanced when she was made the recipient of a handsome album, containing the photographs of all her associates in St. Stephen's choir, who were the douors. Music, dancing and other social festivities including, of course, a bountiful supper, filled out the evening, and when the guests departed it was with cordial wishes for many happy returns of the day to Miss Theresa.

House Entered by Thieves,

The house of Mrs. Benson, widow, rc siding on Andrew street, between Beaver and Prince, was broken into by thieves on Thursday night, who carried off all of the catables in the house and a pocket book containing 40 cents. Mrs. Benson generally keeps her money down stairs, but on this evening she had taken $18 in gold up stairs. The thieves did not go up and therefore did not get it.

Dr. Boynton More Hopeful. ELBERON, Sept. 17 .- Dr. Boynton says

he feels better about the president's condition this morning than he did yesterday morning. He does not consider that there is any marked improvement, however, excepting that the wound looks better. The cabinet are expected to arrive this evening. Defibrinated beef blood is being administered to the president by enemata. Arrangements have been made to have fresh blood brought here daily. The patient had two ounces of it last night and has had three ounces already this morning. Good results are expected from this treat-
