WAGNER'S 2,000 VICTIMS.

THE PERSONS HE SUED IN MARYLAND FOR DAMAGES WITHOUT CAUSE.

dements Entered by Default, and the Courts Ruling that the Victim Failing to Take an Appeal are Without Remedy.

In Frederick county, Md., about 2,000 of the suits instituted by Dr. Harrison Wagner, the professional litigant, against citizens of the county, were settled, the defendants being compelled to pay various sums, ranging from $50 to $75 in each The operations of Wagner are without a parallel in the United States. About two years ago he was generally considered to be harmlessly insane. His actions were calculated to confirm this theory, and his eccentricities were regarded with indifference by every one who knew him. In the fall of 1879 Wagner caused such amusement by going before an obscure country magistrate, and entering everal hundred suits for damages against leading citizens, chosen at random in all parts of the county, who had never seen or had any dealings with him. The amount of damages sued for in each case was between $90 and $100, the limit for which suits can be brought before magistrates in this state. No attention was paid to the supposed lunatic's suits, and the cases were soon forgotten, but were several times recalled to memory by notices of hundreds of other suits being brought by Wagner, who frequently entered as high as one hundred claims against one person.

Early in 1879 Wagner disappeared from ublic notice, but in the fall of that year the entire community was thrown into a furor of excitement when it was learned that Wagner had commenced proceedings to enforce judgments in 1,800 of the suits. It was then learned for the first time that the persons sued, having failed to appear before the magistrate to answer, judg ments had been entered in each case for the amount named in the complaint. Wagner made uo effort to collect the judgments until a year had expired, when by law the power of appeal had lapsed. In November last, therefore, he was possessed of 1,800 judgments, averaging $75 against about 300 county residents and corporations. Each judgment was eudorsed, "by default" and "no appeal taken," and of course they amounted to a lien on any property owned by the de fendants. During Wagner's absence several per sons against whom he had obtained judgments died, and his first move was to file the judgments in the orphans' court as claims against the estate. Martin Shank, one of his victims, had died and left an estate valued at $3,500 to his wife and three small children. Wagner filed judgments against the estate amounting to $6,200 dollars and the orphans' court was compelled to postpone the hearing of the claims several times in order to avoid the necessity of admitting their validity. At length several citizens employed counsel for Mrs. Shank, who filed an application for an arrest of judgment on the ground of fraud. The 'same policy was pursued by all the other victims, and that time the cases have been dragged along in the courts, the indications pointing to Wagner being eventu-ally successful in enforcing all of them. The courts ruled that the failure of the victims to contest the suits was in law a virtual acknowledgment of the justice of the claims, while the further failure to take an appeal from the magistrate within the period prescribed by law placed them beyond remedy. After he had begun to enforce the judgments Wagner found the county too hot to hold him, and went to New York city. where he now is. The proceedings against his victims have been carried on by coun-sel there, and the settlement made in nearly all the cases, it is thought, will net him nearly $10,000. He does not pretend that he ever had any legal claim for damages in any of the cases, yet he has succeeded in obtaining considerable portions of the estates of several deceased residents of the county, besides mulcting hundreds of farmers of hard-earned money.

E. Ascnith Hall, Binghamton, N. Y., writes:
"I suffered for several months with adult pain through left lung and shoulders. I lost my spirits, appetite and color, and could with difficulty keep up all day. My mother procured some Burdock Blood Bitters; I took them as directed, and have left no pain since first week after using them, and am now quite well."

You have allowed your bowels to be habitually costive, your liver has become tor-pid, the same thing alls your kidneys, and you are just used up. Now be sensible, get a pack-age of Kidney-Wort, take it faithfully and soon you will forget you've got any such or-gans, for you will be a'well man.—Albany Argus.

The Law of Kindness Is universal; it affects all the human family, all animals, and may be even found in patent medicines. Some are drastic, and the patient is obliged to suffer pains worse than the disease; but in cases of obstinate constipation, dyspepsia, there is no remedy so kind, so gentle in its effects, and yet so satisfactory as Burdock Blood Bitters. Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. II. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those at-flicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

 BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.
 This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulan was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we pre-sent to the favorable notice of invalids—espe-cially those afflicted with that miserable dis-ease Dysnemsia, a specific remedy which is ease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY. Sold by our enterprising young triend, H E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preterence over all other Brandles no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifies would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or ascs. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we cate:

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, cine he has been of very little pecuniary de fit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.

IN THE SECRET.

RAILROAD MEN, BANK OFFICERS AND CAPITALISTS AFFECTED SERIOUSLY.

Little Inside Chapter That Will be Read With Interest by the Public. Railroads, banks and capitalists are the great moving and controlling power of the world now, and there is a road, a rough road, through which all that attain to eminence must pass and many fall in the fight. Thought, study, mental and brain work is the highway to eminence; and work, thought, worrying, planning, calculating, all feed upon the brain and nervous system, and the results are Nervous Prostration, Heart Disease, Apoplexy, Paralysis, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Sleepless Nights, Sick and Nervous Headache, and a sudden dropping out of the business ranks from overwork and nervousness in some of its forms. This is the natural consequence; but if the nervous system is fed and supported in proportion to the waste and demands made upon it, these fearful results would not be heard of or known.

The remedy is a simple, sensible one. Simply Railroads, banks and capitalists are the great or known.

The remedy is a simple, sensible one. Simply to feed the overworked, irritable nervous system. And that can be done, and that is being done successfully every day, by the use of Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills, a special preparation for Nervous Bisease, Sick and Nervous Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Neuralgia and Dyspepsia. These pills are not a patent medicine, but made by a regular physician and used by the profession at large. Sold by all druggists. Price, 50c. a box. Depot, 106 North Eutaw street, Baltimore, Md.
