Mourning Jeweiry.

Black onyx seems to have passed out of fashion for handsome mourning jewelry. The prevailing style is for black enamel, in which Messrs. Bailey, Banks & Biddle, of Philadelphia, have some beautiful novelties in lace pins, lockets, &c. Many of these are decorated with handsome diamond work of novel design and are much superior to anything hitherto seen in this line.

Amusements. The Prince of Clowns in " Humply Dumply Tonight.—That prince of pantomimists George H. Adams, with his own immense company, will be here this (Wednesday) evening. Of Mr. Adams himself it is unnecessary to speak ; he is known throughout the United States as the great, in fact the only "Humpty Dumpty" of any account, and there is no living clown who can approach him in the from the home of Mrs. Huber, near Dillerville versatility of his genius or the scope of his native humor. In organizing his own company he has been governed by sound judgment and selected attractions of the first order. His specialty people rank with the best in the country, and that portion of the programme will be marked by the most pleasing variety. Mr. Adams and his company travel in their own cars, which enables him to carry all the requisite scenery, mammoth tricks, accessories and heavy paraphernalia to properly produce pantomime upon a gorgeous scale. The tricks, Mr. Adams writes, "are life-size, and from models manufactured for my show, based on new ideas of my own, and will be operated by skillful stage mechanics, selected for practical purposes, under my own super-There is no doubt that Adams will which has never been witnessed here before Besides Mr. George H. Astrich Bro.'s Grand Fall Opening. To-day this popular millinery firm as usual lowed their good taste by opening their store with as fine a selection of the latest style goods as can be seen in this city. The show windows are elaborately decorated with handsome goods in their line, at once attracting the atention of those passing. On entering the store are two handsome canvas embroideries. one representing the Gipsy Queen and the other Little Red Riding Hood. Further on are three arches of evergreens trimmed with wreaths and a variety of choice flowers. In the centre of the store is a pyramid of growing plants. On every counter in the store there is a profuse display of floral designs, adding greatly to the beauty of the decorations. On the trimming counter is shown a variety of crystal bead trimming in all colors. Near the centre are also two obelisks trimmed with crystal and wax beads and mounted with glass balls. Around these are displayed bronze trimmings of all shades. Between the main store room and the cloak room, which is filled with the choicest garments, is a small garden room is a life-size figure which displays a bride's dress. It is of white satin, the front embroidered with pearl and glass beads trimmed with garnitures of white show cases and counters are filled with the very latest style goods, and the store is well supplied with attentive and accommodating salesladies, who take pleasure in showing their elegant wares to visitors. A band of music will be in attendance to-night.

Second. That the Democratic party, as of old favors a constitutional currency of gold and silver and of paper convertible into coin. Repudiatio in all forms, and coalition with repudiators mer the condemnation of honest people. The refusal of a Republican administration to accede to the Democratic demand for a further reduction in the rate of interest on the national debt-subjects the government to a needless expense of millions of dollars annually.

Third, That in view of the exposure of extensive frauds in the postal and treasury departments un-der the last federal administration, the people de mand prompt and unfaltering prosecution of the thieves; their successful operations prove that there will be no real reform in the management of the departments of the national government without a sweeping change therein. Sincere civil service re-form will begin with a return to the Jeffersonian tests for office-holders of honesty, capability and faithfulness to the constitution.

Fourth, That in the administration of the government of Pennsylvania the Republican party has encouraged, practiced and shielded spoliation of the state treasury and misuse of the public funds, bribery of legislators, undue favor to corporations and monopolies, an unnecessarily high rate of interest on the state loans, a shameless prostitution of the pardoning power, a system of wholesale waste and peculation in the ordinary known, does not seem to care whether he expenditures of the government, and an harrassing and plundering exercise of municipal franchises and abuse of local trusts. Fifth, That the arrogant, corrupt and personal domination controlling the Republican party in this state, and suppressing honesty and independence in that organization, dictated the policy, the platform and the candidate of its last state convention. In view of these facts we hereby re-affirm the following resolution of the Democratic state convention of 1879: "That the recent attempt under the personal direction of ruling Republican leaders to debauch the legislature by wholesale bribery and corruption, and take from the commonwealth four millions of dollars, for which its liability had never been ascertained. omination controlling the Republican party in which its liability had never been ascertained, is a fresh and alarming evidence of the aggres siveness of corporate power in collusion with po-nitical rings, and should receive the signal condemnation of the people at the polls.

