COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. The river has risen.

Late market will begin on Tuesday morning, the 4th proximo. The shower of last evening thoroughly cleansed our streets and sewers. The town is now bright as a new pin.

The new departure taken on the P. R. R. is evidently satisfactory to the majority of our railroaders, although some of the firemen and engineers do not like it, on account of the removing their "things' after every trip.

The new 5th street school house is nearing completion. It is now under cover, as the roof has been finished. The preparatory services in the Bethel church are still being continued and are largely attended. Congregations from other churches are invited to attend. Geo. H. Adams's Humpty Dumpty troupe make their appearance in our opera house this evening. A large audience is expected to be present, as Mr. Adams was here a year ago and delighted those pre-sent by his wonderful tricks. An invitation from the United fire comreceived by the Vigilant No. 2, of this place. It has not been decided whether it will be accepted or not, but judging by come remarks made by the members of the Vigie " it will be. This morning about 6 o'clock the wife of Mr. Archey Snavely was horrified to find their little five months old babe dead. The child was well enough last night and no cause can be assigned for its sudden demise.

Numbers of wild duck have made their appearance on the breast of the dam and the rocks below. This morning the crack of the sportsman's rifle echoed and re-echoed along the York county hills as they let fly at his duckship. Our gunners were not very fortunate in bagging their game, as we only could learn of five being brought Market, which for the past month or two was very good, although prices were a little high, was scarcely able to provide the wants of our townsmen this morning. and as a consequence prices for what was there were higher than ordinary.

A colore barber named Jefferson again comes to the front in a scrape for the nonpayment of wages due a woman, whom he hired to whitewash a fence. Jefferson is a whitewash artist himself and in thus trying to defraud another of that corps out of her wages is compelled to have another tilt against justice. This morning we were shown a lusus nature, an apple tree in full bloom. The tree belongs to Mr. George Murr and is of a common stock of apples. The regret he has is that he will be unable to gather the second crop, since he intends to move. Rev. Henry Wheeler and wife left for Binghampton, N. J., this morning. Our young friend Mr. Harry Fasig, formerly an attache of J. A. Meyer's drug store, left for Philadelphia where he has accepted a position in the apothecary department of one of the hospitals; we wish him success in his new home. Mr. Will Shuman, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mr. John Ryneer, departed for his home this morning. Mr. Jas. Hamilton, agent for the "Hearts of Oak," was in town to-day. Colonel Batt, of Black's hotel, is lying ill with that dreaded malaria.

A slight wreck occurred at Rohrerstown about six o'clock this morning. The machine, velocipede, easy chair, large doll, wrecker from Columbia was immediately dispatched to the scene of the accident, and after a couple of hours work succeeded in putting the train to rights, returning to Columbia at 9:10.

Company "C" of the 4th regiment, will certainly go to Yorktown. Colonel Dunkel told one of our lawyers with whon he was talking, that our company ranked the second company in the state as far as regards personnel, and closed his remarks with: "The Columbia company will assuredly go to Yorktown." So, boys, get ready and let there be a full turnout, and let every one make all arrangements for the command, "On to Yorktown." The Reading coal shutes are working busily now in order to load the fleet of boats lying at the wharves. The sale of some valuable property took place last evening at public sale. It is known as the Shuler property. The sale of that, known as Shuler's hall, brought $6,700 from Milton Wike, and the tavern stand brought $6,905 from Mr. Peter Mel-

AN IMPOSING FUNERAL.

Burial of the Late John R. McGovern. The obsequies of the late John R. Mc-Govern, esq., whose death on Sunday evening last has been already announced in these columns, were solemnized this morning at St. Mary's church in the presence of a large number of the relatives and friends of the deceased. The funeral pageant was one of the largest ever witnessed in this city, and composed as it was of many of our leading citizens both of his own and other religious persuasions, it showed the high esteem in which he was held by the community. The solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev P. J. McCullagh, assisted by Rev. Fathers Kaul and McNierney, as deacons and sub-deacons respectively, and Rev. J. C. Hickey as master of ceremonies. The pall-bearers were Hon. John T. MacGonigle, D A. Altick, J. W. Lowell, Daniel McLaughlin, Wm. E. Laut, and H. R McConomy, esq. The choir under the leadership of Mr. Wm. B. Altick furnished excellent music appropriate to the occasion, the rendering of the "Dies Ira" and "Agnus Dei" being especially fine.

At the conclusion of the mass the absolu-tion of the body was performed by Rev.J.C.

