JAIL BIRDS

TAKE AN EARLY FLIGHT. Two Convicts Over the Walls and Far Away. The news quietly crept down town today that two more convict prisoners of the county jail had got away sometime this morning, and an INTELLIGENCER representative who reached the prison at 2 m .- chanks to the courtesy of Harry Myers and the speed of his white horsethere learned all the particulars. It seems that it is the custom early in the morning, about 5 o'clock, for Watchman Thompson to go up stairs and into the cells, wake up the prisoners who work at tobacco stripping, &c., in the brick building and turn them down in the corridor, whence Watchman William C. Reed escorts them to their work. This morning, as usual, a lot were thus disposed of and among those who were sent out under charge of Reed were Harman Koch, convicted August 22, 1881, of burglary, in robbing a Mt. Joy barber shop and sent to prison for a year; and Wm. W. Walker, a negro, sent to jail August 18, 1881, for six months, for largeny and carrying concealed weapons. Reed says Koch asked permission to go to the pump and wash his face. The request was not an ucusual one and was granted. For a moment Reed's attention was recalled to the prison, Koch was on his way to the pump, and when Reed looked again he was gone. Walker likely disappeared at the same time, though Reed missed only Koch when he set the prisoners to work, and reported his absence when he went off duty. At 6 a. m. the underkeepers also missed Walker and a little investigation disc'osed that both men had escaped over the wall in the It was found that they had made in the cells ropes from old rags and bed clothes. To the end of one of these was fixed a hook, made from a piece of iron rod, and to the other a a brick in a small bag. They had doebtless hurried to the jail yard wall, thrown over the hook, which eaught in the eas ing on top of the wall on the other side, and the men had only to pull themselves up hand over hand, change the fastening from the outside to the inside and slip down the other side. Their slippers were left behind, and it was only when, in search for Koch's means of escape, two pairs of slippers were found, that the jail officials knew two men had got away, and discovered that Walker must be the other missing man. Plenty of tracks were found on the outside, but no cine to their wie calou's. The men evidently made their scaling ropes in their cells and threw them out for use this morning before going to work. It is manifest that a most careless system of removing the men from the jail to the workshop is responsible for their escape. The prison door might as well have been left open.

ACTION FOR DAMAGES.

On Tuesday last Morris Lavy, of this city, sent a telegram from Lancaster at 7 o'clock in the morning to New York. He asked the person to whom it was sent whether his (Levy s) mother was ready to found that somebody had stolen it. It come on here and told him to answer at once to Philadelphia. Mr. Levy went to to Mr. Snyder, several out-lines, five hun-Philadelphia that morning and waited for | dred books and several other articles. The an answer. He received none and then left thief will oblige the gentlemen by returnfor New York, where he was told by the person to whom he had sent the message that none had been received.

About So'clock in the evening he went to a telegraph office and found the message hanging on a book. It had never been delivered, and no reason was given him for the failure. He at once entered suit against the company to recover $50 damages. This morning before Alderman Barr there was a hearing in the case. Mr. John E. Zecher, manager of the Western Union offices in this city, appeared for the company : he stated that he had telegraphed to the superintendent for instructions but had received none, he would therefore do nothing in the case; the message had been sent from this city and the fault lay with the New York office. Mr. Levy was represented by J. Hay Brown. He gave his evidence as related above, stating that he was in the office here when the message was sent. The alderman entered judgment in the sum of $50 against the

Of a message containing several huadred words, sent from Williamsport to the INTELLIGENCER office, one day last week and all filed in the Williamsport office about 9 a. m. a few lines were received promptly in this city and the balance was retarded for hours and never reached its destination until in the afternoon Afterwhile people who want to send messages promptly on the route of the W. to recover the price of twenty or thirty trees which the plaintiff alleged the defendant cut and carried from his land. The plaintiff owns 8 acres of woodland, all of which, except one-half acre, is situated in Honeybrook township, Chester county. The half acre is in Carnarnoa township. It is from this latter portion that the wood was alleged to have been cut. Several witnesses were called who tes tified that they saw the defendant cutting trees. None, however, were certain whether it was in Lancaster county. The defense was that Groff had never cut any trees from the plaintiff's property, but that he had cut some from an adjoining piece and had hauled them through his woods. The jury found for the defense. The case of A. Teller vs. Edward Kauffman was attached before noon and is now Before Judge Patterson.

The defense was that the plaintiff had failed to prove the execution of the note by the defendant or any promise to pay within six years. Verdict for plain-tiff for full amount, $1,130.92, under the court's instructions.

The court refused to grant a charter to the Girard Mutual Aid association -- a matrimonial insurance company.

ford was discharged. Mr. Walter Swartz, who is clerking at Leavenworth, Kansas, sent home a burr containing ten hazel nuts, which he says grow in profusion in that county. The barr is a curiosity, as nothing of the kind was ever before seen in Columbia.

The printing office owned by Mr. Steve Moderwell will most likely be bought and run by Mr. Frank Sener, a nephew of Squire Grier, of the Herald. We wish him success in his undertaking and hope our citizens will give him a fair show of their oatronage.

