BY FATHER RYAN. My feet are wearied and my hands are tired-My soul oppressed. And with desire have I long desired Rest-only rest.

"Tis hard to toil, when toll is almost vain, In barren ways: 'Tis hard to sow and never garner grain In harvest days.

The burden of my days is hard to bear, But God knows best;

And I have prayed-but vain has been my For rest, sweet rest.

'Tis hard to plant in spring and never reap The autumn yield; 'Tis hard to till and when 'tis tilled to weep

O'er fruttless field. And so I cry, a weak and human cry, So heart oppressed; And so I sigh, a weak and human sigh

For rest-for rest.

My way has wound across the desert years, And cares infest

My path, and through the flowing of hot tears I pine for rest. 'Twas always so; when still a child I laid

On mother's breast

My weary tittle head—e'en then I prayed Arnow, for rest. And I am restless still; 'twill soon be o'er Far down the west Life's sun is setting, and I see the shore

Where I shall rest. The Prince of Tramps.

Memphis Appeal. The very romance of tramp life was exemplified yesterday by a dilapidated look ing individual with only one leg whose name was registered at the station house as W. II. Cardwell. He is known to many persons as a reporter and has lived a most variegated life. His full name is Wyatt Henry Cardwell. His father was the eminent Dr. Cardwell, of Richmond, Va., and his mother was the eldest daughter of the world renowned orator Patrick Henry. Cardwell is said to be a graduate of Washington university and has withal a polished education. He has the remarkable facility of repeating long poems from memory. It is said he can troll out Childe Harold, Don Juan and such poems from beginning to end. At the age of fifteen he joined the Confederate army and was shot at Manassas, losing his leg. He was taken to Richmond hospital, where he excited the attention of prominent ladies and gentlemen by his precocity. Afterward he became private secretary to Senator He has wandered all over the country, being now heard of in New York, now in Cincinnati, now in Louisville, and now in Washington. At the present time he is heard of in Memphis. He has done considerable newspaper work in his time, was connected with the National Star

at Goodman, Miss., in 1878, and afterward was on the Kosiciusko Chronicle. Where-ever he has been he has had a pursuer-whisky. It has made him tramp all over the United States, and has frequently caused him to be arrested. He has an extensive acquaintance with the great men of the country, and has now in his possession a letter from Alexander H. Stephens congratulating him upon his reform. He is a man of good address and has reduced begging to a fine art. For instance, in approaching a stranger, he will say: "Will you pardon the perfect ingenuosness of the request, but could you lend me half a dollar to get a night's lodging ?" Should the person thus approached deny the request, he will not be indignant or insulting, but wi'l gracefully change the conversation to national politics, the ethics of journalism, the traits of great men or similar topics, He is an accomplished performer on the banjo. With all his bad habits, he is said to be honest. It is the one remnant of the Virginia gentleman. A more remarkable career could hardly be imagined. From a fine family to the profession of a common tramp, and he is only about 35 years of age. There was a time when he would force his way into the families of respectable people, but he does so no longer, and it is only too palpable that he has lost caste with hi mself.

Kidney diseases afflict the greater part of the human race, and they are constantly on the increase, but where the virtues of Kidney-Wort have become known, they are held in check and speedily cured. Let those who have had to constantly dose spirits of nitre and such stuff, give this great remedy a trial and be cured. In the dry form it is most economical, in the liquid the most convenient,—Philadel-phia Press.

LANCASTER, PA., April 28, 1881.
THE KIDNEYCURA MP'G COMPANY. Gents—It gives me much pleasure to say that after using one pack of KIDNEYCURA I have been entirely cured of a severe pain in my back and side, of long standing, and that, too, after trying various known remedies. I have every confidence in your medicine, cheerfully recommend it, and know that many of my irlends who have used it have been benefited. PETER BAKER, m2:Tyd Foreman Examiner and Express.

KIDNEY WORT.

WONDERFUL CURES.

Because it acts on the LIVER, BOWELS and KIDNEYS at the same time. Because it cleanses the system of the poison ous humors that develop in Kidney and Uri nary Diseases, Biliousness, Jaundice, Consti-pation, Piles, or in Rheumatism, Neuralgia Nervous Disorders and Female Complaints.

SEE WHAT PEOPLE SAY: Eugene B. Stork, of Junction City, Kansas. says Kidney Wort cured him after regular Physicians had been trying for four years. Mrs. John Arnall, of Washington, Ohio, says her boy was given up to die by four prom-inent physicians and that he was afterwards cured by Kidney Wort.

M. M. B. Goodwin, an editor in Chardon, Ohio, says he was not expected to live, being bloated beyond belief, but Kidney Wort cured him.

Anna L. Jarrett, of South Salem, N. Y., says Anna L. Jarrett, of South Salem, N. 1... says that seven years suffering from kidney troubles and other complications was ended by the use of Kidney Wort.

John B. Lawrence, of Jackson, Tenn., suffered for years from liver and kidney troubles and after taking "barrels of other medicines," Kidney Wort made him well.

Michael Cole of Montgomery Cantre, Vt. Michael Coto, of Montgomery Centre, Vt., suffered eight years with kidney difficulty and was unable to work. Kidney Wort made him

HOSE.

800 pairs of ladies' lisle hose at 50 cents; plain colors; 1,000 pairs sample half-hose, 25 and 371 cents; bought just now in Nottingham. They are worth twice the prices; some of them more.

We ordered lately 100 dozen of ladies' plain black silk hose, all of one quality and just alike. The manufacturer said it was the largest order he had ever received from a retailer. We buy in quantities only staple articles. We shall have, may be, before the season is over, 1,000 sorts of hose; of some of them only a single pair.

Outer circle, east from Chestnut street en-trance.

LINENS.

We are willing that these should be taken as samples of our summer buying of linens; Barnsley double damask table linen at $1.50, Scotch ditto at $2, and German napkins, a half inch under 3 yd. square, $2.25 a dozen. There are about 6 patterns of each.

Wo have a wide range in linens very fully covered. Outer and next-outer circles, City-ball-square entrance.

Let a $5 woo! blanket speak for our bedding.

BLANKETS.

Manufacturers are responsible for a good deal of the common cheating in blankets. Cotton gets into almost all the low-priced blankets, without getting into the tickets. They are sold for all wool by the makers, and few merchants know the fact. A little cotton can be hidden in a woolen blanket, and a good profit hidden with it. If you find a fibre of cotton in our $5 woolen blanket come and Southwest corner of building.

LACES.

Our lace buyer has returned from Europe and the new things are begin ning to come in.

Floss lace (first appearance here), embroidered with floss silk on silk net; cream and black. Only two widths as yet, $1.25 and $3.25; more are about 15 per cent. below last season's.