Sixth. That the Democratic party of Pennsylvania, regardful of the state's honor and its interests, pledges itself to the just application of the public moneys to the public service; to economy in governmental expenditures, that the peo-ple may be lightly burdened and the purity of the administration preserved; to the abolition of all useless offices and the lopping off of all supernu-mary officials; to the lowest practicable rate of inter-est on State loans, without regard for the advantage of syndicates or speculators; to sleepless vigilance against the growth and exactions of monopolies; to watchful guard of the public interests against the pretensions of the great transportation companies to be above the fundamental law governing all else within the borders of the state; to a vigorous collection of all taxes lawfully laid upon corporations chartered or doing business in Pennsylvania, or seeking to evade their obligations; and to investigation into, correction of and punishment for the frauds and wastes which have for years permeated various departments of the state government

Resolved, That all good citizens, regardless of party affiliations sincerely mourn the death of President Garfield, and that we, as representatives of more than four hundred thousand Democratic voters, express their individual and collective grief at the calamity which has befallen the republic, their sorrow and sympathy with the domestic affliction of the president's stricken household, and their execration of his assassin and of the murderer's foul crime. Proceedings in Detail.

By Associated Press. WILLIAMSPORT, Sept. 28 .- The Democratic state convention was calle! to order at 12 m., by Chairman Dill and the state central committee, and the following officers were appointed: Sergeant-at Arms, H. S. Lucas, Michael Sullivan, Joseph J. King; Door-keepers, J. G. Pratt, Geo. J. They remained about twenty minutes and Akers, John Mailey, A. Cassidy, S. Scott had a very pleasant interview. Since and S. McKean. The proceedings opened with prayer by Caleb U. Wright, delegate from Berks county. The following secretaries were announced: Wm. McClelland, George D. Herbert, W. T. McCully, William Hasson, William B. Stoner, George B. Kneass, Alexander Russel, E. M. Halderman and J. Milton Hall. The roll of delegates was then called and credentials were presented. On motion of Mr. James, of Northampton, W. U. Hensel, of Lancaster, was unanimously chosen permanent chairman. He was escorted to the chair by Jacob Ziegler and J. V. Cracraft. He was greet ed with the most hearty applause, and acknowledged the honor in a glowing speech making a pathetic reference to the recent death of the president. He declared that time had vindicated the capacity of the Democracy to maintain the principles of the government. His speech was repeatedly applauded.

A proposition fixing an order of business was presented by Mr. McGowan, of Philadelphia, and called forth an extended discussion. The convention then proceeded to adjust committees on organization. The convention then adjourned until 3 p. m.

The committee en organization met afterwards. Col. Duff in the chair, and agreed to make the temporary chairman permanent. They also decided to have a vice president and secretary from each senatorial district. The temporary secretaries are also to be permanent. The following is the committee on resolutions: 1st dist C. THE NEW ADMINISTRATION. MacVengh Expects Arthur to Make a Free Deal all Around.

Attorney General MacVeagh stated last evening, when approached on the subject of the cabinet, that he had no objection to speaking frankly as to his own position. He says he recognizes to the fullest extent the propriety of President Arthur's selecting as his confidential advisers gentlemen who had heretofore sustained relations not only of personal good will but of political sympathy with him. Indeed, he did not think any administration could be strong if there was any ground for suspicion or distrust among its members. As soon, therefore, as President Arthur had taken the oath of office, Mr. MacVeagh said, he had tendered his resignation in writing. He had also assured the president that his resignation was not a form, but a fact, and that he hoped it would be convenient to designate his successor by the time the Senate met in special session. Mr. Mac-Veagh added that on public grounds he felt no difficulty in pursuing the course his feelings dictated. The only political three or four million bushels, with a light work to which he attached any importance at this time was the work of administrative reform, including, of course, the exposure and relentless pursuit of the olunders of the public treasury. President Arthur engages heartily and thoroughly in that good work as he hoped land, the principal to day being those by and believed he would, then he was entitled to the credit of doing it with an at-the selection of one person or another for his cabinet but by the general policy of his administration. Gossip is busy, of course, with cabinet changes. As samples of the prevailing talk, one hears that Secretary Blaine and Minister Lowell are likely to change places; that Judge Settle may succeed Secretary Hunt, Senator Jones taking Secretary Kirkwood's seat, and Senator Conger becoming postmaster general. President Arthur is said to have decided to appoint a successor to Secretary Windom from New York state. Boutwell is mentioned as at-the administration organ, says, under cover of an alleged interview, this morn-ing, that Mr. Blaine will insist on his resignation being accepted, to take effect at an early day; that Mr. Windom is not satisfied with his present position and desires to get back in the Senate, and that he is laying his wires for this object; that Hon. E. D. Morgan, of New York, may succeed him; that Mr. Kirkwood is also said to be dissatisfied with his present place and would like to get back in his old place in the Senate Both he and Windom are doubtless so.ry that they ever permitted the office of cabinet position to tempt them into leaving pendent. Mr. James, I hear, contemplates going into the banking business in New York. He prefers the banking business. It is much more profitable than appointing Democrats to office under a Republican administration. Mr. Lincoln will perhaps remain in the cabinet, though this is doubted. Mr. Hunt, of course, will go. He has made many enemies and committed in-numberable blunders. He is too aristccratic in his ideas and has no talent for managing the navy. Of course, the sec-retary, having tendered his resignation, cannot now appoint his son to a paymas-tership in the navy. Hon. Hamilton Fish, Senator Frelinghuysen, Senator Edmunds and Russell Lowell are spoken of as among the probable successors to Mr. Blaine. New York, however, claims the treasury. She cannot have both, but will get one of the two. Senator Jones, of Nevada, is mentioned for the interior department and Senator Conger for the post office department. The name of George S. Boutwel is mentioned in connection with the position of attorney general. Thomas Settle, of North Carolina, will be pressed for the navy department.

