A town official vesterday threatened a correspondent that if he ever put anything in the papers about him again he "would break his infernal neck." The reporter who is noted for his "bland and childlike smiles" put one upon his countenance and remarked to the official that he should do as the borough charter and ordinance required him, and then maybe his name would not appear in print.

Chief Burgess Jacob Sneath has issued a suspend business next Monday in view of the funeral of the late president, and he recommends that all places of business be closed throughout the entire day, and that the bells be tolled from one to two o'clock p. m., for a public meeting of the citizens of Columbia be held in the opera house a 2 o'clock p. m. to hold a memorial service To the clergy the management of the ex ercises is entrusted, and they are requested to make their announcement to their respective congregations and request their attendance. Hotels, beer saloons and cigar stores are especially requested to closand not sell on that day.

Firemen's Parade To Night. The Empire hook and ladder company will return from Reading this evening, and in honor of the event the fire department will turn out and, after a street parade, escort them to their quarters. The route of parade will be as follows: Form or North Prince, right resting on James, to North Queen, to Orange, to Mary, to Wes King, to South Queen, to Vine, to Church, to East King, to Duke, to Empire house

At the close of the parade the Empir. boys will be given a banquet by the Humane company, at their hall on Wes. King street. The Shiftler company will return from Reading to-morrow and be received by the Friendship. In the Reading parade yesterday a Nor ristown company was the best looking and one from Lebanon the biggest and heaviest; but the Laneaster boys were universally praised for fine appearance and decorous conduct.

They left Laneaster five weeks ago, Mr. Heinitsh being a delegate to the American Pharmaceutical association that met in St. Louis. At the conclusion of the society's business, the delegates went West, one party to Santa Fe and the other to Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Heinitsh accompanying the last named party. They visited Dever, Manitou, Georgetown and many other points of interest, returning via Topeka, Rock Island, Waterloo, Chicago, Buffalo, Eric and the Lehigh Val-Both Mr. and Mrs. Heinitsh express themselves delighted with their tour.

Court Proceedings.

Mary Ann Breneman, of Lititz, was granted the benefits of the act of Assembly of April 3, 1872, giving to married women their seperate carnings.

The rule to show cause why a new trial should not be granted in the suit of Reyburn, Hunter & Co.vs. John R. Thomas was discharged. Sarah Huber, of East Lampeter, was divorced from her husband, Jacob Huber, on the ground of desertion. There were no cases ready for argument this merning and court adjourned until 9 o'clock on Saturday morning.

Fight Among the Cabbles. There was a lively row this morning among the cab-drivers in front of the Pennsylvania railroad depot, Two or more of them wanted to secure the same passengers and baggage, and as it is a physical impossibility for a man, woman or trunk to be in two cabs at one and the same time, there was a fight as to which cab should have the prize. The passen-

The people of Colerain are getting a faithful preacher and zealous worker.

DIRT, DISEASE AND DEATH.

Eusiness For the Board of Health. Complaints come from different parts of the city of the criminally filthy condition of the gutters and drains. Below the cotton factories and thence to the "run' and several pools of stagnant water here streets the gutters are clogged with grass, weeds and filth of various kinds, which is kept moistened by the water that cannot force itself through, and the whole of it lies a decaying, stinking, festering, diseasebreeding mass. In a private alley near by are piles of filth, in which dead cats and chickens are decaying. On the upper end of North Queen street and some of the streets intersecting it matters are even worse. The gutters are clogged, the drain that crosses North Queen near Feagleyville clogged up, some of the low lying lots filled with stagnant water and decaying vegetation, and the sidewalks even filthy and almost impassable from the droppings of large flocks of geese that roam the streets at pleasure. Within two weeks past in this immediate vicinity nine deaths have occurred-nearly all of them from diphtheria and typhoid fever, and a number of other persons are number of ministers from other towns are lying seriously il! of the same diseases. That the mortality and disease have been caused in a large measure by nuisance arising from the filthy pools and gutters there can be little doubt. There is work for the street committee, the commissioner and the board of health. If they do not attend to it, there will be still more work for the doctors and the undertakers.

THE CELE-GUNDAKER TROUBLE.

undaker Sues Cole for $10,000 Damages. Emanuel Gundaker this morning entered suit in the prothonotary's office against Edward II. Cole, charging him with the seduction of his (Gundaker's) wife, thus lepriving him of her affection and society. and injuring him to the extent of $10,000. proclamation calling on the citizens to The complaint further states that Cole has no real or personal estate sufficient to meet the sum claimed, and as plaintiff believes defendant is about to depart the jurisdiction of the state, he asks that he may be compelled to give bonds for his appearance.

