SILKS. Long-ple-plushes. One plain black with pile longer than seal fur, and with high lustre, having the effects of a very glossy fur; for coats, $8. Another, figured, the figures made by varying the length of the pile; several colors, $10. Scotch silk, $5.50 to $6.50. Alternate wide stripes of moiré antique and bright armures of an oriental character. $4.50. Next-outer circle, Chestnut-street entrance.

WHITE GOODS. Of fine white goods we have a complete stock wanting nothing. Whatever one may want, that ladies, children or babies wear, is to be found here, with many more to choose from. Next-outer circle, City-hall square.

DRESS GOODS. A cheviot dress cloth, really of a fine check with an irregular illumination and a very obscure plaid; but looked at a yard away, it appears to be a basket. It is therefore a basket-effect produced by color; if we mistake not, an entirely new and interesting piece of color-work. 42 inches wide; $1.10. Another cheviot of the very same small checks, but without the basket effect, simpler, plainer, and when closely looked at probably prettier, though it is hardly fair to compare. Next-outer circle, Chestnut-street entrance.

CASHMERE AND MERINOS. Lapin's merinos and cashmires, accepted throughout the world as the standard of quality, we have in sixteen colors and ten qualities of each, 50 cents to $1. Evening cashmires of about thirty-five colors and shades, and of five qualities, 50 cents to $1. Next-outer circle, Chestnut-street entrance.

BLACK DRESS GOODS. Black cashmire in seventeen qualities, 37½ cents to $2. Black merinos of twelve qualities, 30 cents to $1.25; of three makes, Lapin's, Vogel's and Carlier's; of three shades, jet-black, medium-black and blue-black. Next-outer circle, Chestnut-street entrance.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.
DRIFT OF THE DISCUSSION.

Points for Reflection by Thinking People.
Those who insist that either Mr. Randall or Mr. Wallace must have interfered to secure Noble's nomination—they had an entire right to do so—are referred to the fact that Mr. Noble only got one vote from the congressional district in which Mr. Wallace lives, and none from Mr. Randall's district.

The big Wolfe meeting in Newcastle, Lawrence county, was presided over by James M. Martin, a well known lawyer, and there was a long list of vice presidents—men who have been life-long Republicans, such as Charles M. Phillips, Thomas W. Phillips (brother of the late President Garfield).

Bound to Prevail Soon.
Northern Tier Reporter.
The Democrats recently assembled in state convention at Wheeling, West Virginia, to pass any rules governing the organization and deliberation of future assemblies of the same character. For this inexcusable neglect, the rank and file of the party certainly have a right to complain and demand a change in the present mode of procedure. Each has a perfection of its own. Factory-work, made as we get it, is a new grade of sewing.

NEW LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS WITH colored borders have come; but, so far as we have seen yet, there is nothing notably new in styles. They are almost all mechanical figures of the general character that has prevailed for some months.

General Baily and the ominous silence of the platform on which he stands, the record of Mr. Noble and the ringing declarations of the Democratic platform present a vivid contrast. Mr. Noble is no stranger to the oil region. Interested in its early development, and identified with many of its largest enterprises, he has long endeavored to appreciate the true character of the Standard Oil Ring and assisted in organizing the first formal opposition to the lawless encroachments of that corrupt institution. It is a significant circumstance, and one creditable in the highest degree to Mr. Noble, that the most resolute opposition to his nomination came directly from and through a known agent of the Standard Oil Ring. Mr. Noble is one of the most creditable candidates the Democrats have presented for years, and if they do not now turn in and give him a triumph an election there will be no one to blame but themselves. He can be elected—in fact nothing short of the most insane blundering can prevent it.

And this is the reason, also, things look dreadfully blue for Boss Cooper. A general advertising notice.