Western Natl Association. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 28.—The regular quarterly meeting of the Western nail association was held here at noon to day. The attendance was very large nearly every mill being represented.

After a full expression of views in regard to the trade, which was reported greater than ever before known in the history of the nail business, it was unanimously decided to advance the card rate to three twenty-five, subject to the usual terms and discounts. This is an advance of 25 cents.

King Kalakau Visits the President. WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The president was engaged with his correspondence during the forenoon. At 12 o'clock two carriages drove up to Senator Jones's residence containing King Kalakau and his suite. The party was accompanied by Assistant Secretary of State Hitt, who introduced them to the president. They remained about twenty minutes and then there has been a constant stream of visitors. Among those who called were Governor Jewell, Attorney General Mac-Veagh, and Secretaries Lincoln, Hunt and Kirkwood.

Distress Caused by an Earthquake. LONDON, Sept. 28 .- A dispatch from Rome to the Times says the destruction caused by the earthquake in the Abruzzi far exceeds anything indicated by the first reports. The archbishop of Chieti appeals piteously for help. He says the disaster is only comparable to that of Casamicciola. Over 1,000 houses are uninhabitable, and the remainder are more or less fissured. Four-fifths of the population are shelterless.

Lost at Sea. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—The name of the ship reported lost last night, was not the Holensburg, but the Alice Buck, from New York. She struck the rocks near Spanishtown, twenty-five miles from here yesterday, and is a total wreck. Of twenty four men aboard ten were drowned, including two Chinamen. The captain was picked up alive after being in water nine Strike of Miners Averted. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 28.-A threatened strike of coal miners in this district for an advance of 5 cents per bushel for mining, retail operators persisted in charging consumers eleven cents per bushel, has been avoided by the miners withdrawing their demands for an increase under the threat of the dealers to advance the price to fourteen cents. day School Scholars' Sympathy. LONDON, Sept. 27.-Last evening the Manchester Sunday school union, representing 2,500 teachers and 22,000 se passed a resolution of sympathy with Mrs. Garfield.

AN OCTOBER WHEAT DEAL.

There was a tremendous advance in Wheat at Chicago vesterday. The market

Ten Cents Advance since ba was higher on 'Charge, but the rise was principally on the Call board. October wheat rose seven cents from the opening figure of the day—134. The price suddenly shot up on the call from 1371 to 141, and fell off 11 cents later. The big jump was due to the covering of short sales for October. It was said that there was a heavy line out with some strong parties on the long side, who were aiding the anxious shorts to put up prices. It is said that the Cincinnatti crowd has been heavily short for some time, and yesterday. It is believed that it has lost all it made on the August deal. It is alleged that the shorts failed in an attempt to break the market by dumping a million bushels on it, and then in despair filled in. Rumors of a formidable combination, with Armour or Kent at the head of the long side, are current. The advance since last Saturday is about ten cents per bushel. Still another story is that the Milwaukee market is cornered for October delivery and that the shorts are buying eash wheat in Chicago and shipping to that city; that the Chicago wheat market was run up to bring it to a point that would make it unprofit

Britannia consoling Columbia, and its title is "A Common Sorrbw." The Hotchkiss revolving cannon works at St. Denis, France, were dressed in deep mourning and were closed during Monday, when one hundred minute guns were fired out of respect for the dead president. An American writes to the Times suggesting that the Americans in London would gladly join if permitted, in placing a slab of American granite in Vestminster Abboy with the words, "In gratitude for the common sorrow of the English people with the Americans in the death of President Garfield." The corres-pondent suggests that President Arthur should make this permission his first act and permit a stone from the abbey with similar words to be brought to Wash-

Expressions of sympathy for the family f the late president and for the country continue to be received from foreign governments. Mrs. Garfield and her family, neluding the mother of the late president, left Cleveland yesterday for Mentor. The funeral trains returned to Washington from Cleveland, and the distinguished officials and others who were present at the obsequies scattered to their respective destinations. The surgeons who attended the late president are preparing a report of the case and a defense of their treatment. A war among the doctors is threatened. The fund for Mrs. Garfield has been raised to $321,251.86.

Sociable Railroad Directors. A meeting of stockholders of the Neva da & Oregon railroad was held vesterday at Reno, Nevade, for the purpose of ousting some of the directors. After the meeting was called to order Frank Fowler requested all except stockholders to retire. No one moved, and he pointed to ex-Judge Wheeler and James McMeehan, of San Francisco, and Treasurer Coffin, of Carson, and told them if they did not go they would be put out.
