COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Officer Fisher took two tramps to jail this morning.

The teachers' district institute met in the high school room on Saturday.

This afternoon Mr. Harry B. Clark will be buried from his father's residence, No.

523 Locust street. A horse broke the hitching strap this morning on Fifth, between Locust and Walnut streets, but was caught before any damage was done. The Shawnee steamer received a trial on Saturday afternoon and at first would not work very well, but after it had undergone some oiling it worked splendidly.

A lot of telephone wire and boxes are now in the dispatchers office at the west yard and in a few days a connection will be made from there to the office in the east yard. It is separate from the Columbia telephone exchange.

Miss V. Few, and Miss Ransey, of Leb

Bleak House." Another fight took place on Front street on Saturday evening, but neither party was drunk. It arose from some trouble between the two parties, which being of a private nature we refrain from publishing.

A number of young Columbia boys in tend going West this week to seek fame and fortune, which we hope they will find, or they cannot get either in Columbia. A number of property-holders have been notified to have their pavements fixed. Some have already followed the request. On Sunday afternoon a number of young boys were playing on the rafts laying back of Bruner's saw mill. Thomas O'Hare slipped and fell between two logs, and in falling pulled another young lad, Harry Findley by name, into the water. Both would have certainly drowned had it not been for outside assistance.

Council met at 10 a. m. to-day in connection with the school board and the physicians of the town, and after careful canvassing the subject of reported smallpox in the borough announce that there is at this time but one authenticated case in Columbia, and have adopted such measures as will, without doubt, prevent the further spread of the disease, and if the citizens will carefully disinfect their company, opens to-morrow morning, when premises there need be no cause for there will doubtless be a demand for tayorable

At 11:20 a. m., on Sunday, word arrived at Columbia that a wreck had occurred at the Henry Clay furnace. At 1:15 the wreck train started for the scene of the disaster. As engine No. 261, extra local, George Snyder, engineer, of Harrisburg, was coming eastward an axle on a P. & St. L. car broke, throwing a box car, a gondola and a hopper gondola from the track. The trucks of the box car were literally broken to pieces while the gondola was demolished to kindling wood. The front truck of the hopper gondola was only off the track. The wreckers in about three hours time had the track cleared of the debris. During the time of their working passing trains had to be run on we'ever attended. Mr. Ben Lichty telegraph opposite track. It was the quietest wreck operator opened a temporary wreck office. A number of persons from Columbia and Marietta witnessed the work of the wreck

A disgraceful fight occurred on Walnut street, between Third and Fourth, on Sat day night. A number of young boys, the oldest could not have been over seventeen, had been drinking, and the liquor taking effect, the fight ensued. It is a shame that any person dealing in intoxicating liquors would be guilty of selling to young men

Mr. Reading, of Lancaster, has taken several excellent pictures of a number of P. R. R. engines and their crews, which are now on exhibition at a hotel on Front

Some day the latter part of this week, Co. C, a battery from the regular army, will pass through Columbia en route to Yorktown. Would it not be the proper thing for our town military company, headed by the Citizens' band, to greet them at the out skirts of town and escort them through?

Lock Haven's beauty, Miss Nellie Melisk, who visited here a year ago, and won many hearts, is again in town, the guest of Mrs. Wm. Withers. This morning, Mr. Samuel Eberlina left for Manchester, seven miles below York, where he takes a position in the carriage manufactory of Mr. J. C. Sundy. Mr. A. J. Eckert has accepted a position in Meyer's drug store; Mrs. J. P. Evans left this morning for Sealinsville on a short visit.

BASEBALL.