Soon after Mr. Gundaker's claim had been pl ced in the hands of the sheriff Deputy Sheriff Hippy called at Mrs. Reese's and took Cole into custody. His physician, Dr. Carpenter, certified that it would not be safe to remove Cole from his room, his wound being in a worse condition for a day or two past than it was for some days preceding Thereupon another deputy sheriff was placed in Mr. Cole's room to take charge of him until he shall be summoned before court. It is said that Mr. Cole's counsel will appear before court to-morrow morning and ask to have him discharged on common bail.

Sine that time be play has been purchased by Manager Havorly, who, after putting it into the hands of a competent dramatist for improvement and revision, sent it out with a company whose tour has been one continued triumph. The piec will be produced here on Saturday evening by Haverly's company, of which a San Francisco paper speaks in this manner: "Mr. Polk had a very warm reception, and played the chief role, a very arduous one, in a very successful manner. The leading lady, Miss Gilbert, is petite in figure, handsome in face and person, and a bright vivacious and charming actress. She won the hearts of her auditors as well as amusing them. Harry Linden is a sterling comedian, who developed the character of the trascible Major to it; full value, gers over whom the contest was waged Harry Bell had a small role, which he gave in a neat and satisfactory manner. sep15-2wd&w RESCUED FROM DEATH

The following statement of William J Cough lin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half collar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicine. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and today I feel in better spirits than I have the past

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so teveryone afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cared. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my siekness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon bo able to go to work." Sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen 1y28-lydeodTh&w2

THE WIDOW ALONE WITH HER DEAD.

The Doors of the Rotunda Closed. Washington, Sept. 23.—The visitors to the capitol sensibly diminished about midnight, and, as night wore on, ceased almost entirely. A delegation of the Philadelphia councils, headed by ex-Speaker Randall and Representative O'Neill paid their last respects to the remains of the late president. The doors ture. of the rotunda were then closed and at 10:50 all persons except officials were excluded. At 11 o'clock the streets were thronged.

two closed carriages drove to the east lower entrance of the Senate wing and the occupants alighted, passed up the private stairway to the vice president's room. All corridors and passageways upon the main floorof the Senate wing were quickly barred to all comers and instructions given by Sergant-at-Arms Bright, of the Senate, to employees of the capitol on duty, to keep themselves completely hidden in the recesses of dcors and windows, while Mrs. Garfield passed through the rotunda. The rotunda itself was completely cleared, the Guard of Honor retiring from view for the time being. In a few minutes the little procession emerged from the vice president's room and passing around through the east corridor proceeded in the following order through silent and deserted main passageway of the building: Sergeant at Arms Bright, leading, then followed Mrs. Garfield leaning upon the arm of General Swaim, Harry Garfield, Mollie Garfield and Miss Rockwell, Col. and Mrs. Rockwell, Attorney General MacVeagh and Mrs Swaim. Not a sound was heard save of the softly pattering feet upon the marble floor as the little company, robed in sombre garments of deepest mourning, passed the attorney general. Thousands About the Capitol. At 1:45 p. m. to-day the crowd about the capitol numbers many thousands. Every entrance to the building was closely guarded and none admitted without special tickets. The arrangements for the funeral ceremonies are all completed.

The Floral Devices. The position of the floral offerings has been changed. Nothing remaining upon the casket save a few bunches of palm. At the head of the catafalque stands a broken column of white and purple flowers, surmounted by a white dove. On either side are a tastefully arranged crown and pyramid of roses; at the foot and resting against the black drapery is a wreath which, by order of Quren Victoria, was placed upon the casket. Arranged on each side of this wreeth are handsome crosses, while at their base is placed a magnificent floral pillow, on which is inscribed in violets, OUR MARTYR PRESIDENT ;" next to this is placed "THE GATES AJAR." The Knights of Malta contributed a large Maltese cross and the Union veteran corps (of which Garfield was a member) a pillow of white flowers bearing in violets the inscription, "U. V. C. TO THEIR COM-RADE," The whole appearance of the catafalque was tasteful and elegant. On the south side of the casket are arranged sofas for Mrs. Garfield and family, and on the north side sofas arranged for members of the cabine and distinguished guests. Provisions are also made for the justices of the supreme also made for the justices of the supreme also made for the justices of the supreme through 25 cars: nothing doing for

WM. NEAL'S CASE.

Wants a Chance at a Negro Jury. WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 23.—In the case of Wm. Neal, who is charged with outraging Mrs. Margaret Mosser in March, 1880, and who was subsequently tried convicted and sentenced to death by the county court, which verdict was afterward set aside by the United States supreme court, on the ground that the court below erred in not admitting testimony as to the alleged discrimination against negroes as jurors, the court of oyer and terminer this morning, in accordance with the mandate of the supreme court, ordered the original indictment quashed.

The case will be remanded to the grand jury to pass upon a new indictment. No