Hickey, who also delivered a glowing trib-

This afternoon was the time fixed for a hearing in the case of Edw. H. Cole, vs. Eml. Gundaker for felonious assault and battery, surety of the peace and for carrying concealed deadly weapons.

whereupon the defence asked for a postponement of the hearing until such time as e would be able to attend.

The prosecution insisted on going on, and Alderman Samson o dered the case to proceed; whereupon the defense waived a hearing and entered bail in the sum of $1,000 to answer for felonious assault, and $500 each for surety of the peace and car rying concealed deadly weapons.

pantomime company appeared in the opera house to a very large audience, which would have been a great deal larger had it not been for the heavy rain which set in about the time the doors opened. "Humpty Dumpty" has often been played in this city, but never better than last night. The performance opened with a pantomime scene and just before transformation George Adams, the clown, appeared on the stage driving the handsome little pony "Sene-hitched to a small wagon, " Seneca, which he was seated; he was greeted with greatest applause. After the transformation by the fairy queen the fun began, and the audience was kept in one roar to the rolling down of the curtain. George Adams appeared as clown, and it is safe to say that he has no equal living. He is a wonderful actor in his peculiar line, and by his remarkably fine performance last evening he won new laurels. The clown was ably assisted by James R. Adams, his brother, (known in circus circles pany No. 3, of Frederick city, Md., was as "Pico") who made an excellent Pantaloon, Albert Martinette was the nimble Harlequin and Miss Pauline Martinette the fascinating Columbine. This of being cured, when I purchased of your quartette make one of the strongest teams box of Ely's Cream Balm. It introduced the Great Thorn in slight-of-hand tricks, &c. Miss Belle Gabrelle in chrystalian chimes, Mons. and Mame Jules Tissot, the living automatons, Leslie Brothers, in excellent gymnastic performance, the renowned Praeger Family in Tyrolean warbling, and the well known cat duets, the wonderful Martinetti Family, in grouping. &c., and Prof. Davis, a fine ventriloquist. George Adams, the clown, gave his celebrated stilt act in which he is unrivaled, and the rest of the programme closed with the wonderful performance of John Wingfield's troupe of trained dogs, which was the best ever seen here. One of the animals did some remarkable leaping and drew forth thunders of applause.

RESCUED FROM DEATH The following statement of William J Cough-

in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summe of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big a- a half collar. 1 expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicine. I was so far gone at one time a repor went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of Dr. Wn. HALL'S BALSAN FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surpris and gratification, I commenced to feel better My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to day I feel in better spirits than I have the past

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that everyone afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen

THE TRIAL OF GUITEAU. New Jersey's Authorities Leave the Case to the District of Columbia's Government.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The United moves any obstacle that might have been expected in this direction, and the district attorney is prepared to push the case rapidly. There will probably be about twenty-one witnesses for the government when the case is brought to trial. No answer has yet been received from Geo. Scoville, Guiteau's brother in-law, who was requested by him to appear as his counsel. Guiteau stated this morning that he had abandoned the idea of writing to Hon. Emory Storrs asking him to assist in his defense, and he will now leave the entire disposal of his case in the hands of Mr. Scoville.

OUR FEARFUL PRESIDENT. "Mysterious Eugene," Mr. Arthur's " Body Guard."

Apropos of the statement relative to the rumored plot to assassinate President Arthur, the following from the Washington special to the Baltimore American will be found interesting: It is stated by those who know the president intimately, that he fears some attempted violence upon himself cannot be doubted. This would seem to be proved not only by his declining to accompany the remains of the late president to Ohio, but by the fact that New Jersey, a communication in which he states that no action will be taken in Guiteau's case by the authorities of that state. This also. It is said that Eugene is at present officiating as a private detective; that he is always armed to the teeth, and is continually on the alert to shoot down the first person who makes an attempt to molest the president. Eugene has become quite famous of late in consequence of his mysterious movements, though he is by no means unknown here. For a number of years he held the position of cabinet maker in the Senate wing of the capitol, and at the time of the death of the late Vice President Wilson prepared and draped the latter's catafalque, on which the body lay in state in the rotunda of the capitol, with his own hands. Later, when Col. Bright was elected secretary of the Senate, and the Democrats entered into power. Eugene was removed. He then enlisted in the regular service of the army, and was detailed to clercial duty in the war office. When Mr. Arthur was elected vice president, however, he made Eugene his contidential messenger, and he has been his confidential man ever since. It is said that Eugene is to be appointed chief doorkeeper at the White House, an office held for
