EDUCATIONAL. MLETING OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Committees' Reports—Amendments to Rules —The Night Schools—Election of Teachers.

JOHN WANAMAKER'S. A stated meeting of the board of directors of Lancaster city school district was held last evening. The following named members were present : Messrs. Baker, Breneman, Cochran, Eberman, Erisman, Evans, Haas, Harris, J. I. Hartman, Herr, Jackson, Johnston, Levergood, Marshall, McComsey, Morton, Oblender, Riemensnyder, Rhoads, Rich-ards, Samson, Schmid, Schwebel, Slaymaker, Smeych, Spurrier, Westhaeffer, Wilson, Christian Zecher, Geo. W. Zecher, Warfel, president. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Mr. Baker presented the following report from the superintending committee, which was read :

The duty assigned to the committee of framing rules and regulations under which books for the poor shall hereafter be purchased at the expense of the district has been discharged. The books are now issued on an application by the parents or guardians, accompanied by a declaration of inability to purchase the same. This application is referred to the director residing nearest the applicant, by the teach er, who states what hocks are needed. If this director is satisfied that the applicant is the proper person to receive such aid, he directs the city superintendent to furnish the books, and the latter issues an order on the bookseller, who is supplied with a stamp, with which each book is stamped on page 25. The superintendent keeps a record of the books furnished, charging each pupil and teacher to whom books are furnished. A blank for the annual report of the teacher of books furnished and returned is also provided. The arrangements and regulations are therefore complete ; the one thing necessary now is care and vigilance on the part of directors before they approve the applications. On the 16th of September the committee held its second meeting to consider the application of Miss Nellie E Rupley for a transfer from ber position to that of first assistant in a combined primary school. The committee unanimously agreed to grant her request, and transferred her to the school on South Duke street, and appointed Miss Clara O. Spindler, the former first assistant, to the position made vacant by the transfer of Miss Rupley. The change seems to be entirely satisfactory, and the committee, therefore, request the board to confirm the same. The committee