Pennsylvania Railroad Detectives Kennedy and Johnson have been notified to be on the "lookout" for a young boy aged 18, by the name of Courtney, who ranaway from his home in Philadelphia yesterday. It is thought that he will come this way, as his companions say he was going out West. it is without a doubt, for the fields in the country present a very dry appearance, the river is unusually low for this time of the year and everything had a dry and sulty look. At 11 a. m. the clouds broke and a clear day is now predicted.

This morning while Mr. F. S. Bletz was dismounting from his carriage in front of E. K. Smith & Co.'s banking house, his horse, becoming frighted, started off, throwing the gentleman violently to the ground. Serious injuries might have been the result, but for the quickness of Mr. Sener Bletz, who, seeing his father's danger, promptly stopped the horse Mr. Bletz was considerably shaken up but received no damage worth mentioning. In yesterday's issue we noticed the fish ing trip of Mr. Jacob Snyder and another gentleman. Some of the points were misrepresented. They did forget to put the bag in the boat, but returning for it contained a whole suit of clothes belonging ing the bag and centents to its owners. At 7:25 this morning engine No. 14, at tached to passenger train No. 5, struck and killed a cow in Wrightsville, and the e meassion was so great that the engine and tender were displaced from the rails. Shifting engine No. 441 took the Columbia wreck car over and in a couple of hours the damage was repaired. By the accident the 7:30 connection was missed but an engine and baggage car were sent over and transferred the passengers and baggage in time to connect with the 8:30 ac commodation.

On Friday and Saturday evenings of this week the entertainment for the benefit of the Presbyterian Sunday school will be held in company C's armory. The main feature will be the "Broomstick Drill," by the young ladies of the school. This is something new and novel, yet at the same time it will be very interesting, as the young ladies who range in ages between and 18 years, will be dressed in fancy costume, made alike, but with different colors. The doors will open at 7 o'clock, and the drill begin at 7:30, when an admission fee will be charged. At 8 the doors will be opened to the public who can then enter free of charge. Refreshments will then be sold. A large attendance is requested. Last evening Company C held its regulor monthly inspection, which we are sorry to say was poorly attended, only 21 mea, including officers, appearing in uniform. Mr. John Purple was appointed sixth corporal. The promotion was a deserved one, as John was one of the first who joined the company and has ever been an attentive member, and is one of the best drilled men in the company. Other appointments are to be made next Monday evening; and probably some discharges. Capt. Case had drawn up an article, binding all who signed it to go to Yorktown, providing the company goes. More Reversals.

The last session of the supreme court at Harrisburg was remarkable for the number of Lancaster county cases reversed. HARD LUCK.

The American Team Still Behind in the Cricket Match.

CRICKET GROUNDS, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—The rain this morning caused a delay in starting the third day's play of the inthe wicket. Butts and Peate commenced the bowling and the first two overs resulted in maidens. Hargrave made the initial run by cutting Peate in the next

At the dinner hour four of the American wickets have fallen for 16 runs. Hargrave was bowled by Peate for 6. Morgan was caught out at mid on by Emmet off Peate for 4, and the champion bat R. S. Newhall was caught out for nothing by Bates off Peate. Haines has made one.

A GRAIN PANIC.

The Corn Market Depressed. NEW YORK, Oct. 4 .- On early 'change o-day the corn market was very much epressed and unsettled. The market eclining 13(a 2c per bushel, on account of the reported failure of several of the large bears in corn in Chicago. The sales of orn before and at the first call aggregate about 2,500,00 bushels.

The Panic in Chicago, CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The report that John B. Lyon, the heaviest shipper of corn in this market, was short about eight million bushels, created almost a panic on 'change. He was said to have been called for one million margin last night after business hours and to have failed to respond. This fact and the action of the board of directors fixing the marginal price of corn at 62 cents, broke the backbone of the corn market, and all other grains sold down in sympathy.

A BIG "CLAIM,"

Against the Estate of Judge Packer. Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—In the orphans' court this morning before Judge Hanna the audit of the estate of Asa Packer took place. No objection was made to the account, but Mr. George Bull presented a claim against the estate amounting to over three million dollars. The claim is made in behalf of Noble Hammett & Company of the heavy receipts since Sa'urday prices designed for extra steek, but on account of the heavy receipts since Sa'urday prices designed for extra steek, but on account of the heavy receipts since Sa'urday prices designed for extra steek. in behalf of Noble, Hammett & Co., who aided in the construction of the Lehigh Valley railroad. Mr. Bull, who represented a surviving partner of the firm, wished to go into the merits of the claim, but it appearing that the mme issue is now before the Carbon common pleas court awaiting a decision there, Judge Hanna indicated that he would make an order postponing the matter until the first of March, 1882, before which time the supreme court would have an opportunity of passing upon the question; no distribution to be made until then. CAPITAL TOPICS

Blaine Starts for Washington. Boston, Oct. 4 - A special from Augusta, Maine, says, Blaine left there this morning for Washington. The same dispatch says no credence is placed in the report that he is to be the Republican candidate for Governor next year.

The President Returns to the Seat of Government. NEW YORK, Oct, 4.-President Arthur, accompanied by his secretary and valet, left the city this morning for Washington by the ten o'clock train. He was met at Jersey City by Senator Jones, of Nevada,
