While Abel and an assistant were unloading the furniture at Mr. Shaub's house, the horse frightened at an The employees at the coal shutes are express wa on which a small boy was playing with on the pavement. He ran out to Conestoga street thence to South Queen, and was caught on Strawberry street near the colored church. The furniture was all thrown from the wagon and most of it was badly broken or otherwise damaged.

A Series of These Familiar Incidents. This afternoon about 1 o'clock Mr. Dauiel Graybill, of Petersburg, let his horse and buggy stand on West King street. The horse took flight, ran up West King street to Centre Square and thence up North Queen street to the Franklin house. In attempting to turn into the Franklin house yard the horse ran against the front of the cigar store adjoining and fell, hurting itself somewhat. The wheels, shafts and swingletree of the carriage were also broken.

About the same time a horse attached to a spring wagon took fright at the cars near the Prince street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad, ran down Prince to Chestnut and along Chestnut to the depot, where it was caught, no great damage being done. This forenoon as Urban & Burger's business wagon was being driven near Centre square, one of the wheels came off and the spindle was broken. No other damage

Jap is Dead.

After a long life of usefulness and amiability Jap quietly breathed his last this morning. Jap was a black-and-tan terrier, a member of the family of Mr. J. M. Johnston, of the INTELLIGENCER, and a general favorite in the neighborhood. He was never known to harm a human being, and his whole career was marked by sober sense, good nature and canine virtue in general, while in his youth, and indeed until physical infirmity began to tell on him, he had no superior as a ratter. From his puppyhood he had suffered with a game leg, the result of an exploit of the writer of his obituary, but he bore this affliction with singular fortitude, and indeed seemed rather proud, than otherwise of his ability to travel on three legs. Every dog has his day, and now that Jap has come to his, it is with genuine feeling that the sentiment requiescat in pace is recorded by a wide circle of sorrowing friends and acquaintances. He was in the seventcenth year of his age.

Bridal Reception.

Yesterday at the bride's residence, in Lancaster city, Mr. Richard T. Myers, of York, and Miss Lizzie M. Trewetz, of the above named city, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The marriage rites were performed by Rev. C. F. Knight, rector of St. James P. E. church of Lancaster. The newly wedded couple arrived at York the same afternoon and gave a brilliant reception at the residence of the groom's parents, on South George street. The happy couple received the congratulations of over two hundred ladies and gentlemen. The parlors were neatly trimmed with evergreens, and the tollars on all unregistered dogs caught. refreshment table contained a bountiful supply of eatables. The Cold Wave. A cold wave struck these parts last night and the air is quite enilly to day. Plenty of overcoats are worn and it reminds one of winter. The straw hat is still on the town, however, and it sticks to the overcoat as though they had been warm friends all summer. The mosquitoes have left for the Yorktown centennial, having obtained cheap railroad rates. Heavy underelothing is in demand and linen dusters have been packed away. Baker Young seemed to have been aware of the approaching cold wave, for he walked around the town yesterday ringing a bell, calling in straw hats and summer clothes. If the wearers do not heed the warning the cannon will be shot off to-morrow.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT 5, 1881.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 5 .- For the Middle Atlantic states, fair weather, northerly winds, higher barometer and stationary or lower temperature. THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

Good Feeling Prevails at the Start. NEW YORK, Oct. 5 .- The Republican state committee met shortly after nine o'clock, Platt presiding, and agreed upon Frank Hiscock for temporary chairman of the convention. Good feeling prevails.

The Convention. NEW YORK, Oct. 5 .- The Republican state convention was called to order at 11:15 a. m. by ex-Senator Platt. The Academy of Music was crowded. It is estimated that four thousand people were in the Academy, including several hundred ladies. At the roll call Platt's name caused immense cheering, and that of C. M. Depew was received with great enthu-

When Speaker Sharpe proposed Frank Hiscock, for temporary chairman, the former's speech was coldly received. Mr. Hiscock then, with considerable warmth, declined. A delegate then, amid great cheering, proposed the name of Senator Warner Miller, and the yeasand nays were ordered. The total vote was 488. Miller receiving 298, and Hiscock 190. Majority for Miller 108. The announcement was received with applause.

Mourning for Garfield-Cheers for Arthur. Mr. Miller on taking the chair said they met to-day as a band of mourners, and proceeded to eulogize the late President Garfield and asking for a united and harnonious support for him who has succeed ed our late illustrious chief. Senator Madden here proposed three cheers for Arthur, which were given. The convention adjourned until 7:30

BAY STATE POLITICS.

Iassachusetts Democratic State Convention WORCESTER, Oct. 5 .- The Massachusetts Democratic convention was called to order at 11:25 by Jonas French, who made an address.