Ironside: 8, College 4. On Saturday afternoon a rattling good game of baseball was played on the college grounds between the Ironsides and College nines, before a large crowd of spectators who were well pleased with the game and the many goods plays. Zecher, the catcher of the Ironsides, played remarkably well, taking no less than five foul tips. The following is the score of the game as taken from the books:

Capture of Tramps. Constable Eicholtz and Officers Leman and Kautz yesterday captured ten tramps on the farm of Christian Kendig in Strasburg township. These men had been loafing around this place for weeks and had become a nuisance to the whole neighborhood. They were brought to this city and they gave their names as follows Frank Wilson, James Brady, Charles Benson, Thomas Gordon, John Hagen, Thomas Morgan, Frank Miller, Francis Bemy, Mike Murray and Thomas Harris. They will be heard by Alderman Spur-

Mad Dog Shot. Yesterday morning a large bull-dog showing signs of hydrophobia, made its appearance in the vicinity of Emannel Hambright's hotel, on the Columbia pike, a few miles west of the city, and caused considerable alarm among the neighbors. Mr. Hambright and one or two others peppered the dog with shot and killed it. It was a white bull dog with red spots, and had on its neck a leather collar to which was attached an iron ring. It is not known to whom the dog belonged.

A short time ago George Russell, formerly of Lancaster county, and son of the late John Russell of Drumore township, went to Montano and established a ranche in that far-away territory. He had made arrangements for feeding sheep during the coming winter and had about fifty tons of hay in stock; but a few days ago a prairie fire swept over that vicinity and cleaned the ranche out in short order.

Amusements. Healy's Hibernians To-night .- Admirers of rish wit and Irish scenery are reminded that this evening Healy's Hibernian minstrels will appear at Fulton opera house in a novel programme. The Montreal (Canada) Gazette of August 10 has a lengthy notice of their performance at the Theatre Royal in that city, from which the following is extracted: "The minstrels gave a capital entertainment, and one, moreover, which is in many respects of a unique character, and the hearty applause which rewarded the performers in every special feature was a conclusive proof that it was regarded with the utmost favor. Commenc ing with a pleasing selection of songs and ballads, in which Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Burgess, Bryan O'Lynn and others were introduced, the programme followed with tableaux of Irish scenery, beautiful in themselves, and grapically described by P. C. Foy. In the intervals a miscellaneous selection was given, which merits and received the approbation of all present." Jennie Lee as "Jo."-To-morrow evening Manager Miller will introduce to the Lancaster public the celebrated English actress, Miss Jennie Lee, in a play that is a dramatization from Charles Dickens's effective work, "Bleak House," and in which the character of little Jo is made the centre of interest. In a notice of he successful run of the play at Haverly's 14th Street theatre, New York, the Evening Telegram says: "Miss Jennie Lee does with the character of Jo all that can be done. She has studied it closely, she imitates with fidelity the uncoutliness and the vulgarisms of the London Arabe, whose bad qualflies only serve to conceal good ones. Constant repetition joined with conscientious acting, has enabled her to claborate to an unusual extent, and the entire portraiture is as successful of the kind as any woman who is not a genius can be expected t make of a lonely, despised, biz-hearted and wretched ragamuffia. Miss Lee has made an admirable success and the supporting company is very strong." " Boccaccio,"-The chart for reserved seats to "Boccaccio," which will be produced here next Thursday evening by H. B. Mahn's opera PERTY and valuable real estate. The undersigned executors of Elizabeth B. S. Harberger, deceased, will expose at public sale on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1881, at the Fountain Hotel, on South Queen street, Lancaster, Pa., at 7 o'clock P. M., all that certain double two-story Brick Dwelling House, with brick back building attached, together with other improvements, and lot thereto belonging, situated on South Queen street, in said city, No. 225, fronting on east side of South Queen street 31 feet 3½ inches and extending Bliss concluded by saying, "Hope is buried only in the grave." The doctor further said: There is no immediate emergency in the president's condition.

He called for a hand-glass after the morning dressing and said: "I cannot understand why I am so weak when I look so well."

His voice is not so hoarse as when the parotid gland was inflamed; there is no evidence of repair this morning in any of the wounds, still he is quite cheerful.

The left lung seems only slightly affected.