Col. French spoke feelingly of President Garfield, who he said belonged to the whole people, and whose death binds them in close fellowship. At the conclusion of his remarks, he was called by the conven tion to act as temporary chairman. The usual committees were then appointed and Jarvis N. Dunham, of Springfield, was elected permanent chairman and the organization of the convention otherwise completed. Renben Noble nominated Hon. Charles P. Thompson, of Gloucester, for governor, which was carried by acclamation. Col. French said Alpha E. Thompson had withdrawn as a candidate for lieut. governor; in his place he nominated James H. Carleton, of Haverhill. Mr. Carleton was then nominated for lieutenant governor with few dissenting voices. A committee was appointed to nomin ate the balance of the state ticket and the convention took a recess for an hour. THE PRESIDENT'S CASE.

of that journal. He concludes his history of the case as follows : "I desire to say, in a brief review of the leading facts, as to the general conduct of the case, that it has been apparent to the medical reader that my prognosis was favorable, and notwithstanding the mutations I argued a successful termination. It is but justice to himself to state that my prognosis was based on a lesion of minor importance. Had our diagnosis been correct, modern surgery should have conducted the case to a successful determination. I believe the medical profession, whom I address, will bear me out that the prognosis was correct if the diagnosis had been also correct. I was not always able during the progress of the case to account for many of the more profound symptoms and yet could not succeed in learning of any more extensive or complicated lesions than were first suspected,"

BOLD ROBBERS.

High-Handed Crime in a Baltimore Bank BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 5.—This morning two thieves entered the building of the South Baltimore Permanent saving association on Light street, and while one held a pistol to the head of the clerk in charge, H. P. Orem, the other felled him to the floor with a billy. The theives then robbed the safe, securing $300 in money and $1,000 in checks. One of the thieves was caught, and $140 in money recovered. The captured man gave name of Walter H. Campbell.

WOLFE ON BOSS RULE.

An Outpouring of the Independent Republi-caus of Philadelphis. The Wolfe meeting in the Assembly building, Philadelphia, last night was a grand success. Dr. Thos. G. Morton presided and a long list of vice presidents was read. Wolfe spoke for an hour and a half. was rapturously applauded, and his speech is reported in full in the Times and Press. The following extracts will convey an idea of it : . Referring to Baily's candidacy, originating with Cameron and only after a Blaine man from Baily's county had come out for state treasurer, Wolfe said a Fayette county gentleman wrote to him on August 9; on Friday morning the Harrisburg Independent contained a favorable editorial notice of the candidacy of Colonel Stewart for state treasurer. Senator Cameron telegraphed to General Baily, of Uniontown, at once, notifying him to come to Harrisburg. Baily has just returned, announcing that at the instance of Senator Cameron and his friends he is a candidate of Library Room of the Court House, in the City of Lancaster, where all persons interested in said distribution may attend.

CHAS, R. KLINE

"The convention slate-Baily for treasurer, Quay for temporary chairman, Harry W. Oliver's brother to present him, White for permanent chairman, Palmer to present the candidate and Tom Cooper to be chairman of the state committee-w: suggestive of stalwart audacity, senatorial indignity, riot bill rascality, pardon board infamy and legislative jobbery."

"There was painful gagging at the feast of bitter herbs 'the bosses' had prepared for the Independent and Reform Republicans of Pennsylvania. Relief was found in flerce denunciation in the private conference. It was determined that vigorous and cloquent protests against the shameless wrong should find expression on the floor of the convention. Attorney General Lear Senator Stewart and ex-Senator Landoc were commissioned to enter them The convention came. The weak protest of Senator Landon was but a porapology for the condemnation promisand that should have been pronounced. ! was surrender - shameful, craven a: complete. There was a majority, but it was one secured through treachery and boss' power. There was harmony, but it was the harmony of despair. There was unanimity, but it was the sullen or help less acquiescence of poor slaves recaptured in their flight to freedom and led back with handcuffed wrists and manacled ankles into accursed slavery. As if to fill the cup of bitter humiliation to the full, the platform must outrage the party by feigning ignorance of the gross corruptions and abuses which so re cently have shocked the public sense, by indorsing an administration which no honest man can but condemn, and by trifling with our sense and sympathies in awkward, meaningless and heartless platitudes of approval of President Garfield's administration and of sympathy in the sore affliction.'

Mr. Wolfe was very severe in his de unciations of the Camerons as bolters and betrayers of their party, as tricksters and spoilsmen, and denounced Quay and Palmer vigorously, charging that the attorney general after professing to desire the con viction of the legislative bribers turned tail to that cause and betrayed it.
